POETRY.

A LYRIC, FROM THE "KEEPSAKE."

THE OLD SEAMAN.

You ask me why mine eyes are bent
So darkly on the sea,
While others watch the azure hills
That lengthen on the lee?

The azur hills—they sooth the sight
That fails along the foamy
And those may hail their nearing height
Who there have hope, or home.

But I a lonely path have trod—
A beaconless career;
My hope hath long been all with God,
And all my home is—here,

The deep by day, the heaven by night,
Roll onward, swift and dark:
Nor leave my soul the dove's delight,
Of olive-branch or ark.

For more than gale, or gulf, or sand,
I've proved that there may be
Worse treachery on the stedfast land
Then variable sea.

A danger worse than bay or beach—
A falsehood more unkind—
The treachery of governed speech,
And an ungoverned mind.

The treachery of the deadly mart,
Where human souls are sold,
The treachery of the hollow heart,
That crumbles as we hold.

Those holy hills and quiet lakes—
Ah! wherefore should I find
This weary fever-fit, that shakes
Their image in my mind.

The memory of a streamlet's din
Through meadows daisy-drest—
Another might be glad therein,
But yet I cannot rest.

I cannot rest unless it be
Beneath the churchyard yew;
But God, I think, hath yet for me
More earthly work to do.

And therefore with a quiet will,
I breathe the ocean air,
And bless the voice that calls me still,
To wonder and to bear.

Let others seek their native sod,
Who there have hearts to cheer;
My soul hath long been given to God,
And all my home is—here.

PEDIGREE
of Sambo bred by Genl. Emory.

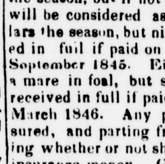

SAMBO was bred by Gen. Emory of Queen Anns county, Md. foaled in the Spring of 1839 —He is by Mingo, dam Grecian Princess by Virginian, g. dam Calypso by Bellair, g. g. dam Mr. Edm. Irby's favorite Dare-Devil mare; see Vol. 2, Turf Register, page 455—see also memoir of Calypso, in the 4th Vol p. 388. Grecian Princess pedigree and produce up to eighteen hundred and thirty eight given in full, Vol. 6th p. 424 Turf Register.

Mr Irby's Dare-Devil mare, herself of the most illustrious ancestry, was as celebrated for producing fine runners as Sir Archy was for getting them—she produced many good runners, to wit: Contention, Reap Hook, Calypso, Thaddeus, Woodpecker, Snake, Burstall, Weazle, Betsy Archer, &c. &c. Calypso, besides Grecian Princess produced Gabriella, conspicuous on the pages of the Turf Register as a successful runner of four miles—Thaddeus got Betsy Robinson, & Contention has begotten a long list of racers at the head of which perhaps stands Ironette. Grecian Princess favorite colts are Queen Anne Irby and Sambo all of which were tried and found to be successful racers.

Virginian the sire of Grecian Princess for his pedigree and performances see his memoir in Vol. 1, Turf Register p. 869. This horse for the very brief period he stood as a stallion produced perhaps a greater proportion of first rate runners than any other horse ever did in this country, not even excepting his great progenitor, Sir Archey. Mercury, Polly Hopkins, Betsy Ranson, Star, Lafayette, Restless and Ariella would have given renown to any stallion who might have figured as such as many years as he did months. Mingo, the sire of Sambo is by American Eclipse dam by Thornton's Ratler.

HEMSLEY'S WORM DESTROYING SYRUP.

Prepared by R. F. Hemsley,

CHEMIST & PHARMACEUTIST, Easton Md.

WHEN we consider the great number of children who die annually in our county by worms it becomes important that the public should be in possession of some Medicine for their removal, which will combine safety and efficiency in its employment, this desideratum is afforded by the 'Worm Destroying Syrup.' It is not my wish, nor is it my design to throw around this preparation the unmeaning & extravagant eulogiums with which such medicines are usually ushured into notice, I only desire for it a fair & judicious trial to secure its full approbation. The large and increasing sale of this article is the best proof of the value and estimation in which it is held by numerous & respectable families. The presence of worms may generally with readiness be detected by the following.

SYMPTOMS.

Variable appetite—foul tongue—fetid breath—full hard and tense belly—dull heavy expression of the Countenance—a bluish streak under the eye—itching at the nose—puffiness of the upper lip—disordered and irregular bowels—starting and screaming in sleep—grinding of teeth—pain in the bowels & frequently drowsiness or convulsions, attended by slow fever.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

Being acquainted with the general and successful use of Mr. R. F. Hemsley's Worm Destroying Syrup, I cheerfully recommend it to the public as a valuable remedy for the expulsion of worms.

TRINT. THOMAS, M. D.

I CONCUR IN THE ABOVE,
JAS. A. MUSE, M. D,
Easton March 20 1844

I have for the last two years used with success Mr. R. F Hemsley's 'Worm Destroying Syrup' Indeed I look upon it as a specific in those cases, and knowing its composition feel no hesitation in recommending it where worms exist.

WM. H. THOMAS, M. D.
Easton March 23d 1844

Having examined MR. R. F. HEMSLEY'S 'WORM DESTROYING SYRUP,' and being conversant with its general and successful employment in Easton and the vicinity, I take much pleasure in recommending it to the public as a safe and efficient remedy for the expulsion of worms from the alimentary canal.

CHRIS. C. COX, M. D.
Easton March 7 1844

There is no authelmimtic preparation from the use of which I have seen better results than from MR. R. F. HEMSLEY'S 'WORM DESTROYING SYRUP' having been made acquainted with its composition I can confidently recommend it, not only as a vermafuge but as a gentle tonic suitable in those cases of debility occurring in consequence of the presence of worms in the stomach and bowels.

A. M. WHITE, M. D.
Talbot county March 26th 1844

From DR. W. HEMSLEY.

Having prescribed the 'Worm Destroying Syrup' with success in my neighbourhood I can confidently recommend it as superior to any other preparation offered to the public.

I have tried in a desperate case of worms Mr. R. F. HEMSLEY'S 'WORM DESTROYING SYRUP,' and it proved immediately efficacious, this case had baffled the skill of Physicians previously, and the disease must soon have killed the servant. I feel it my duty to give this certificate in favour of the valuable medicine.
