in evidence by the plaintiffs, the original to have the same effect as properly certified copies, and there shall be no necessity of proving signatures, acknowledgments or any other matter connected with the execution, acknowledgment or registry of said deeds.

Deed – Charles F. Waltemeyer to Mary A. Baughman, &c.	Date, December 21st 1876. Liber J. B., No 101. folio 110, &c.
Rachel Somerlott to Daniel Baughman, Mary Ann Baughman Trustees.	Date, 18 November, 1879. Liber W. M. J., No. 116, folio 334, &c.
Jacob Waltemeyer Admr. to Mary Ann Baughman, &c.	Date, 3 March 1882. Liber W. M. J., No. 128. fol. 149, &c.

The defendant reserving all right to any objection to said papers, except to the fact of their not being properly certified.

Abraham Sharp,
Atty. for Defendant.
J. Rayner
Atty. for Pltffs.

Baughman vs Waltemeyer.	Court of Common Pleas.

It is agreed, that the plaintiffs in above case are not required in proof of title to go beyond or anterior to the deed from Samuel J. Donaldson to Adam Waltemeyer, recorded in Liber J. K. No. 261. fol. 332 &c.; the conveyances prior to that time and patent being admitted.

Abraham Sharp,
Atty. for Deft.
J. Rayner,
Atty. for Pltffs.

On the 8th day of April, A. D. 1884, the jury rendered their verdict for the plaintiffs, and for one cent damages. And on the same day, the Court rendered its judgment on said verdict for the plaintiffs for the property described in the declaration, and one cent damages, with interest thereon from date and costs.

On the 21st day of April, A. D. 1884, the defendant aforesaid, by Sebastian Brown, his attorney, filed in said cause here his order of appeal from the judgment in said cause to the Court of Appeals of Maryland, accompanied by his affidavit that the same is not taken for delay; and on 23d day of April, A. D. 1884, filed his appeal bond, duly executed, and which said bond was by the Clerk here approved.

On the 10th day of May 1884, by agreement of Counsel and order of Court thereon, the time for filing bill of exceptions was extended for two weeks; and on May 24th 1884, by agreement, another extension of time was granted until 15th June, 1884; and on the 14th day of June, 1884, another agreement of counsel to extend time for ten days from date, was filed in said cause.

Bill of Exceptions.

(Filed June 20th 1884.)

Mary Ann Baughman, by next Friend, &c. vs Francis G. F. Waltemeyer.	In the Court of Common Pleas.