Daniel Baughman and Mary Ann Baughman, trustees as aforesaid, heretofore, to wit, on the 13th day of September, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-one, were in possession at Baltimore county, of all that parcel of land situate, lying and being, in said county, and contained within the metes and bounds courses and distances following, that is to say:

Beginning for the same at a stone marked "3," planted in the north line of the turnpike road leading from the City of Baltimore to the City of Washington; running thence, binding on said turnpike road south forty-two and a-half degrees, west fifty feet, to a stone marked "4," thence north forty-seven and a-half degrees, west three hundred feet, to a stone in the south line of a space forty-nine and a-half feet wide, left for a road; thence binding on that line north forty-two and a-half degrees, east fifty feet to a stone; thence south forty-seven and a-half degrees, east three hundred feet to the place of beginning; being the same lot of ground and lease thereof made by Richard Caton on or about the 19th day of June 1824, and recorded among the Land Records of Baltimore county, (now city,) in Liber W. G., No 171, folio 750, &c, described as lot No 3, (three) in the Village of Walkham Range laid out by said Richard Caton.

And the said Francis G. F. Wattemeyer did, on the 13th day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, at Baltimore county aforesaid, wrongfully enter said parcel of land and eject them, the said Mary Ann Baughman, and Daniel Baughman and Mary Ann Baughman, trustees, from said lot or parcel of land, ever since hath retained, and still retains possession, and other wrongs to the said Mary Ann Baughman and Daniel

Baughman and Mary Ann Baughman trustees as aforesaid then and there did to their great damage.

And the said Mary Ann Baughman, and Daniel Baughman, and Mary Ann Baughman, trustees as aforesaid, claim the recovery of the said parcel of land, and for their damages ($1,000) one thousand dollars.

Oregon R. Benson
D. H. Emory,
Attorneys for Plaintiffs.

Plea.

(Filed 13th May 1882.)

Mary Ann Baughman et al, Trustees, vs Francis G. F. Wattemayer	In the Circuit Court for Baltimore County

The defendant, by William S. Keech and John J. Yellott, his attorneys, says, he did not commit the wrong alleged.

John J. Yellott
William S. Keech,
Deft.'s Attorneys.

And afterwards, to wit, on the third day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, in our Court of Common Pleas here, the issue was joined (short) on the foregoing plea in open Court; and on the same day the jury was sworn to try the issue aforesaid. And afterwards, to wit, on the 4th day of April A. D. 1884, the two following agreements were filed, to wit:

Baughman vs Wattemeyer	Court of Common Pleas.

It is agreed that the following deeds may be offered