time to allow the Senate the opportunity of making choice of a President pro tempore, who holds over to the following session, and resumes the Chair at its commencement, should the Vice President be absent on the day of meeting. The reason of this custom undoubtedly is to add another life to the security against an interregnum in the Executive Department, the act of Congress which relates to the subject declaring that in case of removal, death, resignation, or inability both of the President and Vice President of the United States, the President pro tempore of the Senate, and, in case there shall be no President of the Senate, then the Speaker of the House of Representatives for the time being, shall act as President of the United States until the disability be removed or a President of the United States elected.

The office of Speaker of the House of Representatives ceases at the termination of each Congress. In the contingency of the death, &c. of both the President and Vice President, in the recess following the expiration of a term of Congress, the office of President of the United States must, therefore, unless there be a President pro tempore of the Senate, remain vacant until there can be a new election of President by the People. Hence the usage to which we refer.

This usage was not regarded by the Vice President of the United States at the late extra session of the Senate. Taking the Chair, as it was proper he should do, at the opening of the session, he kept it to the end, and in person adjourned the Senate sine die. There is therefore now no President pro tempore of the Senate upon whom to devolve the duties of President of the United States in the event—an event which we sincerely trust there is no danger of occurring—of the death of both President and Vice President of the United States before Congress again assemble.—Nat. Intel.

Appointments by the Governor.—James Claypole and Geo. L. Hoffman, to be Leather Inspectors for Baltimore city.

Appointments by the President.—Dr. Miller has been appointed 3d Assistant Postmaster General, vice John S. Skinner, removed. It is rumored that Col. Gardner, late Auditor of the Post office Department, has been appointed Postmaster at Washington city; Peter G. Washington, 6th Auditor of the Treasury Department, vice M. St. Clair Clarke, removed; & Seth Barton, of New Orleans, Solicitor, in place of C. G. Penrose.

The Official Paper.—The Globe newspaper is said to have been selected by a Cabinet vote on Saturday as the Government organ at Washington.

Election of U. S. Senator.—Hon. John Davis was on Monday elected by the Legislature of Massachusetts an U. S. Senator for two years ensuing in place of Hon. I. C. Bates, deceased. The two Houses voted separately. The vote in the Senate was as follows: John Davis, 25; Robert C. Winthrop, 1, Levi Lincoln, 2; Chas. Allen, 1. In the House of Representatives the vote stood thus: John Davis, 149; Frederick Robinson, 49; John Q. Adams, 2; Chas. Briggs, 1.

M. E. Conference—The Philadelphia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church will assemble at Milford, Del., on Wednesday, the 2d of April next. Bishop Waugh will preside.

Messenger to Texas.—Mr. Waggaman, the bearer of the Texas resolutions, arrived at Nashville on the 11th inst. and not finding Major Donelson there, immediately started off for Texas. The Union very coolly observes, "this is prompt work—'immediately, if not sooner.'"

The New York Evening Gazette of Saturday mentions the arrival of the Mexican Minister, Gen. ALMONTE, in that city, and adds that he expresses openly his belief that war between Mexico and this country must ensue.

Sickness on Board the Preble. The Boston Post learns from St. Vincents, under date of Jan. 24th, that the U. S. sloop of war Preble was still at that port, detained by the severe illness of her officers and crew. Her sailing master, William A. Henry, and midshipman Smith, of Salem, had died. Capt. Freland had been very low, but was recovering. Lieut. Miller had left in the Erie for the United States; Lieut. M. was on the sick list. Passed Midshipman Fox was appointed sailing master in place of Henry deceased. One hundred of the crew were sick and on shore; sixteen have died. The Preble went last fall, during the sickly season, to Bissau, on the coast of Africa, to relieve the inhabitants from an attack made on that place by the negroes. The officers and crew of the Preble were mostly northern men, as are or nearly all those who have hitherto been ordered to the coast of Africa by the former Secretaries of the Navy; & hence the fatal sickness which prostrates so many of them.

Married.

On Tuesday evening last, by the Rev. Levi Storks, Dr. Edward Jenkins, to Miss Elizabeth Dawson, all of this town.

☞The Printer was not forgot on this joyous occasion.

DIED.

DIED, in St. Michaels, of the Dropsy, on Monday morning, the 24th inst. Mrs. MALINDA JANETTE, wife of Wrightson Jones, and daughter of Walter Sparks, dec'd., aged 19 years, 8 months and 29 days.

The night previous to her death was dark and lowering, but the morning sun arose in all his spendor; and as he sent forth his bright rays upon the earth (emblematical of her spirit gone to rest;) even then, her spirit took its departure for a happier home. How appropriate the time When, she, who several month before had been laid upon the bed of sickness, should bid farewell to earth and go to that place, where sickness and pain are never felt.

For some time previous to her death, she had a full conviction how her disease would terminate, and though often times, her friends would tell her, they thought she was better and would soon get well—she would reply "I know." Her confidence in the sufficiency of the atonement of Christ never wavered for a moment. She gave her testimony to the divinity of religion and was oft times heard to say, that "she knew, she was accepted of God and that these light afflictions would work out for her, a far exceeding and eternal weight of glory;" and to use her own language she said, "In life religion is good, but the nearer we approach to the grave the better it is."

Some few days before her death, she had all of friends called to her bed-side; told them she was going to leave them, and wanted them to meet her in heaven! to her companion, who was weeping at her side, she said "Weep not for me, but rejoice, rejoice to think my sufferings will soon be o'er—these limbs of mine will, then, not swell, nor my head ache—raise my babe in the "fear of the Lord" and meet me in heaven." At another time, when her friends supposed her nearly gone, she adopted the language of the poet and exclaimed

Jesus can make a dying bed
Feel soft as downy pillows are;
Whilst on his breast I lean my head,
And breath my life out sweetly there.

Mrs. I. had scarcely attained the age of twelve years, when she became a subject of the converting grace of God. She, then, became a member of the M. E. Church, and like Paul, she fought a good fight, kept the faith, has finished her course, and is now reaping her reward. Few, indeed, if any have given a brighter testimony of their acceptance of God. J. W.

Any person or persons wishing to send mares to the subscriber, to remain there for weeks or months, can be accommodated, but no accountability for accidents or escapes.

PEDIGREE
of Sambo bred by Genl. Emory

SAMBO was bred by Gen. Emory of Queen Anns county, Md. foaled in the Spring of 1839—He is by Mingo, dam Grecian Princess by Virginian, g. dam Calypso by Bellair, g g. dam Mr. Edm Irby's favorite Dare-Devil mare; see Vol. 2, Turf Register, page 455—see also memoir of Calypso, in the 4 h Vol p. 388. Grecian Princess pedigree and produce up to eighteen hundred and thirty eight given in full, Vol. 6th p. 424 Turf Register.

Mr Irby's Dare-Devil mare, herself of the most illustrious ancestry, was as celebrated for producing fine runners as Sir Archy was for getting them—she produced many good runners, to wit: Contention, Reap Hook, Calypso, Thaddeus, Woodpecker, Snake, Barstall, Weazle, Betsy Archer, &c. &c. Calypso, besides Grecian Princess produced Gabriella conspicuous on the pages of the Turf Register as a successful runner of four miles—Thaddeus got Betsy Robinson, & Contention has begotten a long list of racers at the head of which perhaps stands Ironette. Grecian Princess favorite colts are Queen Anne Irby and Sambo all of which were tried and found to be successful racers.

Virginian the sire of Grecian Princess for his pedigree and performances see his memoir in Vol. 1, Turf Register p 369. This horse for the very brief period he stood as a stallion produced perhaps a greater proportion of first rate runners than any other horse ever did in this country, not even excepting his great progenitor, Sir Archey. Mercury, Polly Hopkins, Betsy Ranson, Star, Lafayette, Restless and Ariella would have given renown to any stallion who might have figured as such as many years as he did months. Mingo, the sire of Sambo is by American Eclipse dam by Thornton's Ratler.
