POETRY.

For the Easton Gazette.

MEMORY.

When back we look on happier years,
How oft the musing eye
Is quenched in swollen and bitter tears,
Shed o'er their memory!

For scenes remote will still appear
Than present scenes more bright;
As distant landscapes often wear
A robe of azure light.
While yet the present moment is
All that belongs to man,
'Tis quickly gone in woe or bliss—
A point in life's brief span.
But memory's sweet & soothing power
Recalls each season flown:
And many a bright departed hour
Becomes again our own.
If then in memory's hallowed cell
Such treasures may be cast,
If in her mystic chambers dwell
The records of the past,
O, may those records ever bring,
Through lifes tempestuous day,
Some olive-branch, some dove-like wing,
To cheer our darkened way!

LOVE.

He stood beside a cottage lone,
And listened to a lute,
One summer eve, when the breeze was gone,
And the nightingale was mute.
The moon was watching on the hill,
The stream was staid, and the maples still
To hear a lover's suit,
That half a vow, and half a prayer—
Spoke less of hope than of despair:
And rose into the calm, soft air,
As sweet and low
As he had heard—O, woe! O, woe!—
The flutes of angels, long ago!

"By every hope that earthward clings,
By faith that mounts on angel-wings,
By dreams that make night-shadows bright,
And truths that turn our day to night.
By childhood's smile and manhood's tear,
By pleasure's day, and sorrow's year,
By all the strains that fancy sings,
And pangs that time so surely brings,—
For joy or grief, for hope or fear,
For all hereafter as for here,
In peace or strife, in storm or shine,
My soul is wedded unto thine!"

And for its soft and sole reply,
A murmur, and a sweet, low sigh,
But not a spoken word;
And yet they made the waters start
Into his eyes who heard,
For they told of a most loving heart,
In a voice like that of bird;—
Of a heart that loved, though it loved in vain,—
A grieving, and yet not a pain,—
A love that took an early root,
And had an early doom,
Like trees that never grow to fruit,
And early shed their bloom.—
Of vanished hopes and happy smiles,
All lost for evermore;
Like ships, that sailed for sunny isles,
But never came to shore!

OF PHILADELPHIA.

TERMS,

A Single copy	$2
Two copies	3
Four copies	5

In all cases payment to be made in Advance and in notes of specie paying banks. Postmasters and agents, allowed One copy as, Commission for every Five dollers they remit.

☞The Second volume of the Philadelphia Saturday Inquirer is about to commence. The paper is one of the largest, cheapest and best, published in the United States, and is especially suited to persons residing in the Country, who desire to obtain all the news of the times, foreign and domestic, together with a liberal supply of choice literature, in a convenient form, and at a moderate price. The Inquirer contains a little of every thing adapted to the columns of a family newspaper—Stories, Sketches, Travels, Markets, Agriculture, Statistics, Poetry, Anecdotes, Essays, Gleanings, Scraps, Oddities, Documents, Speeches, Biography and Science. It is printed on a large and handsome sheet, and each number contains 36 columns of well arranged matter—something to suit every taste, grave or gay, lively or severe." Persons who do not subscribe to a large daily sheet will find this weekly an admirable substitute. It contains the pith and marrow of the daily journals it notices or discusses all the prominent topics before the public—is bold, manly, yet courteous in its tone, the great object of its Publisher being to instruct and entertain without offending modesty, or uttering a sentiment that does not harmonise with pure and elevated morals A few of its departments may be briefly noticed

Stories.—The best are given from the pens of the most distinguished authors. Often as many as five appear in a single number, the aggregate amounting to more than Two Hundred per annum. Quite a Library of Romance, and of the most unexceptionable character.

Biography.—Brief sketches of the lives of the just, the wise, the virtuous and the patriotic—drawn from the most authentic sources.

Travels—Outlines and descriptions of prominent men, buildings and objects throughout the world.

Poetry.—Gem passages from the best productions of the gifted children of genius.

Gleanings.—Interesting articles culled from late European publications, early copies of which are received by the steamers.

Documents.—All the reports of importance by Committees of Congress and our State Legislature, together with the great speeches of leading statesmen.

Markets.—A detailed account weekly of the Philadelphia, and other markets.

Local Items, Washington Letters, Proceedings of Congress, European News, Scenes in Philadelphia, &c. also form features of the Saturday Inquirer, and commend it to the notice of the Merchant, the Storekeeper, the Politician as well as all who delight to gather around the Family Fireside. The paper for the past year is confidently referred to as to the nature and character of its contents.—Thousands of topics have been noticed, and volumes of agreeable information have been published in its pages. It is therefore with confidence that we appeal to the public, to come forward, and add to the list of its patrons. We promise to give to all who subscribe the full worth of their money.

Now is the time to Subscribe now while full Files for the New Year may be obtained.

☞The paper is carefully packed directed and forwarded by the earliest Mails.

☞Postmasters are authorized to act as agents. Address,

JESPER HARDING,
No. 57 South Third St. Philadelphia.

☞As payments are invariably to be made in Advance, subscribers whose terms are about to expire, will be good enough to forward their subscriptions for the new year.

TAILORING.

The undersigned respectfully informs his friends and the public generally, that he has commenced the above named business on West Street, one door west of the Easton Hotel, and directly opposite the Court House.—His work will be done in the Best and most Fashionable Style, having made arrangements to receive the LATEST FASHIONS regularly from N. York and Philadelphia, where they are received direct from Paris and London. The undersigned flatters himself that, from his long and unrivalled experience in his profession, and having been employed in some of the best establishments in the United States, he cannot fail to please those who may favor him with their patronage.

EASTON ACADEMY.

The second or winter session of this Institution will commence on Monday the 14th day of October, and the board of Trustees announce to the public that the duties will be resumed under the continued superintendence of MR. JOHN NEELY, favorably known for many years past, as an accomplished Scholar, and a most efficient Teacher.

The course of instruction will be of an extensive character, comprising all the branches of an English education, the Latin, Greek and French Languages, and in both departments of languages the litarature of each, together with ancient and modern History.

The Mathematical course will include the mixed mathematics, and pupils will be prepared for admission to any class in the Colleges or Universities of the United States; for entering upon commercial pursuits or engaging directly in the studies preparatory to either of the learned professions.

During the ensuing session a full course of lectures will be delivered on natural Philosophy and Chemistry, illustrated by the ample and excellent apparatus belonging to the Institution.

The subject of natural Philosophy will be treated by the Principal, and that of Chemistry by C. C Cox, A. M, M. D.

A future announcement will state the terms and time of commencement of these lectures.

The Board respectfully refer to the Rt. Rev Bishop Whittingham; to the Rev Dr. Wyatt; to Walter Fernandis, Esq and to John H. Alexander, Esq. of Baltimore, to Hon. Stevenson Archer, of Harford county, to Thomas Hayward, Esq. of Dorchester county, to William A. Ford, Esq. of Caroline county; and if required to many other reliable sources as to the personal and professional excellence of Mr. John Neely.

This gentleman is a graduate of Trinity College, Dublin; but what is far more substantial, he has attracted to himself the sincere regard & entire confidence of all those who have entrusted to him the education of their sons.

The Board deem it a matter of much moment that youths from a distance should be placed under the immediate eye of the principal of the academy; but excellent accommodations may be had in respectable families in the town at the usual rate of $10 per month.

All applications, enquiries, &c. should be addressed to John Neely, Esq. Principal of the Easton Academy but any information will be cheerfully given by application to either of the undersigned in behalf of the Board of Trustees.

FARMERS

FOUNDRY.

THE SUBSCRIBERS grateful for the patronage heretofore received, begs leave respectfully to inform their friends and the public generally, that they now have on hand & are daily manufacturing the most approved ever offered to the public on this Shore. Their superiority over other machines consists in simplicity and strength, which will enable us to warrant them with perfect safety Notwithstanding there are numerous Machines used in this county, it is a well known fact that they are too liable to become injured and broken from trivial causes, arising from their complicated construction. The Machines we now offer to the public have been tested by a number of experienced Farmers both on the Western and Eastern Shore, and have invariably given general satisfaction.

WHEAT MACHINES,

They would also call the attention of the public to their extensive assortment of,

PLOUGHS,
Plough Castings,—
Mill Castings, &c. &c.

Their assortment of Ploughs embraces a great variety, viz:

WINAN'S Self Sharpner	BEACH Improved
DAVIS	BERNARD
SINCLAIR & MOOR	WILEY
CHENOWITH	PATENT CYCLOIDAL
BEACH	Plough &c

The merits of most of the above Ploughs are already well known; but the Wiley and Patent Cycloidal have been recently introduced by us on this Shore, as a valuable acquisition to the Farmer. The Patent Cycloidal, in 1842 took the first premium at the agricultural Exhibition, near Govanstown, Baltimore county Md. over numerous competitors, composing some of the most celebrated Ploughs of Pennsylvania, New York and Maryland. All our Ploughs are stocked of the best timber, and warranted to run well. We are also prepared to do

CASTINGS AND WROUGHT WORK

of every description at the shortest notice, and at City prices. We respectfully solicit the patronage of the public and invite them to an examination of our stock.

HUSSEY & HOPKINS.

N B.—Persons having machines to repair will please bring them in as early in the spring as possible, so as to give full time to do the work in proper manner. H. & H.

TO SLAVE OWNERS.

We have returned from the South, and are again in the market with a plentiful supply of the needfull which we will exchange for every description of negroes, old & young, either slaves for life or for a term of years, whose owners have good titles to them, and as it is usual for us to give at all times we will pay higher prices than any other persons will do, we can at all times be found here ready to purchase any number. Persons having negroes for sale who do not want them to go out of the State may be assured that any negro we buy under a promise not to send out of the State in no event whatever, will it be done. All persons who have negroes for sale, and that want the highest prices for them will please give us a call, and they shall have it. All letters (post paid) and not otherwise, will be promptly attended to.

HEMSLEY'S WORM DESTROYING SYRUP.

Prepared by R. F. Hemsley,

CHEMIST & PHARMACEUTIST, Easton Md

WHEN we consider the great number of children who die annually in our county by worms it becomes important that the public should be in possession of some Medicine for their removal, which will combine safety and efficiency in its employment, this desideratum is afforded by the 'Worm Destroying Syrup.' It is not my wish, nor is it my design to throw around this preparation the unmeaning & extravagant eulogiums with which such medicines are usually ushured into notice, I only desire for it a fair & judicious trial to secure its full approbation. The large and increasing sale of this article is the best proof of the value and estimation in which it is held by numerous & respectable families. The presence of worms may generally with readiness be detected by the following.

SYMPTOMS.

Variable appetite—foul tongue—feted breath—full hard and tense belly—dull heavy expression of the Countenance—a bluish streak under the eye—itching at the nose—puffiness of the upper lip—disordered and irregular bowels—starting and screaming in sleep—grinding of teeth—pain in the bowels & frequently drowsiness or convulsions, attended by slow fever.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

Being acquainted with the general and successful use of Mr. R. F. Hemsley's Worm Destroying Syrup, I cheerfully recommend it to the public as a valuable remedy for the expulsion of worms.

TRIST. THOMAS, M. D.

I CONCUR IN THE ABOVE,
JAS. A. MUSE, M. D,

Easton March 20 1844

I have for the last two years used with success Mr. R. F. Hemsley's 'Worm Destroying Syrup' Indeed I look upon it as a specific in those cases, and knowing its composition feel no hesitation in recommending it where worms exist.

WM. H THOMAS, M. D,

Easton March 23d 1844

Having examined MR. R. F. HEMSLEY'S 'WORM DESTROYING SYRUP,' and being conversant with its general and successful employment in Easton and the vicinity, I take much pleasure in recommending it to the public as a safe and efficient remedy for the expulsion of worms from the alimentary canal.

CHRIS. C. COX, M. D.

Easton March 7 1844

There is no authelmintic preparation from the use of which I have seen better results than from MR R. F. HEMSLEY'S 'WORM DESTROYING SYRUP' having been made acquainted with its composition I can confidently recommend it, not only as a vermafuge but as a gentle tonic suitable in those cases of debility occurring in consequence of the presence of worms in the stomach and bowels.

A. M WHITE, M. D.

Talbot county March 26th 1844

FROM DR. W. HEMSLEY.

Having prescribed the 'Worm Destroying Syrup' with success in my neighbourhood I can confidently recommend it as superior to any other preparation offered to the public.

I have tried in a desperate case of worms Mr. R. F. HEMSLEY'S 'WORM DESTROYING SYRUP' and it proved immediately efficacious, this case had baffled the skill of Physicians previously, and the disease must soon have killed the servant. I feel it my duty to give this certificate in favour of the valuable medicine.

The Pioneer Magazine of America.

GODEY'S MAGAZINE AND LADY'S BOOK, FOR 1845.

The best earnest a publisher can give of what he can and will do next year is a reference to what he has done last year, or at ANY TIME FOR THE LAST FIFTEEN YEARS. Under this view of the case it would be quite sufficient for ordinary purposes for us to say that the high character of this magazine for literary and artistical merit will be properly sustained. But we are aware that the rapid and dazzling succession of novelties which we have brought forward within the last few years naturally excites a lively curiosity, and every subscriber is saying to himself what will Godey do next?

It is merely with a view to gratifiy this curiosity on the part of our friends that we now proceed to enumerate some of the features of our next year's plan, premising, however, that the enumeration must necessarily be partial and incomplete, from our invariable practice of seizing upon every new and brilliant form of embellishment the moment it presents itself as well as securing the services of all the Popular, Lively and Piquant Writers the moment their characters are distinctly developed and pronounced. The honour of bringing forward first rate genius into public notice and favour, and serving as a sort of prime conductor to ELECTRIC FLASHES which send their light through the whole Union, has become quite habitual to the Lady's Book.

Our original idea of illustrating American history by views of Battle Grounds we are still calmly pursuing in a style that defies all competition. The not less brilliant idea of illustrating the Heroism of American Ladies by a series of ENGRAVINGS & NARRATIVES which will serve to place in their true light the patriotism, devotion and self-sacrifice of out female ancestors in the revolutionary war, emphatically called the Heroic age of America, is also original with us. Other incidents of revolutionary history will also furnish subjects for the embellishments of the coming year.—

Among the subjects already executed are the Reception of the news of Lexington Fight, by Darley.
Marion's Entertainment of the Britsh Officer, by White
Female Gallantry. by Hubart,
The Storming of Red Bank Fort, by Hamilton.
Count Donop's Monument, by Hamilton.
The Battle of Concord Bridge, by Frankenstein.
The Germantown Battle-ground. by Russel Smith.
Trenton Battle Ground, by Hamilton

with a large number of others, engaged but not yet sent in by the artists. Another new and striking feature we now propose for the first time in public, having had artists engaged for twelve months in working it out Our readers will please to note the date of the announcement of this feature. it will consist of characteristic state views, in which the peculiarities of Scenery, Costume and Customs of every State and Territory of the Union will be presented in succession. This idea will of course be claimed by others, but our readers will not forget to make dates.

Our proffered premium of $200 for the best printing of a subject illustrative of American Female Patriotism has already brought a splendid array of talent into the field. The award has been postponed for another month out of courtesy to artists who have pictures still upon their easel.

The premium of $250 for the best engraving will of course bring forward a series of first rate steel plates.

In addition to all these advantages, the privilege of engraving the premium pictures of of the Apollo Association will serve to form a Keystone to our splendid system of Embellishments

The public know our literary contributors well for they have long been in the habit of recognizing them as the leading writers of America in Magazine Literature—the literature which exacts from the ablest pens their most piquant and brilliant contributions, at the same time that it condenses into a compact and pleasing form the Moral, the useful and the solid in narative, sketch and essay writing.

MEZZOTINTS, MEZZOTINTS

It is only necessary to say that in this department we have Sartain, Sadd and Warner and each of them has several plates in hand We shall, we think, have one in each number next year.

AUTHENTIC FASHION PLATES

Godey's Lady's Book is the only Magazine that can be relied upon for the real fashions.

Our translators suffer nothing of merit and interest, which is suited to the design of the Lady's Book, in the Literature of Germany, France, Italy, and other nations of the European continent to escape them.

Among many novel features in the literary way which are now in the course of preparation, for well-known reasons we choose to announce but one in this connection, viz:

The Border Legends of America, many of which have just reached us from the distant regions which were formerly the scene of border wars and hunting expeditions, and wherethe exploits of the famous Indian killers are hunters still furnish themes for purely national, Ballads, Songs and Stories to their children and grandchildren by the winter's fireside.

It is not necessary for us to give the names of our writers—previous numbers will show that they are the best in America.

TERMS OF GODEY'S MAGAZINE

1 copy, 1 year, $3; 2 copies, 1 year, 5, 5 copies, 1 year; $10; 11 copies, 1 yer, 20.

Any person ordering a copy 1 year for $3, or two copies one year for $5, will be presented with a copy of the novelette of The Prime Donna, by W. G Simme, and Robert Rueful by T. S. Fay.
