May 6th 1831. Errors Excepted. J. R. Plater.

It is admitted that the payments mentioned in the within statement were all duly made at the periods mentioned and constitute credits to which the defendants are entitled. But this admission is not to be understood as fixing the number of acres in the land sold by the late John R Plater to the late John Darnall.

J. Johnson, for Compltt.
A. Randall, for Deftts.

On which bill the Chancellor passed an order of publication against the non-resident defendants in the words following to wit.

William Plater, admr. of John R. Plater, vs Charles Darnall and William G. Ridgely and Sophia his wife & others.

In Chancery, 9th Oct. 1832.

The object of the Bill filed in this cause is to attain a Decree for the payment of the sum due on account of the purchase of the land hereinafter mentioned by a sale of the same in case the personal estate is insufficient and for a conveyance. The Bill states that John R Plater in the year 1817 sold to one John Darnall a tract or parcel of Land called Great Elkton Head Manor containing nine hundred and ninety eight and an half acres more or less for the sum of nine dollars per acre, That said Darnall agreed to make the following payments to wit, on the first of January 1817 two thousand dollars and the balance of the purchase money in two equal annual Instalments from the said first of January with legal interest on the said whole balance. That said Plater upon the payment of said purchase money agreed to execute a deed to said Darnall,
