a married woman to execute alone, by way of mortgage, a valid deed of her real estate.

But the Court overruled said special exception and granted said prayer of the defendant, and instructed the jury as therein prayed; and also rejected and refused to grant the plaintiff's prayer.

To which action of the Court in overruling her special exception to the defendant's prayer, and in rejecting and refusing to grant her prayer, and in granting the defendant's prayer and instructing the jury as therein prayed, the plaintiff excepted, and prayed the Court to sign and seal this, her 2d Bill of exceptions; which is accordingly done this 29th day of April, 1889.

Jos. A. Vickers, (Seal.)

And thereupon, the plaintiff prays an appeal.

Whereupon the Court order that a transcript of the proceedings in the plea aforesaid be transmitted to the Court of Appeals, and the same is transmitted accordingly.
