Correspondence of the American.

WASHINGTON, Dec, 9.

The vote in the Senate to-day shows that the caucus candidates have been defeated there in the choice of officers. Mr. Sturgess of Ga. & Dr. Salisbury of Pa., were both the caucus candidates. Messrs. Benton, Bagby and Haywood declined to vote for them, and Mr. McDuffie was not willing to commit himself, and therefore remained at home. The caucus candidates were defeated by a bare majority of one. Absent, Messrs. Webster, Morehead and Calhoun.

The vote to-day may be regarded as a triumph of the Whigs and the Conservative Democrats, as also may the two votes yesterday in the House of Representatives refusing to print 20,000 extra copies of Mr. Walker's Treasury Report, and refusing also to take unusual means to deprive Mr. Cabell, the Whig member from Florida, of his seat.

EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, MD.

Saturday Morning, Dec. 13

The GAZETTE will continue to wear mourning for its EDITOR until the 1st of January.

Governor of Virginia.—The Hon. Wm. Smith, of Farquier co., was on Wednesday elected Governor of Virginia, by the legislature of that State, in place of Gov. McDowell, whose term expires on the 1st of January.

Death of Commodore Elliott.—We learn, with regret, that Commodore Jesse D. Elliott, commandant at the Navy Yard at Philadelphia, died on Wednesday evening, about 11 o'clock, at his boarding house, in that city.

Report of the Secretary of the Treasury.

The report is decidedly anti-protective—elaborates upon the idea in the President's message that no rate of duty on an imported article is constitutional, but that which will bring the most money into the Treasury—and attacks at length the minimum principle and specific duties of the tariff of 1842.

The warehousing system is recommended:

Drawback on goods exported from this country through Canada, is proposed.

Is in favor of reducing and graduating the price of the public lands.

The Sub-Treasury—under the new name of the Constitutional Treasury—is strongly recommended—and, in connection with it, the establishing of a branch-mint in New York suggested.

These are the chief points in the report, which is as long, seemingly, as Mr. Walker could make it.

THE POST OFFICE.—The Postmaster General, in his report, estimates the deficiency in the revenue of the Post Office, during the last fiscal year, at about a million and a quarter of dollars.

We are glad to learn that he recommends that Congress shall purchase the patent right of Morse's Telegraph, and we hope that his recommendation shall be adopted.

He suggests that the plan of weighing letters shall be abandoned, and the old mode of estimating by the number of pieces of paper in each letter be restored—which we hope will not be adopted. If the half ounce weight for a single letter be too much, let it be reduced to a quarter of an ounce; but let us have nothing of the old mode of prying into letters by post office clerks, and guessing at how many pieces of paper each letter is made up. Balt. Pat.

Effect of the Foreign News.—The Baltimore Patriot of the 8th inst. says: "The foreign news has thrown our flour and grain markets into a very unsettled state, to remain so until further advices shall have been received from New York. Very little disposition was manifested either by buyers or sellers, this morning, to operate. Offers were made to purchase City Mills and Howard street flour at $6, but refused. No transactions have taken place in wheat, both millers and speculators having retired from the market. The general impression is that wheat will recede somewhat in price; offers were made to sell this morning at a fraction less than the quotations of Saturday; sales of Maryland white corn at 65a67 cents, and of yellow corn at 67a69; oats 40a42 cents; rye 73a76 cents.—Whiskey is selling at 31 cents in barrels and 30 cents per gallon in hogsheads.

THE NEWS BY THE CAMBRIA.

The "Journal of Commerce" states, on the authority of an intelligent merchant of the city of New York, who has been spending the last eight months in Europe, and had the best opportunities of observation, that "the excitement in England was universal against the United States on the subject of Oregon. The Government was making the most vigorous preparations for war, and unquestionably with reference alone to the Oregon dispute; as with France, and all the nations of Europe, she is without controversy on any subject.—

A very large contract had been made, among other things, for military clothing in Canada. Indeed, it was said that the Government were determined upon the necessity of settling the difficulty without further delay."

The same paper further states that "the opinion of the passengers to whom the President's, Message was read, on board the Cambria, was, that it would very much increase the excitement in England and increase the difficulty of an amicable settlement."

THE ENGLISH MARKET FOR BREADSTUFFS.

"The corn market continues to rise and the averages to fall. The latter now stand for the week at 14s.; but the belief is gaining ground that before the end of the year, with the advancing market, corn will be admitted at the lowest duty—a shilling per quarter. The inferior descriptions continue to keep down the averages, but only for a temporary period. The quantity of flour coming from the United States to this country has been most absurdily exaggerated in some of the journals."

FOREIGN NEWS.

Arrival of the Cambria.

Fifteen Days Later from Europe.

The Cunard steamer Cambria arrived at Boston on Thursday from Liverpool, with advices to the 19th ult. the day of her sailing. The following summary of her news is made up from the New York papers of Saturday morning:

Cotton market remains in a depressed state.

But little activity in the Provision market.

The corn market continues to rise, and the averages to fall. The latter now stand for the week at 14s., but the belief is gaining ground, that before the end of the year, with the advancing market, corn will be admitted at the lowest duty—a shilling per quarter.

The steamer Great Western, Capt. Matthews, 13 days from New York, arrived at Liverpool just as the Cambria left.

The sufferings of the people of Ireland were great, on account of the destruction of the potato crop.

The Bank of England has raised the rate of discount to 3 1-2 per cent.

American wool appears to command much attention.

Trade in the manufacturing districts is down.

The political news is of very little importance.

Among the passengers in the Cambria, is Professor Morse, the inventor of the electro magnetic telagraph, who is the bearer of very important despatches to Government from the United States Legislations in Prussia, Belgium, and England. Mr. Morse has in charge the ratified treaty between Bavaria and the U. States, transmitted by Henry Wheaton, United States Minister at Berlin; and also the proposed commercial treaty between Belgium and the United States. He has also despatches for the Department of State, and for the Post Master General, from Louis McLane, United States Minister to England.

Rufus Prime, Esq., of New York, is also a passenger in the Cambria, and bearer of despatches from the United States Legation in Paris to the Department of State.

The Railway Speculations had very generally subsided, & as the frauds and machinery of the operators in fictitious stocks are more fully developed, it appears that the amount of money actually diverted from the usual channels of trade is extremely small. This circumstance has to some extent, tended to quiet the money market.

The resignation of Marshal Soult has been finally accepted. General Saint You has been appointed his successor in the Ministry of War.

The King of the Belgians has been opening the Chambers in a speech which makes mention of a commercial treaty with the United States; but the details of the treaty have not appeared. The state of the potato crop, and the sufferings which, it is feared, the Belgians will endure in consequence are to be provided for, the King suggests, by employing the poor on public works.

Meetings have been held in Ireland, to take into consideration the state of the potato crop of the country, and resolutions were passed, and submitted to Sir R. Peel, asking for the opening of the ports; to stop the distillation of grain, and the granting of a loan of a million and a half, to supply their present necessities.

The Cloth Markets at Leeds and Huddersfield are not in such a healthy state as when last reported; few goods are now changing hands at the latter named place but the price of both goods and wool remain steady.

The great topic among all classes in England is the repeal of the corn laws and open ports.

An English paper says that every mile of railway takes eight acres of good land. The 1800 miles already existing, and 20,000 miles impending, will require the snug quantity of 114,000 acres, without reclaiming any from other roads or canals.

PRICES CURRENT.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 8, 1845.

GRAIN.—The effect of the English news has caused an entire suspension in the Wheat market. The tendency is decidedly downwards, but in the absence of transactions no quotations can be given.

Sales of Corn to-day at 68a70 cts. for white, and 70 cts. for yellow.

We quote Md. Rye at 74a75 cts., and Oats at 43 cts.

OBITUARY.

Departed this life at his residence in Easton, on Sunday morning the 7th inst., about 10 o'clock, Col. WILLIAM HUGHLETT in the 77th year of his age.

We are very well assured that Obituary notices too frequently exhibit rather an unmeasured and highwrought panegyric on the character of the deceased, than a simple and faithful portraiture of it. Too often the afflicted feelings of friendship, yielding to fresh impulse, stimulate to the indulgence of them in terms of eulogy, which are condemned as fulsome. But on an occasion like this, when one who has so long occupied a high position in our society, has been sommoned from "time to eternity," it is pardonable to offer such expression of feeling, as truth and justice may approve. True it is that the events of Col Hughlett's life have not transpired in stirring scenes of great public concern, but nevertheless there are lessons of value to be learned from the energy, industry and perseverance, by which his has been distinguished.

Beginning life with very moderate means and engaging early in active mercantile pursuits, he has amassed a fortune of such magnitude, as very few indeed in our section of country and with the facilities here afforded, can hope to equal. His kind and benevolent disposition rendered him at all times prompt in extending his aid to such as were deserving of it. "Industry and economy" constituted his motto—by this rule his own conduct was regulated, and with these qualities to recommend him, the poverty of the applicant for his assistance formed no obstacle in the way of his yielding it—The means with which he had been blessed were thus always cheerfully made beneficial to others, and that punctuality which he exacted from other men, he always scrupulously regarded as obligatory on himself.

At one period of his life Col. Hughlett resided in the State of Delaware, whither he had removed from Caroline county, in this State, the place of his nativity. He was there for many years industriously engaged in large business operations and while there became a member of the Legislature of that State. On his return to his native state, he resided a few years in Dorchester county, when he removed to this County and finally to this Town. Since his removal to Talbot, he has repeatedly represented the county as a Delegate to the General Assembly and has also served the constitutional term of a Senator of the State. His last employment of a public character, with the exception of the Presidency of the Bank in this Town, which he held several years as the successor of the venerable Thomas I. Bullitt, Esq., and voluntarily resigned, more than a year since, was as the Collector of the State Tax in this county. He was induced to accept this laborious trust from the deep personal interest he held in the public funds and from an ardent desire to preserve unsullied the public faith. To the discharge of the duties of all these stations, he brought a sound, practical and discriminating mind, deriving its resources chiefly from the results of experience.

In the relations of Husband, Father and Master, no man was more exemplary—as a Husband he was kind and indulgent—as a Father tender, affectionate and remarkably solicitous in regard to the substantial interests of his children—and as a Master he was forbearing, considerate and attentive to all the duties this relation imposes.

A fond wife and six devoted children in agony now mourn their loss. Prepared as they were, in some degree, by the gradual approach of death, yet when the last hour came, the feelings which before could not be wholly restrained, burst forth in resistless torrents of grief. But let them not grieve as those "without hope." Their departed Husband and Father has left an example, from which they and society at large may learn a profitable lesson.

On the fifth April last Col. H., entered upon the 77th year of his age.

On Tuesday afternoon, agreeably to previous notice, his remains were conveyed from his late residence to Christ Church, where the solemn and impressive Funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Mason, in the presence of a large and respectable congregation, sincerely sympathizing with the family of the deceased.—They were taken thence to the Burying Ground of this Church, where they were solemnly deposited in their resting place, there to remain till called up by the quickening sound of the arch angel's trumpet.

During the procession to the Church and the Burying Ground, the town Bell was tolled, in mournful unison with the feelings of all who attended it.
