April Term 1883.

Julius C. Hall against the said Fannie E. C. Holstead and from which said judgment the said Fannie E. C. Holstead appealed to the Court of Appeals here, the tenor of which said Record of Proceedings is in form following, to wit:

State of Maryland,

Anne Arundel Co, Set:

At a Circuit Court of the Fifth Judicial Circuit of the State of Maryland, begun and held at the City of Annapolis, in and for Anne Arundel County, on the third Monday of April, being the seventeenth day of the same month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

Present:-

The Hon. Oliver Miller, Chief Judge.

Wm. N. Hayden, Asso. Judge.

H. Sellman Anderson, Esq, Sheriff. Spragg Harwood, Clerk.

In the Record and Proceedings of the same Court, among others is the following, to wit:

Fannie E. C. Holstead, vs Julius C. Hall.	Be it remembered, that on the 13th day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, the said plaintiff, by

John Ireland and William H. Tuck, Esquires, her attorneys, files in Court the following declaration in ejectment, to wit:

Maryland,

Anne Arundel County, Set:

Fannie E. C. Holstead, by her attorneys, John Ireland and Wm. H. Tuck, sues Julius C. Hall, of said county:

For that the defendant wrongfully entered upon, and ejected the plaintiff, from her undivided moiety, in all that lot of ground lying in Annapolis City, on the southwest corner of Cornhill street and Market Space, and the improvements thereon erected, whereof Ann Sandin died seized and possessed.

April Term 1883.

And for that the defendant wrongfully entered upon, and ejected the plaintiff from, all that lot of ground lying in Annapolis City, on the southwest corner of Cornhill street and Market Space, and the improvements thereon erected, whereof Ann Sandin, late of said city, died seized and possessed to an undivided fourth part of which the said plaintiff is entitled, under the last will and testament of the said Ann Sandin. And the plaintiff therefore claims possession of one-fourth interest in said property, and $1,000 for her damages.

Jno. Ireland

Wm. H. Tuck,

For Plaintiff.

A copy of which declaration was made and sent to the Sheriff of Anne Arundel County, thereon endorsed: "Served, by leaving copy with Julius C. Hall.

"Thos. S. Autwell, Shff."

At which mentioned third Monday of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, and the third day of the return of the said declaration, the said defendant, in pursuance of the notice aforesaid, comes into Court here, by Frank H. Stockett, Esq, his attorney.

And the said defendant, by his attorney aforesaid, defends the force and injury, and says that he is not guilty of the said supposed grievances above laid to his charge, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above complained against him, and this he prays may be enquired of by the Court; and the said plaintiff in like manner, &c

Whereupon, all and singular the premises being seen, and by the Court here fully understood, and mature deliberation being thereupon had, it is considered by the Court here, that the said defendant is not guilty of the trespass and ejectment aforesaid, in manner and form aforesaid as the plaintiff
