as may be laid before him, recollecting that the original claim was for nine hundred and ninety eight acres and one half acre of land at the price of nine dollars per acre — And the parties are hereby authorised to take testimony in relation to the said account before any Justice of the peace on giving three days notice as usual, provided that the said testimony be taken and filed in the Chancery office in this case on or before the 24th day of February next. —

Theodorick Bland Ch.

And afterwards to wit, on the 28th day of February 1843 the auditor of the Court of Chancery filed in the said cause his report and statements in the words following to wit:

William Plater adm. of John R. Plater, vs. Edward Jones, and others.

In Chancery 27th January 1843.

The auditor reports to the Honorable the Chancellor, that in pursuance to the order passed on the 6th Inst, and the agreement of the parties of the 17th Inst, he has after due notice examined the proceedings in this cause and from them in pursuance of said agreement made two statements of the complainants debt herewith submitted, marked A and B. — In statement A he has credited all the payments stated in Defendants Exhibit F, including the note of John Allen and James E. Sollers, By this statement there appears to be due at the date of this report the sum of two thousand three hundred and fifty five dollars and twenty three cents $2355.23. — Statement B differs from statement A in that the defendants are not credited with the said note of Allen and Sollers — By this statement there appears to be due the sum of two thousand five hundred and sixty eight dollars and seventy two cents $2568.72. — Statement A is intended to meet the views of the defendants and statement B those of the complainants — But it is submitted that no proof of the payment of the bond of Allen and Sollers has been produced, and that therefore statement A is correct. —

All which is respectfully submitted,

Auditors fees $14. — Cornelius McLean, aud.

— Statement A. —
