Martin Ridenour vs Daniel Berger,

Court for Washington County aforesaid, did confess Judgment to the said George Shown the said debt, damages, costs and charges to be levied of their bodies, goods or chattels, lands or tenements for the use of the said George, in case the said Daniel shall not pay and satisfy to the said George the said debt, damages, costs and charges. The damages to be released on payment of 1/3 of the debt, with interest on the whole debt from 14th October 1815, to 30th Nov. 1820, and interest on the 1/3 from said 30th Nov. till paid and costs.

No. 3.

The third recciting, whereas at a County Court begun and held at Hagerstown, in and for Washington County, on the 4th Monday of March 1819 a certain Martin Ridenour, by Judgment of the same Court recovered against a certain Daniel Berger, late of Washington County, Yeoman as well the sum of $50, debt, as the sum of $100 current money, for the damages which he had sustained as well by reason of the detention of that debt, as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf laid out and expended, whereof the said Daniel is convict, as appears of record, for which said debt, damages, costs and charges the said Daniel and a certain Peter Mong & William Webb, on the 28th July 1820, before Jacob Schnebly Esq. one of the Justices of the Orphans Court for Washington County aforesaid, did confess Judgment to the said Martin Ridenour the said debt damages, costs and charges, to be levied of their bodies, goods or chattels, lands or tenements, for the use of the said Martin in case the said Daniel shall not pay and satisfy to the said Martin the said debt, damages, costs and charges. The damages to be released on payment of 1/3 of the debt, with interest on the whole debt from 20th August 1810 to 30th November 1820, and interest on 1/3 from said 30th November, till paid and costs.

Farmers Bank of Md. vs Daniel Berger, No. 4.

The fourth reciting, whereas at a County Court begun and held at Hagerstown, in and for Washington County, on the 4th Monday of March 1820, the President, Directors and Company of the Farmers Bank of Maryland, by the Judgment of the same Court, recovered against a certain Daniel Berger, late of Washington County, Yeoman the sum of $400 current money, for the damages which they had sustained, as well by reason of the non-performance of a certain promise and assumption as for their costs and charges by them about their suit in that behalf laid out and expended, whereof the said Daniel is convict as appears of record for which said damages, costs and charges the said Daniel and a certain William Webb and Peter Mong, on the 1st day of May 1820, before Thos. Heller Esq. one of the Justices of the Orphans Court for Washington County aforesaid, did confess Judgment to the said Bank, the damages costs and charges to be levied of their bodies, goods or chattels, lands or tenements for the use of the said Bank in case the said Berger shall not pay and satisfy to the said Bank, the said damages, costs and charges. To be released on payment of 1/3 of $182 with interest from the 6th January 1819 to the 30th day of November 1820, and interest on the 1/3 from said 30th November till paid and costs. By which said writs of fieri facias the said sheriff was commanded, that of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the said Daniel, William and Peter in his bailiwick, being he cause to be made the said damages, costs and charges, and that he should have the sums before the said County Court to be held at the Court House in Hagerstown in said County, on the 4th Monday of March next to render unto the Plaintiffs aforesaid the damages, costs and charges aforesaid. And whereas also on the 10th day of January 1821, a certain other writ of the State of Maryland of fieri facias, did issue forth out of Washington County Court, and to the said Sheriff of Washington County directed, reciting — Whereas at a County Court begun and held at Hagerstown, in and for Washington County, on the 4th Monday of March 1819, a certain Henry Lewis by the Judgment of the same Court, recovered against a certain Jacob Rohrer Jr. late of Washington County, Yeoman, the sum of $150 current money, for the damages, which he had sustained as well by reason of the non performance of a certain promise and assumption, as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf laid out and expended, whereof the said Jacob Rohrer Jr. is convict, as it appears of record, For which said damages, costs and charges the said Jacob and a certain Daniel Berger, William Webb and Peter Mong on the 22d day of July, in the year of our Lord 1820 before Jacob Schnebly Esq. one of the Justices of the Orphans Court for Washington County aforesaid, did confess Judgment to the said Henry Lewis, the said damages, costs and charges to be levied of their bodies, goods or chattels, lands or tenements, for the use of the said Henry in case the said Jacob shall not pay and satisfy to the said Henry the said damages, costs and charges, whereof the said Jacob, Daniel, William and Peter are convict, as of the record is manifest. — The said sheriff was therefore commanded that of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements, of the said Jacob, Daniel, William and Peter, being in his bailiwick, he cause to be made 1/3 of the damages aforesaid with the interest due on the whole, and all the costs and charges aforesaid, — and that he should have those sums before the said County Court, to be held at the Court House in Hagerstown, in said County, on the 4th Monday of March next, to render unto the said Henry Lewis the damages, costs and charges aforesaid, and that he should have then and there said writs. And whereas also the said writs came to the hands of the said sheriff and in pursuance of the commands therein contained, the said sheriff laid the same upon all the right, title, interest and estate of the said Daniel Berger, in and to about 160 acres of land, lying in Washington County, with the improvements thereon, the same being a tract or parcel of land called "Huckleberry Hall", beginning to include said tract called "Huckleberry Hall" at the end of 20 p. on the 2d line of said land, and running N. 62° E. 36 p. to the end of the said line, then N. 78½° W. 30 p. to Jacob Miller's part of said land, and then by a straight line, to the beginning containing 2¼ acres of land more or less, and a tract called "Heyers Inheritance" granted to Frederick Heyser the 31st day of May 1805, for 160¼ acres of land, And also a tract called "Poor chance", patented to Daniel Berger aforesaid, on the 4th day of January 1814, containing 1¾ acres of land more or less. And whereas also the said sheriff did on the third day of July 1821, after due notice being given of the same, expose the said lands so as aforesaid, taken in execution on the said writ, to public sale to the highest bidder, but there appearing no person or persons who would bid for the same, the said sheriff did afterwards on the 4th Monday of March 1824, return to the said County Court that by virtue of the said writs to him directed, for that purpose, he

Henry Lewis vs Jacob Rohrer, Jr. No. 5.