Stansbury Blades
vs.
William H. Bostick.

In the Circuit Court for Talbot County.

In the Circuit Court for Talbot County.

Stansbury Blades, by Thomas and Bateman, his attorneys, sues William H. Bostick, for that, whereas, the said plaintiff heretofore, to wit, on the first day of March, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty, was in possession, at Talbot County, of all that parcel of land situate, lying and being in the Town of Easton, in said County, and described as follows, that is to say: All that piece or parcel of land lying at the southeast corner of Talbot lane and Smith street, in the Town and County aforesaid, and where of Mary Jane Bostick, of said County, died, seized and possessed. And the defendant did, on the first day of March, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty, at the County aforesaid, wrongfully enter said parcel of land and eject him, the said plaintiff therefrom, and the said defendant ever since has retained, and still retains possession of the said lot or parcel of land and other wrongs to the said plaintiff, then and there did to his great damage.

And the said plaintiff claims the recovery of the said parcel of land and for damages, $500
