his name as witness thereto, at the request of the testatrix, and in presence, and all in the presence of each other.

Wm Bryan,
Reg. Wills A. A. County.

The witness, John Dailey, also made oath, that he was well acquainted with John S. Berry and John I. Berry, that the former is now living, and John I. Berry is dead, that the will of Ann Lamden, to the best of his knowledge and belief, was executed in the counting room of Hurst and Berry, in Baltimore, and that he is familiar with the signature of John S. Berry and John I. Berry, and that their signatures, as they appear as witnesses to said will, are genuine.

I hereby certify, that the within and aforegoing copy of will of Ann Lambden, is truly copied from Liber R. I. D. No. 1, folio 265, in the office of the Register of Wills for Anne Arundel County aforesaid.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto subscribe my name (Seal.) and affix the seal of the Orphans' Court for Anne Arundel County, this 24th day of May. A. D. 1882.

I. W. Brashears,
Register Wills A. A. County.

That she, the said testatrix, was the owner of said property before and at the time of making said will, and up to the time of her death.

It was also admitted, that Miss Harriet Goldsmith, mentioned in said will, died before the testatrix, Mrs. Lambden, and that Captain William Henry Gardner, mentioned in said will, died in December, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-one, intestate, leaving two daughters, Mrs. Fannie A. Holstead and Mrs. Sally McKnight, and his grand-daughter, to wit, Miss Fannie F. Gardner, the daughter of Farragut Gardner, a son of the said Wm Henry Gardner, who died before his father, to wit, in the year 1857; and the present plaintiff, who was born before the death of the said Wm Hy Gardner, and
