THE OLD EARTH.

"The earth gives signs of age, disease and sickleness. It yields its increase grudgingly, and demands an exorbitant fee beforehand, in toil and sweat from the husbandman. It has ill turns, or paroxysms, when it rouses the ocean into a tempest, and makes sport of navies, strewing the shore with the wrecks and carcases of men. It rocks a continent or sinks an island, shaking massive cities into countless fragments, and burying its wretched inhabitants in indiscriminate ruin; anon it writhes and groans in mortal agony, and finds relief only by disgorging its fiery bowels, burying cities and villages in burning graves. The earth is old and feeble, and must needs groan on, until it renews its prime."—Miseries and Liabilities of the Present Life.

Old mother Earth is wan and pale,
Her face is wrinkled sore;
Her locks are blanched, her heart is cold,
Her garments stiff with gore;
With furrowed brow and dim sad eyes,
With trembling steps and slow,
She marks the course that first she trod,
Six thousand years ago!

The Earth is old, the Earth is cold,
She shivers and complains;
How many Winters fierce and chill,
Have racked her limbs with pains!
Drear tempests, lightning, flood and flame
Have scarred her visage so,
That scarce we deem she shone so fair,
Six thousand years ago!

Yet comely was the youthful Earth,
And lightly tripped along
To music from a starry choir,
Whose sweet celestial song
Through Nature's temple echoed wild,
And soft as streamlets' flow,
While sister spheres rejoiced with her,
Six thousand years ago!

And many happy children there
Upon her breast reclined,
The young Earth smiled with aspect fair,
The heavens were bright and kind;
The azure cope above her head
In love seemed bending low;
O happy was the youthful Earth,
Six thousand years ago!

Alas! those children of the earth
With hate began to burn,
And Murder stained her beauteous robe,
And bade the young Earth mourn.
And ages, heavy ages, still
Have bowed with gathering wo
The form of her whose life was joy,
Six thousand years ago!

Old Earth! drear Earth! thy tender heart
Bewails thy chosen ones;
Thou look'st upon the myriad graves
That hide their gathered bones;
For them, by day and night, thy tears
Unceasingly must flow;
Death chilled the fountain-heart of life
Six thousand years ago!

Old Earth! old Earth! above thy head,
The heavens are dark and chill,
The sun looks coldly on thee now,
The stars shine pale and still;
No more the heavenly symphonies
Through listening ether flow;
Which swelled upon creation's ear,
Six thousand years ago!

Weep not in bitter grief, O Earth!
Weep not in hopelessness!
From out the heavens a 'still small voice'
Whispers returning peace.
Thy tears are precious in the sight
Of ONE who marks their flow,
Who purposes of mercy formed,
Six thousand years ago!

Thy days of grief are numbered all,
Their sum will soon be told;
Thy joy of youth, the smile of GOD,
Shall bless thee as of old;
Shall shed a purer, holier light
Upon thy peaceful brow,
Than beamed upon thy morning hour
Six thousand years ago!

Thy chosen ones shall live again,
A countless, tearless throng,
To wake creation's voice anew,
And swell the choral song.
Go, Earth! go wipe thy falling tears,
Forget thy heavy wo;
Hope died not with thy first-born sons,
Six thousand years ago!

PLUMP AND PLAIN.—A Southern Editor makes the following frank announcement:

"We shall not support any man for office short of Ten Dollars, besides his annunciation fee. That's what the lawyers charge for attending to an assault and battery case which is a light and lovely occupation compared with that of editorially attending to a candidate's case to say nothing of the awful wear and tear of conscience in this peculiar branch of our business."

All further proceedings in the case of Ex-Gov. Thomas, of Md. indicted in the Circuit Court at Washington city, for Libel, have been postponed until the March term of the court on account of the absence of witnesses for the defence.

COMPLIMENTARY.—The British Government has presented to Professor Espy, through our late Minister, Mr. Everett, a copy of a popular work containing meteorological observations, made at various places, by order of the English Government. We believe this is the first instance of this work having been presented to a private individual in this country, and shows the high estimation in which the philosopher is held in Europe.

FRIGHTENED AT A GONG.

We have heard a funny story told of a young fellow, residing in one of the tobacco-growing counties of Virginia, who recently made his first visit to Richmond, the capital of the "Old Dominion," for the purpose of selling his crop, seeing the sights, and rubbing off some of the rust which his backwoods "fetching-up" had thrown upon his manners.

He reached Richmond about the middle of the forenoon, and was fortunate in selling his crop to an advantageous rate and almost immediately. Meeting with an old school-fellow—one who had lived in the city long enough to know its ways—he was advised to take up his lodgings at Boyden's, the crack house of the place and thither he at once went with bag and baggage. Just before dinner his country friend called upon him, and he found him comfortably located in a room just at the head of the first stairs. It was close upon dinner time.

"Supposing we take something to start an appetite," said a chap who had "just come down."

"Agreed," rejoined his city friend, "a glass of wine and bitters for me."

"Let's go down to the bar and get it—dinner's most ready," continued the tobacco grower.

"We might as well have it up here," was the rejoinder.

"Good lick; but how are we to call for it?"

"Ring that bell there."

"What bell?"

"Pull that rope hanging there."

The young fellow laid hold of the rope and gave it a jerk, and just at that moment the gong sounded for dinner. Never had he heard such a sound before, and the rumbling crash came upon his ear with a report that stunned him. He staggered back from the rope, raised both hands in horror, and exclaimed.

"Great Jerusalem, what a smash! I've broke every piece of crockery in the house! There aint a whole dish left! You must stick by me, old fellow," addressing his friend, "doat leave me in this scrape, for my whole crop won't half pay the breakage. What did you tell me to touch that cursed rope for?"

But before his friend who all but bursting with laughter, could answer, a servant entered the room with

"Did you ring the bell, sir?"

"Bell, no hang your bell. I never touched a bell in my life: what bell? I never saw your bell."

"Somebody rung the bell of this room, that's certain," continued the servant.

"No, they didn't. There's nobody here that ever saw a bell"—and then turning to his friend, he exclaimed, aside, "Let's lie him out of it, I shant have a cent left to get home if I pay the entire damage. What do they set such rascally traps as that for, to take in folks from the country?"

After a violent fit of laughter, the friend was enabled to explain that it was only the gong sounding for dinner—a simple summons to "walk down to soup" got up on the Chinese plan. They made their way to the dining room, but it was some time before the young tobacco grower could get over the stunning and awful effects of that dreadful gong—"It was a mercy," he said, "that the crash did not turn his hair gray on the spot,"

The London correspondent of the Boston Atlas, speaking of the continuance of the railroad mania in England, says—

Among the other great projects of the day, is one to make the Thames Tunnel valuable by converting it into a railway tunnel. It is well known that it has never returned one farthing of profit to the proprietors nor has enough money been taken to pay the interest on the large sum for which it is mortgaged to government. As several of the leading railway companies are negotiating to have depots in the centre of the metropolis, instead of its borders, a party of capitalists have proposed to purchase the Thames Tunnel, with the view of carrying a railway direct from the junction of the Eastern Counties and Blackwall lines, to the point on the Greenwich line whence the Corydon, Brighton and Dover verge. An offer of ten shillings in the pound has been made for the Tunnel, and it will, most likely, be accepted.

Among the variety of railway announcements is one deserving particular notice. It is a patent rail for the atmospheric lines. The principle consists in working the line by a "plenum," instead of a "vacuum," or more properly speaking, by forcing strongly compressed air into tubes laid down in the centre of the line, between the rails, which suddenly inflates the pipes, their sides impinge upon two drums, or large wooden rollers pressing upon them, which are by that means set in motion, and being fixed by simple mechanism to the carriage above, carries it off with astonishing velocity and it is impossible for the carriage to get off the rail. Such is the confidence expressed in its superior construction, that the company who are about to adopt it propose to make every ticket issued a policy of insurance upon the life of the passenger who holds it, so that in the event of accident or death, a claim can be made upon the company for a certain amount. This is certainly a novel feature in railway prospectuses, and might suggest to other companies whether they might not offer a similar guarantee with advantage.

Singular Coincidences.—A contemporary states, as a singular coincidence in regard to the several Presidents of the United States, that Jefferson was born just eight years after his predecessor Adams; Madison eight years after his predecessor Jefferson; Monroe eight years after Madison, and John Quincy Adams eight years after Monroe. Another curious fact is, that Adams was just sixty-six years old when he retired; Jefferson was sixty-six; Madison was sixty-six; and John Quincy Adams, had he been elected to a second term, would have been sixty-six. Adams, Jefferson and Monroe, all died on the 4th of July.

HEMSLEY'S VEGETABLE

TONIC,

PREPARED BY

R. F. HEMSLEY,

PHARMACEUTIST,—Easton Md.

NO MEDICINE has acquired in so short a time so general a popularity; and none is prepared to present so honorable an array of certificates from the FACULTY OF MEDICINE and private individuals throughout the States as Hemsley's Vegetable Tonic. In moderate doses, regularly taken, this medicine is a sure preventive of Fever & Ague and Bilious Fever, while it affords in most instances a permanent cure when employed for the removal of these diseases In all cases of general debility arising from old age, protracted illness, or uniform delicacy and feebleness of constitution it is without question one of the most agreeable and efficient tonics ever offered to the public. Let all who are afflicted apply to this remedy with the full expectation of perfect relief. It promises nothing which it is not competent to perform; and must in a very short time be the remedy preferred to all others in the various forms of Fever and Ague and in cases of general debility Full directions for using it will accompany each bottle.

Certificates.

The undersigned, Physicians of Baltimore, having been made acquainted with the ingredients composing "Hemsley's Vegetable Tonic," have no hesitation in saying that the compound, it properly used, cannot fail to conduce greatly to the accomplishment of the object proposed in its employment; and do therefore cheerfully recommend it to the afflicted public.

J. K. MILLER, M. D.
Former President of Washington Med Col and Profesor of Anat. Physiology, &c &c.
SAML. K. JENNINGS, M. D.
Profes. Materia Medica and Therapeutics, Washington Med. Col
G. R. WRIGHT, M. D
THOS OWINGS, M. D.
Fayette Street.

The preparation made by Mr. Hemsley Apothecary, Easton, Maryland, and known as "Hemsley's Vegetable Tonic," is in my opinion the best article ever offered to the public for the radical cure of that distressing affection, Intermittent Fever. This composition forms a pleasant bitters, and furnishes a most desirable tonic in cases of constitutional debility resulting from natural infirmity or the ravages of disease. I have recommended this medicine extensively in my practice and have always found it to answer the desired purpose.

CHRIS C COX, A. M. M. D.

Mr. R. F. Hemsley, Sir:—This is to certify that for a long time I labored under the debilitating influence of that dreadful disease, Ague & Fever, and had recourse to many remedies recommended to me by Physicians and others, all of which proved unavailing. I heard of your celebrated Vegetable Tonic,' of which I procured two bottles, and before I had taken it all I was entirely restored, and have not since felt any symptoms of its return. It has accomplished more in my case than all other remedies put together, and I most cheerfully recommend it to all those persons who may be laboring under this most wretched disease.

Easton, Jan. 18, 1845.

HEMSLEY'S WORM DESTROYING SYRUP.

Prepared by R. F. Hemsley,

CHEMIST & PHARMACEUTIST, Easton Md.

WHEN we consider the great number of children who die annually in our county by worms it becomes important that the public should be in possession of some Medicine for their removal, which will combine safety and efficiency in its employment, this desideratum is afforded by the 'Worm Destroying Syrup.' It is not my wish, nor is it my design to throw around this preparation the unmeaning & extravagant eulogiums with which such medicines are usually ushered into notice. I only desire for it a fair & judicious trial to secure its full approbation. The large and increasing sale of this article is the best proof of the value and estimation in which it is held by numerous & respectable families. The presence of worms may generally with readiness be detected by the following.

SYMPTOMS,

Variable appetite—foul tongue—fetid breath—full hard and loose belly—dull heavy expression of the Countenance—a bluish streak under the eye—itching at the nose—pallidness of the upper lip—disordered and irregular bowels—starting and screaming in sleep—grinding of teeth—pain in the bowels & frequently drowsiness or convulsions, attended by slow fever.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

Being acquainted with the general and successful use of Mr R. F. Hemsley's Worm Destroying Syrup I cheerfully recommend it to the public as a valuable remedy for the expulsion of worms.

TRIST. THOMAS, M. D.

I CONCUR IN THE ABOVE,
JAS. A. MUSE, M. D,
Easton March 26 1844

I have for the last two years used with success Mr. R. F Hemsley's 'Worm Destroying Syrup' Indeed I look upon it as a specific in those cases, and knowing its composition feel no hesitation in recommending it where worms exist.

WM. H THOMAS, M D,
Easton March 23 1844

Having examined MR. R. F. HEMSLEY'S 'WORM DESTROYING SYRUP,' and being conversant with its general and successful employment in Easton and the vicinity, I take much pleasure in recommending it to the public as a safe and efficient remedy for the expulsion of worms from the alimentary canal.

CHRIS. C. COX, M. D.
Easton March 7 1844

There is no anthelmintic preparation from the use of which I have seen better results than from MR R. F. HEMSLEY'S 'WORM DESTROYING SYRUP' having been made acquainted with its composition I can confidently recommend it not only as a vermifuge but as a gentle tonic suitable in those cases of debility occurring in consequence of the presence of worms in the stomach and bowels.

A. M WHITE, M. D.
Talbot county March 26th 1844

FROM DR W. HEMSLEY.

Having prescribed the 'Worm Destroying Syrup' with success in my neighbourhood I can confidently recommend it as superior to any other preparation offered to the public.

I have tried in a desperate case of worms Mr. R. F. HEMSLEY'S 'WORM DESTROYING SYRUP,' and it proved immediately efficacious, this case had baffled the skill of Physicians previously, and the disease must soon have killed the servant. I feel it my duty to give this certificate in favour of the valuable medicine.
