THE POOR MAN'S SONG.

"REMEMBER THE POOR."

Remember the poor did you say?
Indeed I can hardly forget;
I've only to feel in my purse,
And think of my "pockets to let."
I have only to look at my coat,
(How much an old coat can endure!)
To make me in anguish exclaim,
Indeed I remember the poor.

Remember the poor? why, of course—
It comes home to my bosom so pat,
Whene'er I uncover my head,
And look at my "shocking bad hat,"
The rich only come in my dreams,
Like shadows of clouds o'er a moor,
But when I am looking at home,
I know I remember the poor.

Oh yes, I remember the poor,
When I go to my comfortless meals:
When a glance at my best pantaloons
A want of whole linen reveals.
And I live in a odorful street,
Where the breeze comes never a wooer,
And when I crawl into my crib,
'Tis then I remember the poor.

The luxuries linked to my fate
Are those which accompany wo;
Pale poverty treads in my steps,
And follows wherever I go.
I'm acquainted with sorrow and grief,
And many a pang I endure,
And so sure as I think of myself,
I know I remember the poor.

When with agues I shiver and shake,
In the blasts of the winter air—
When hunger is knawing and keen,
And at haunches I greedily stare:
When the steam from the cook-shops calls,
And the fumes from the baker allure,
'Tis then from my innermost soul
I really remember the poor.

Now and then at odd times, it is true,
The wealthy comes into my mind;
But the poor I always have with me,
To their woes I cannot be blind.
The sorrows that sharply pursue,
Are beyond any medical cure,
And when I shall drop in the grave,
I'll be buried as one of the poor.

The Inquirer contains a little of every thing adapted to the columns of a family newspaper—Stories, Sketches, Travels, Markets, Agriculture, Statistics, Poetry, Anecdotes, Essays, Gleanings, Scraps, Oddities, Documents, Speeches, Biography and Science. It is printed on a large and handsome sheet, and each number contains 56 columns of well arranged matter—Something to suit every taste, grave or gay, lively or severe". Persons who do not subscribe to a large daily sheet will find this weekly an admirable substitute. It contains the pith and marrow of the daily journals. It notices or discusses all the prominent topics before the public—is bold manly, yet courteous in its tone, the great object of its Publisher being to instruct and entertain without offending in obscenity or uttering a sentiment that does not harmonise with pure and elevated morals. A few of its departments may be briefly noticed Stories—The best are given from the pens of the most distinguished authors. Often as many as five superior in a single number, the aggregate amount to more than Two Hundred per annum. Quite a Library of Romance, and of the most unexceptionable character.

Biography—Brief sketches of the lives of the just, the wise, the virtuous and the patriotic—drawn from the most authentic sources.

Travels—Outlines and descriptions of prominent men, buildings and objects throughout the world.

Poetry—Gem passages from the best productions of the gifted children of genius.

Gleaning.—Interesting articles culled from the European publications, early copies of which are received by the steamers.

Documents.—All the reports of importance by Committees of Congress and our State Legislature, together with the great speeches of leading statesmen.

Markets—A detailed account weekly of the Philadelphia and other markets.

Local Items—Washington Letters, Proceedings of Congress, European News, Scenes in Philadelphia, &c. also form features of the Saturday Inquirer, and commend it to the notice of the Merchant, the Storekeeper, the Politician as well as all who delight to gather around the Family Fireside. The paper for the past year is confidently referred to as to the nature and character of its contents.—Thousands of copies have been noticed, and volumes of agreeable information have been published in its pages. It is therefore with confidence that we appeal to the public, to come forward, and add to the list of its patrons. We promise to give to all who subscribe the full worth of their money.

FARMERS

FOUNDRY.

THE SUBSCRIBERS grateful for the patronage heretofore received, begs leave respectfully to inform their friends and the public generally, that they now have on hand & are daily manufacturing the most approved ever offered to the public on this Shore. Their superiority over other machines consists in simplicity and strength, which will enable us to warrant them with perfect safety. Notwithstanding there are numerous Machines used in this county it is a well known fact that they are too liable to become injured and broken from trivial causes, arising from their complicated construction. The Machines we now offer to the public have been tested by a number of experienced Farmers both on the Western and Eastern Shore, and have invariably given general satisfaction.

WHEAT MACHINES,

They would also call the attention of the public to their extensive assortment of

PLOUGHS,

Plough Castings,—
Mill Castings, &c. &c.

Their assortment of Ploughs embraces a great variety, viz:

EVANS'S Self sharpner	BEACH improved
DAVIS	BERNARD
SINCLAIR & MOOR	WILEY
GILMORE	PATENT CYCLOIDAL
BEACH	Plough &c

The merits of most of the above Ploughs are already well known; but the Wiley and Patent Cycloidal have been recently introduced by us on this Shore, as a valuable acquisition to the farmer. The Patent Cycloidal in 1842 took the first premium at the agricultural Exhibition, near Govanstown, Baltimore county Md over numerous competitors, composing some of the most celebrated Ploughs of Pennsylvania, New York and Maryland All our Ploughs are stocked of the best timber, and warranted to run well. We are also prepared to do

HEMSLEY'S WORM
DESTROYING SYRUP.

Prepared by R. F. Hemsley,

CHEMIST & PHARMACEUTIST, Easton Md

WHEN we consider the great number of children who die annually in our county by worms it becomes important that the public should be in possession of some Medicine for their removal, which will combine safety and efficiency in its employment, this desideratum is afforded by the 'Worm Destroying Syrup.' It is not my wish nor is it my design to throw around this preparation the unmeaning & extravagant eulogiums with which such medicines are usually ushered into notice. I only desire for it a fair & judicious trial to secure its full approbation. The large and increasing sale of this article is the best proof of the value and estimation in which it is held by numerous & respectable families. The presence of worms may generally with readiness be detected by the following.

SYMPTOMS.

Variable appetite—foul tongue—feted breath—full hard and tense belly—dull heavy expression of the Countenance—a bluish streak under the eye—itching at the nose—fullness of the upper lip—disordered and irregular bowels—starting and screaming in sleep—grinding of teeth—pain in the bowels & frequently drowsiness or convulsions, attended by slow fever.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

Being acquainted with the general and successful use of Mr R. F. Hemsley's Worm Destroying Syrup, I cheerfully recommend it to the public as a valuable remedy for the expulsion of worms.

THOS. THOMAS, M. D.

I CONCUR IN THE ABOVE,
JAS. A. MUSE, M. D,

Easton March 20 1844

I have for the last two years used with success Mr. R F Hemsley's 'Worm Destroying Syrup' Indeed I look upon it as a specific in those cases, and knowing its composition feel no hesitation in recommending it where worms exist.

WM. H THOMAS, M. D,

Easton March 23d 1844

Having examined Mr. R. F. HEMSLEY'S 'WORM DESTROYING SYRUP,' and being conversant with its general and successful employment in Easton and the vicinity, I take much pleasure in recommending it to the public as a safe and efficient remedy for the expulsion of worms from the alimentary canal.

CHRIS. C. COX, M. D.

Easton March 7 1844

There is no anthelmintic preparation from the use of which I have seen better results than from Mr R. F. HEMSLEY'S 'WORM DESTROYING SYRUP' having been made acquainted with its composition I can confidently recommend it not only as a vermifuge but as a gentle tonic suitable in those cases of debility occurring in consequence of the presence of worms in the stomach and bowels

A. M WHITE, M. D.

Talbot county March 26th 1844

From DR W. HEMSLEY.

Having prescribed the 'Worm Destroying Syrup' with success in my neighbourhood I can confidently recommend it as superior to any other preparation offered to the public.

I have tried in a desperate case of worms Mr R F HEMSLEY'S 'WORM DESTROYING SYRUP' and it proved immediately efficacious, this case had baffled the skill of Physicians previously, and the disease must soon have killed the servant. I feel it my duty to give this certificate in favour of the valuable medicine.

The Pioneer Magazine of America.

GODEY'S MAGAZINE AND LADY'S BOOK, FOR 1845.

The best earnest a publisher can give of what he can and will do next year is a reference to what he has done last year, or at ANY TIME FOR THE LAST FIFTEEN YEARS. Under this view of the case it would be quite sufficient for ordinary purposes for us to say that the high character of this magazine fo literary and artistical merit will be properly sustained. But we are aware that the rapid and dazzling succession of novelties which we have brought forward within the last few years naturally excites a lively curiosity, and every subscriber is saying to himself what will Godey do next?

It is merely with a view to gratify this curiosity on the part of our friends that we now proceed to enumerate some of the features of our next year's plan promising, however, that the enumeration must necessarily be partial and incomplete, from our invariable practice of seizing upon every new and brilliant form of embellishment the moment it presents itself as well as securing the services of all the Popular, Lively and Piquant Writers the moment their characters are distinctly developed and pronounced. The honour of bringing forward first rate genius into public notice and favour, and serving as a sort of prime conductor to ELECTRIC FLASHES which send their light through the whole Union has become quite habitual to the Lady's Book

Our original idea of illustrating American history by views of Battle Grounds we are still calmly pursuing in a style that defies all competition. The not less brilliant idea of illustrating the Heroism of American Ladies by a series of ENGRAVINGS & NARRATIVES which will serve to place in their true light the patriotism, devotion and self-sacrifice of our female ancestors in the revolutionary war, emphatically called the Heroic age of America, is also original with us. Other incidents of revolutionary history will also furnish subjects for the embellishments of the coming year.—Among the subjects already executed are the Reception of the news of Lexington Fight, by Darley.

Marion's Entertainment of the British Officer, by White
Female Gallantry, by Hubart,
The Storming of Red Bank Fort, by Hamilton.
Count Donops Monument, by Hamilton.
The Battle of Concord Bridge, by Frankenstein.
The Germantown Battle-ground. by Russel Smith,
Trenton Battle Ground, by Hamilton

with a large number of others, engaged but not yet sent in by the artists. Another new and striking feature we now propose for the first time in public, having had artists engaged for twelve months in working it out. Our readers will please to note the date of the announcement of this feature. it will consist of characteristic state views, in which the peculiarities of Scenery, Costume and Customs of every State and Territory of the Union will be presented in succession. This idea will of course be claimed by others, but our readers will not forget to make dates

Our proffered premium of $200 for the best painting of a subject illustrative of American Female Patriotism has already brought a splendid array of talent into the field. The award has been postponed for another month out of courtesy to artists who have pictures still upon their easel.

The premium of $250 for the best engraving will of course bring forward a series of first rate steel plates.

In addition to all these advantages, the privilege of engraving the premium pictures of the Apollo Association will serve to form a Keystone to our splendid system of Embellishments

The public know our literary contributors well for they have long been in the habit of recognizing them as the leading writers of America in Magazine Literature—the literature which exacts from the ablest pens their most piquant and brilliant contributions, at the same time that it condenses into a compact and pleasing form the Moral, the useful and the solid in narative, sketch and essay writing.

MEZZOTINTS, MEZZOTINTS

It is only necessary to say that in this department we have Sartain, Sadd and Warner and each of them has several plates in hand We shall, we think, have one in each number next year.

AUTHENTIC FASHION PLATES

Godey's Lady's Book is the only Magazine that can be relied upon for the real fashions.

Our translators suffer nothing of merit and interest, which is suited to the design of the Lady's Book, in the Literature of Germany, France, Italy, and other nations of the European continent to escape them.

Among many novel features in the literary way which are now in the course of preparation, for well known reasons we choose to announce but one in this connection, viz:

The Border Legends of America, many of which have just reached us from the distant regions which were formerly the scene of border wars and hunting expeditions, and where the exploits of the famous Indian killers and hunters still furnish themes for purely national Ballads, Songs and Stories to their children and grandchildren by the winter's fireside

It is not necessary for us to give the names of our writers—previous numbers will show that they are the best in America.

CLUBS TO GODEY'S MAGAZINE
