against said action of ejectment according to the strict rules of the common law and is remediless in the premises save in a Court of Equity where such matters are properly cognizable.

To the end therefore, that the said Eldred W. Mobberly may answer the premises and that he may be restrained and enjoined by your Hon.d Court from further prosecuting said action of ejectment. May it please your Honors to grant unto your Orator the writ of subpoena directed to said Eldred W. Mobberly commanding him to be & appear in your Hon.d Court on some certain day to be therein named to answer the premises & to abide by & perform such decree as may be passed herein; and also the writ of Injunction directed to said Eldred W. Mobberly commanding & enjoining him, his attorneys, servants & agents from further prosecuting said action of ejectment until the further order of your Hon.r Court; and that your orator may have such further & other relief as his case may require. As in duty bound your Orator will ever pray &c.
