DIRGE.

Once more, my Harp, let me invoke
Thy minstrelsy;
While I a Dirge essay to sing,
IN MEMORY
OF FREDRIC SHERWOOD.
Who died, June 11th, 1845.

The morn of life had scarcely dawned,
Ere evening told it fled;
The flowret nipp'd ere it was blown,—
Thus lived, and thus died, Fred,
Beloved by all who knew him here,
We all his loss deplore,
And scarce restrain the starting tear,
Since Fredric is no more.
A mother's tears his couch bedew'd,
A Father's bosom heaved;
And when her brother was no more,
A Sister's heart was grieved.—
'Tis hard to break the ties which bind
Our souls to those we love;
But then tis sweet to think that they
Are happier above?
'Tis sweet to think that they have scaped
The ills and cares of time,—
To think that they're forever safe,
In that celestial Clime,
Where youthful health is ne'er impaired,
Diseases are unknown,—
"Where sickness sorrow, pain and death"
Are all forever flown.
Thousands of children thither gone,
Are there supremely blest:
'Tis thither Fredric's soul hath flown,
'Tis there his spirit rests,
High on the plains of Paradise,
He sports with infant throngs;
And, mingling there his voice with theirs,
He joins their dulcet songs.
His mind superior to his years,
No fetters there shall bind,—
But, while Eternity rolls on,
Continue to expand.
His pleasures there shall have no bounds,—
What e'er he wills is his;
He would not give that blest abode,
For thousand worlds like this.—
Then why should sorrow bow us down?
And tears bedim our eyes?
He's only left this wilderness,
To bloom in Paradise.
We liveth still, and e'er shall live,
In that salubrious clime;
And though he cant return to us
Yet we may go to him.
A mother dear shall yet behold
Her lost beloved boy!
And in her tender arms enfold,
In ecstacy of joy,
A Father too shall see his child,
And clasp him to his breast;—
There Sister's, Brother's loved ones all,
Shall be forever blest.
Soon will the scenes of life be o'er,—
Soon we shall be entomb'd;
Soon will the things of time and sense,
Be merged in endless gloom,
Oh! may we then at once avert
Our thoughts from earthly things,
And stay our hopes in that bright world,
Whence lasting pleasure springs:
That in the last, momentous day,
When worlds together stand!
A smiling God to us may give
A seat at his right hand,—
Parents their children there shall meet,
Which, death had torn away:
And their embraces shall be sweet,
In endless day.

June 14th, 1845.

To the Parents of the deceasad, is this feeble tribute respecfully tendered, by its humble author.

"Dominus dedit, et Dominus abstulit: beatum estote nomen Domini."

Hark from Afar!
The skies with dulcet music ring:
The pearly gates of Heav'n expand,
To let an heir of Glory in.—

TO THE MEMORY OF
ELIZABETH SHERWOOD.
Who died, June 22d, 1845.

Another soul hath soar'd away,
The Heav'nly host to swell,
Too pure for earth, Elizabeth
"Disdained on Earth to dwell."
Like dew before the morning sun,
Her infant spirit fled:
Scarce known among the living,
Ere numbered with the dead
——— twas hard to give her up,—
Hard to be reconciled:
A Father's joy—a mother's hope,—
She was a lovely child.—
The ways of Providence are hid,
From our imperfect sight,—
But this we know let it suffice:
What-e'er God doth is right.
Then why complain? why sorrow thus?
Tis God the deed hath done:
The child was his twas he who gave,—
He's but recall'd his own.
She now is safe in that blest land
Where danger is unknown,—
No snares shall there beset her path,—
No evil there shall come;—
Methinks sometimes, I almost see
The bright, angelic Throng,
That hovered o'er her dying couch,
To guard her spirit home:
And when the "silver bowl" was broke,—
Sever'd the "silken chord,"
They caught her happy spirit up,
To that bright, blest abode,
There miriads of infant forms
Look'd forth with eager eyes,
To welcome home a sister heir,—
An heir of Paradise.
And mid that shining happy throng,
Behold a Brother's face!
T'wards Earth, his active eye explores
"Immensity of space,"
How he exulted when he saw
Her sweet familiar face:
He leap'd for joy,—with haste he ran,
His sister to embrace,
Elizabeth her Fredy knew,—
Around his neck she clings!
The angels saw, and, smiled, and wept,
And clapt their snowy wings,—
Now hand in hand they wend their way,
Through Eden's rosy bowers:—
They talk of scenes in yonder world,
Of childhood's sportive hours;
They talk of pain and sorrow past,
They tell their suff'rings o'er:
Forever safe in that blest world,
They suffer pain no more.—
Oh! happy ones. Oh! blest estate;
We long your joys to share:—
"Soon will the toilsome strife be o'er,
Then we shall see you there.
No sickness there shall bleach the check,
Nor steal away its bloom;
Nor enervate the active limbs,
Nor waste the sprightly form,
No mother there with anxious eye,
Shall watch a dying bed;
No mother there be heard to cry,
My son, my daughter's dead!
No anguish'd Father's bosom heaves,—
No sister's pensive moan:
"Sickness and sorrow, pain and death,"
Are all unknown.

6 CENTS REWARD!

RANAWAY from the subscriber on the last day of May, a Youngster, calling himself SAML HARRIS; an indented apprentice to the carpenter's business. He is about 20 years old—complexion rather on the Seminole order; he has a blazing red head, and stands about 5 feet eight inches in his boots; he has rather a large mouth, and thick lips, and when he laughs, spreads his wide mouth, and draws himself up, as if he were under a great strain. Considering his youth he looks uncommonly corpulent.

All persons are hereby forwarned from harbouring or employing the above described youth at the risk of incurring the penalty of the law.

If any person shall deliver him to me, or put him in jail so that I get him, shall receive the above reward of 6 cents.

UNION HOTEL
Easton, Md.

THE subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public generally, that he has taken the above well known establishment (formerly conducted by E Roszell) and is fully prepared for the reception and entertainment of either citizens or transient visiters, whose comfort and convenience he would be pleased to "minister unto" at all times.

The TABLE will be well supplied with the choice of the market, which will be served up in the best style, and in a manner calculated to please the taste and satisfy the appetites of the lovers of good living." Active and attentive waiters will be in attendance to serve all who 'sup at his board,' and strict attention will be paid to the respective wishes of both citizens and strangers will be kept clean and comfortable, and every exertion made to render them pleasant and agreeable, and where all may feel "at home." This being an essential particular in tavern keeping, the duty will be attended to by those of his household who are best calculated to appreciate, and most willing to promote comfort and render satisfaction.

The private apartments

THE STABLE

will be well supplied with provender of all kinds, and care will be taken that horses are both well fed and attended to, and the stable kept in a cleanly and proper condition.

☞HACKS will be in attendance at the steamboat to convey passengers to any part of the peninsula at a reasonable price

He solicits a share of the public patronage, which he hopes by strict attention to merit.

WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

A Compound Balsamic Preparation from WILD CHERRY BARK & TAR.

The best remedy known to the world for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Bleeding of the Lungs, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Influenza, Shortness of Breath, Pain and Weakness in the Breast or Side, Liver Complaint, and the first stages of CONSUMPTION.

A THOUSAND CURES in cases deemed utterly hopeless have firmly established its vast superiority over every former medical discovery. It has always been styled 'Nature's own Prescription,' being formed chiefly from chemical extracts from Wild Cherry Bark and Tar—two trees that are thickly scattered wherever diseases of the lungs prevail. We give a few instances of its extraordinary power, from a catalogue almost without end.

A lady (address will be given at the New York Agency) who was given up by all of her physicians to die of consumption, had a hard tumor for months on the side—raised among large quantities of matter a sort of bony substance—had taken no medicine for two months, being past all hope—entirely cured by a few bottles of this Balsam in September and October 1844.

A. Williams, Esq. Attorney, &c. New York, cured of spasmodic asthma of 25 years standing, certified to by Recorder Tallmadge and J Power D. D

A. Carman, New York city, who had not slept, lying down, for 7 years, (being obliged to sleep in a sitting posture) so far cured as to attend to his business in the most stormy weather.

Thomas Bradlee, Esq., J. P., Jamaica, L. I. cured of asthma of 40 years standing.

Mrs. Anna D. Hopkins, of Knowlesville, N. Y. entirely cured of liver complaint and general debility of eighteen months standing.

Jacob Hoffman, M. D. Huntingdon, cured a child of P. Schroeble, of obstinate disease of the lungs after he had tried all the usual remedies in vain.

"There is no such thing as fail" in the history of this wonderful BALSAM. Evidence the most convincing—evidence that not one can doubt—fully establishes this fact For the sake of brevity, we select the following from thousands.

Isaac Platt, Esq. Editor of the Po'keepsie Eagle, one of the most influential papers in the state of New York, states under the authority of his own name, that a young lady, a relative of his, of very delicate constitution, was attacked in February 1842, with severe cold, which immediately produced spitting of blood cough, fever, and other dangerous and alarming symptoms. Through medical treatment and care she partially recovered during summer. But on the return of winter she was attacked more violently than at first; she became scarcely able to walk, and was troubled with cough, chills and fever every day, and appeared to be going rapidly with consumption at this time, when there was no sign of improvement. Mr. Platt procured a bottle of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, which she took, and it seemingly restored her. She got a second, and before it was half taken, she was restored to perfect health, which she has enjoyed to the present time, without the slightest symptom of her former disease.

Mr Platt says "that cure came under my own observation, and I cannot be mistaken as to the facts"

EXTRACT OF A LETTER FROM A POST-MASTER, DATED

Pembroke, Washington Co. Maine, April 29, 1844

Mr. ISAAC BUTTS —Dear Sir: At the request of many of my friends in this place and vicinity, who are afflicted with consumption and liver complaints, I take the liberty of asking you to appoint some one in this county to sell as agent WISTARS BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, and to send him a few dozen as there is none of it for sale within 200 miles from this. I have no doubt that it would meet with a ready sale, if it were where it could be procured without too much expense and delay.

My wife was attacked about six months since with what the physicians called the first stage of consumption—a complaint very prevalent in this section of country. Having seen the Balsam advertised in Augusta,

☞200 MILES FROM HERE☜

I took the pains to send there for a bottle of it, which she took, and which helped so much that I sent for two bottles more, which she has also taken, and she now says she has not felt so well for six years as she does at this time. All those who have inquired of me and ascertained what effect the Balsam had, are anxious to have some for sale in this vicinity, which is the cause of my writing to you.

Please inform me by return of mail whether you conclude to send some, and if so, to whom, in order that it may be known where it can be had.

I am, with respect, yours, &c.
P. G. FARNSWORTH, P M.

The whole country is fast learning that no medicine—no physician—no preparation of any kind whatever—can equal Dr. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

A TRULY WONDERFUL CURE.

WATERVILLE, Oneida Co N Y. Sept 15 1843.

Dear Sir—I owe it to the afflicted to inform you that in January last I was attacked by a very violent cold, caused by working in the water, which settled upon my lungs. It was accompanied by a very severe pain in my breast and sides, and also a distressing cough. I had in attendance all the best medical aid in our village; but after exhausting all their skill to no avail, they pronounced my disease a CONFIRMED CONSUMPTION and they one and all gave me up to die. After much persuasion, I got the consent of my physician to use BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, prepared by Dr. WISTAR. I purchased of the Agent in our place one bottle, before using half of which I began to gain strength, and it was very evident my cough was much better, and my symptoms in every way improving I have now used three bottles, and AM RESTORED TO PERFECT HEALTH. This result is alone owing to the use of Dr. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY; and I take this method of giving you the information, partly to pay you the debt of gratitude I owe you, and partly that others similarly afflicted may know where to apply for relief.

Very truly yours,
JAMES SAGE.

Mr. PALMER, Druggist, under date of Waterville, September 24, 1843, writes.

The statement given you by Mr James Sage is well known to be true by this WHOLE COMMUNITY. It certainly was a most remarkable cure. The sale of the Balsam is very good, and its success in cures truly flattering.

Yours respectfully,
D D. PALMER.

THE MOST REMARKABLE CURE EVER RECORDED.

HADDONFIELD, N. J., April 23, 1843.

On or about the 13th day of October, 1841 I was taken with a violent pain in the side near the liver, which continued for about five days, and was followed by the breaking of ulcer or abscess, inwardly, which relieved the pain a little, but caused me to throw up a great quantity of offensive matter, and also much blood. Being greatly alarmed at this I applied to a physician; but he said he thought he could do but little for me except give me some Mercury Pills which I refused to take, feeling satisfied that they could do me no good; many other remedies were then procured by my wife & friends but none did me any good—and the discharge of blood and corruption still continued every few days, and at last became so offensive that I could scarcely breathe. I was also seized with a violent cough, which at times caused me to raise much more blood than I had done before—and my disease continued in this way still growing worse, until February, when all hope of my recovery was given up; and my friends all thought I would die of a GALLOPING CONSUMPTION At this moment, when my life was apparently drawing near its close I heard of DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, and got a bottle, which Relieved me Immediately; and by the use of only three bottles of this medicine, all my pains were removed—my cough and spitting of blood and corruption entirely stopped, and in a few weeks my health was so far restored as to enable me to work at my trade, (which is a capenter.) and up to this time I have enjoyed good health.

THOMAS COZENS.

GLOCESTER COUNTY, N. J ss.

Personally came before me, the subscriber, one of the Justices of the Peace in and for the said county, Thomas Cozens, and being duly affirmed according to law, saith the above statement is in all things true.

Affirmed before me, on the 20th day of April 1843. J. CLEMENT J. P.

Such is the unprecedented success of this BALSAM

"NATURE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTON."

a prescription congenial to our wants, as is prepared from chemical extracts from substances which the Author of nature has placed in our own land for wise purposes, that many who know nothing of the mode of its preparation are endeavoring the reap pecuniary benefits by selling an article similar in name, or in appearance, or by representing their own trash as superior to this BALSAM or by putting up a mixture and solemnly asseverating that it is imported from a foreign country, which is not the case. All these deceptive arts go to show that WISTAR'S BALSAM is known to the world to be "THE GREAT REMEDY," and that to sell any mixture it must be like this in name or purport, to be like it in substance.

☞Believe not the cunningly wrought fabrication—and take only the original and genuine WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

HEMSLEY'S WORM DESTROYING SYRUP.

Prepared by R. F. Hemsley,

CHEMIST & PHARMACEUTIST, Easton Md.

WHEN we consider the great number of children who die annually in our county by worms it becomes important that the public should be in possession of some Medicine for their removal, which will combine safety and efficiency in its employment, this desideratum is afforded by the 'Worm Destroying Syrup.' It is not my wish, nor is it my design to throw around this preparation the unmeaning & extravagant eulogiums with which such medicines are usually ushured into notice, I only desire for it a fair & judicious trial to secure its full approbation. The large and increasing sale of this article is the best proof of the value and estimation in which it is held by numerous & respectable families. The presence of worms may generally with readiness be detected by the following.

SYMPTOMS.

Variable appetite—foul tongue—fetid breath—full hard and tense belly—dull heavy expression of the Countenance—a bluish streak under the eye—it hing at the nose—puffiness of the upper lip—disordered and irregular bowels—starting and screaming in sleep—grinding of teeth—pain in the bowels & frequently drowsiness or convulsions, attended by slow fever.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

Being acquainted with the general and successful use of Mr. R. F. Hemsley's Worm Destroying Syrup, I cheerfully recommend it to the public as a valuable remedy for the expulsion of worms.

I have for the last two years used with success Mr. R. F. Hemsley's 'Worm Destroying Syrup' Indeed I look upon it as a specific in those cases, and knowing its composition feel no hesitation in recommending it where worms exist.

WM. H THOMAS, M. D.

Having examined MR. R. F. HEMSLEY'S 'WORM DESTROYING SYRUP,' and being conversant with its general and successful employment in Easton and the vicinity, I take much pleasure in recommending it to the public as a safe and efficient remedy for the expulsion of worms from the alimentary canal.

There is no authelmimtic preparation from the use of which I have seen better results than from MR R. F. HEMSLEY'S 'WORM DESTROYING SYRUP' having been made acquainted with its composition I can confidently recommend it, not only as a vermafuge but as a gentle tonic suitable in those cases of debility occurring in consequence of the presence of worms in the stomach and bowels.

From DR. W. HEMSLEY.

Having prescribed the 'Worm Destroying Syrup' with success in my neighbourhood I can confidently recommend it as superior to any other preparation offered to the public.

I have tried in a desperate case of worms Mr. R. F. HEMSLEY'S 'WORM DESTROYING SYRUP,' and it proved immediately efficacious, this case had baffled the skill of Physicians previously, and the disease must soon have killed the servant. I feel it my duty to give this certificate in favour of the valuable medicine.
