I give and devise the other one equal half part of the said lot of ground last mentioned, unto my daughters, Mary and Nancy, share and share alike, for their and each of their sole and separate use and benefit, without being in any manner subject to the control, disposition, debts or contracts of any husband they or either of them may hereafter marry.

Whereas, George H. Siddons, Daniel Lewis Siddons, Jeremiah Siddons, Henrietta Siddons, children of Daniel Siddons, late of the City of Baltimore, deceased, were bound to me by - Orphans' Court of Baltimore County, the said George Daniel and Jeremiah until they shall arrive at the age of twenty-one years respectively and the said Henrietta until they shall respectively arrive at the age of eighteen; I give and devise the said infant apprentices above named, unto my daughter, Mary Siddons, their mother-in-law, during the period of their apprenticeship, to be by them maintained out of the estate and property hereinbefore devised to her.

Lastly, I do give and devise all the rest and residue of my estate unto my daughters, Nancy Turner and Malvina Jennings Woodyard, share and share alike. I do hereby constitute, and appoint my daughters, Mary and Nancy, executrixes of this my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal, this seventeen - day of November, eighteen hundred and fifty-one.

Mary Turner her + mark (Seal.)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by Mary Turner, the above named testatrix, as and for her last will and testament, in the presence of us, who, at her request, and in her presence, and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto -

Robt. Rankin,
C. H. Wood,
Daniel E. Myers.

Baltimore City, Ss:

On the 11th day of January, 1854, came Daniel E. Myers, one of the subscribing witnesses to the aforegoing last will and testament of Mary Turner, late of said city, deceased, and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that he did see the testatrix sign and seal this will, that he heard her publish, pronounce and declare the same to be her last will and testament, that at the time of her so doing she was, to the best of his apprehension, of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding; and he together with Robert Rankin and C. H. Wood, the other two subscribing witnesses thereto, subscribed their names as witnesses to this will, in her presence, at her request and in the presence of each other.

Sworn to before the subscriber.
