

EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, MD.

Saturday Morning, March 22.

V. B. PALMER,

No. 59 Pine st, Phila., and 160 Nassau st. (Tribune Buildings,) N. Y., and S. E. corner of Balt. and Calvert sts. Baltimore, is our authorized Agent for receiving Advertisements and subscriptions to the "EASTON GAZETTE," and collecting and reciepting for the same.

☞We are requested to call the attention of Farmers and others, to the advertisement of John Bartlett proposing to run a vessel to New York, Providence, Boston, &c. for the purpose of carrying grain or other produce.

We learn from those who attended the Examination and Exhibition of the Students of the Easton Academy, on Wednesday and Thursday, that the students acquitted themselves throughout with great credit. We promise a more extended notice of the Exhibition in our next.

READ THE ADVERTISEMENTS.—A contemporary gives the following good advice to newspaper readers:—

People in every station of life should read the advertisements, not only to ascertain what is going on in the world of life and business, but to take advantages of the many favorable opportunities presented in its columns for benefitting themselves.

Ex-Governor Thomas has issued a pamphlet of 50 pages relative to his matrimonial troubles.

Indictment of Gov. Thomas for a Libel.—The Washington Correspondent of the American Republican, under date of 20th inst., says:—"It was currently reported here last night that the Grand Jury, now in session, had found a presentment against ex-Governor Francis Thomas, for a libel, contained in the pamphlet which he has lately published concerning his domestic grievances. On inquiry, I learn it is true that the Grand Jury made the presentment above referred to, and also another against ex-Governor Thomas for another publication or circular, by them deemed to be libellous."

The Legislature of Maryland, at its late session, passed three hundred and fourteen laws, and sixty resolutions.

Hon. J. C. CALHOUN. The Charleston papers announce the arrival there on Saturday of Mr. Calhoun. He was received by the citizens with every demonstration of respect, and on invitation dined with the City Council. He declined a public dinner.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—The Albany Argus states that in the case of Ackerman vs. Ernott and Schryver, Vice Chancellor Parker has decided that an executor or trustee who invests the trust fund in bank stock will be liable for any depreciation in its value, or for loss sustained upon it, although the investment was made in good faith; that such investment is unauthorized, and that an executor or trustee can only be protected against risk by investing such funds on real estate security, or in public stocks approved by the Court.

From the Balt. Clipper, of March 18.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CONFERENCE.—This body met yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, pursuant to adjournment, and was opened by reading a portion of Scripture and Prayer. Bishop Waugh presided. After disposing of some unimportant matters the case of the Rev. J. A. Harding was taken up. This case it will be remembered was before the last Annual Conference which met in Washington city, and at the time caused considerable excitement. The charge against Mr. Harding is that he is the owner of slaves, and refuses to manumit them on the ground that they are the property of his wife—they being her's before he married her. The last Annual Conference, after a patient investigation of all the facts in the case, suspended him from the ministry until he should comply with the Discipline of the Church and set them free. From this decision he appealed to the General Conference, who sustained the decision of the Annual Conference by a decisive vote. In consequence of the decision being sustained, it comes back to this Conference for final action. The Committee who had the case under investigation reported that he must stay suspended until he shall comply with the request of the Conference. Mr. Harding was understood to say that he was willing to send them all to Liberia, and would do so as soon as circumstances would admit, but refused to sign the papers for that purpose at this time. The matter gave rise to some sparring among the members.—Without coming to any definite decision upon the subject, the Conference took up the unfinished business of the previous session, being the statistics of the Church, which occupied their attention for the remainder of the day.

One of the acts passed at the close of the recent session of Congress makes a very large donation of the public lands to the State of Indiana, for the purpose of enabling her to complete the Wabash and Erie Canal. The land donated consists of every other quarter section along the line of the Canal, and all the unsold lands of another specified section of the State.—The whole amount is between 800 and 900,000 acres, and is estimated to be worth about $1,350,000, an amount ample to finish the Canal to the Ohio River.—Balt. American.

Mr. Polk is rewarding his friends. The following offices have already been given to citizens of Tennessee—the Postmaster General, the Consul at Liverpool, the Consul at Havre, the Charge to Naples, (his brother,) the Recorder of the Land Office, a Purser in the Navy, and the President's private Secretary. How many more will get prizes remains to be seen.

ARRIVAL OF THE FRIGATE CONGRESS.

Correspondence of the Balt. American.

ANNAPOLIS, Md. 12th March, 1845.

The U. S. Frigate Congress arrived here to day from a three years' cruise, 48 days from Rio de Janeiro to the mouth of the Chesapeake; officers and crew all well.

During the cruise of the Congress she has displayed our flag in France, Italy, Austria, Greece, Turkey, Syria, Egypt, Tripoli, Morocco, Sicily, Malta, Minorca, Gibraltar, Madeira, Teneriffe, Brazil and the Republic of Rio de la Plata.

NAVAL ORDERS, March 14—All the officers of the frigate Congress detached, with three months' leave.

TEXAS.—The Baltimore American publishes a letter dated Galveston, March 22, 1844, from Mr. Elliott, British Envoy, to Mr. Jones, who was then Texas Secretary of State, in which it is very distinctly intimated that President Houston and his successor, were both personally opposed to Annexation. Alluding to the mission of a citizen of Texas to Washington, Mr. Elliott says:

"Indeed, referring to the conferrence which the undersigned had the honor to have with the President and Mr. Jones at Galveston, during the last Autumn, he can suppose that the mission to Washington of the gentleman in question, has been dictated by a wise desire to avoid any cause of offence or irritation to the Government of the United States, and to explain with frankness, that the Government of Texas could not entertain the subject at all, even if all other obstacles were removed, after the former rejection of such an arrangement by the Government of the United States, and wholly without reason, to know that the Senate of the United States will ratify it now or in future."

New interest is given to this passage by recent events. The following, which is one of the concluding passages of the letter, is also not without interest:

"Confiding in the steadfastness of the people of Texas, to the pledges in the fundamental acts of their national existence, several of the great Powers have acknowledged the independence of this Republic, and entered into treaties with it. Whilst that confidence subsists, it may be depended upon, that the Goverament of Her Majesty will never relax in its friendly efforts to induce the Government of Mexico to adjust, on the policy so forcibly pressed on the attention of Her Majesty's Government by the Government of Texas, not adopted without mature deliberation by Her Majesty's Government, and in their judgment equally necessary for the security of Mexico, and the strength and prosperity of Texas.

FROM MEXICO.

The New Orleans Picayune has received Vera Cruz dates to the 1st inst.

Santa Anna was still in Prison at Perote, so that the news by way of Campeachy, that he had been taken to the city of Mexico, turns out to be incorrect.

Gomez Farias left Vera Cruz on the 25th ult. for the capital. It is supposed that he will take an active part in the new government.

Generals Bassedre and Canalizo, Santa Anna's principal minions, have been removed to the fortress of Chapultepec.

In El Siglo Diez y Neuve of the 20th ult., we see it stated that many persons connected with the army have received orders to march to different points of the Republic.

The Texas question is still agitated in many of the Mexican papers, the editors appearing to oppose the right of the United States to annex that country as strongly as ever. It now remains to be seen what they will say when the final action of the United States Senate on the question reaches them.

Every thing was quiet at Mexico, at least upon the surface, the papers discussing little else than purely local subjects of trifling interest to our readers. The leading editors appear to be anxious for the interests of the cotton manufacturers, and warmly recommend that the heavy duties on the raw material may be lessened to a degree that will advance that branch of the national industry.

From the New Orleans Bee of March 6:

MEXICO.—By the Brig Abiano, we have received Mexican papers up to 12th February.

Santa Anna was to be tried on the 24th February, by the Congress, erected as a jury. If Santa Anna does not present himself before the grand jury, but sends his written defence, the trial is to come off sooner.

It appears that Santa Anna has full liberty to communicate by letter with whoever he pleases. It is reported that several letters have been intercepted, which were addressed to several houses in Vera Cruz, recommending them not to denounce the several sums deposited in their hands.

A remarkable fact is that whilst Santa Anna declared to Congress he had no other fortune than his landed property, he draws exchange for $90,000, thereby proving the contempt with which he treats the Mexicans.

OBITUARY.

Died on the afternoon of Monday last, Elizabeth R. Haskins, wife of Barclay Haskins, and daughter of the late Thomas Hayward.

Of a temper mild but firm, liberal to others, denying to herself, pious without pretence, the close of her life, like its passage, truly Christian, has left the many who loved her living, and lament her dead, while they mourn their earthly loss, to rejoice with holy confidence, in her eternal gain.
