EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, MD.

Saturday Morning, May 9.

☞Mr. V. B. PALMER is our authorized agent to receive subscriptions and advertisements for the "Easton Gazette," in the cities of Baltimore, Philadelphia & N. York

Capt. Turner of the Steamer Osiris will please accept our thanks for late Baltimore papers.

CATTLE SHOW—We have been requested to state for the information of those who may desire to compete for the premiums to be offered for crops—that the committee of arrangement have determined to include the following articles in the list of premiums which will be published in a short time.

The best 5 contiguous acres of wheat.
The best single acre of wheat.
The best 5 contiguous acres of corn.
The best single acre of corn.
The best ¼ of an acre of Irish potatoes,
The second best do do
The best ¼ acre of Turnips of any variety.
The 2nd best do do
The best ¼ acre of Beets of any variety.
The 2nd best do do

An average sample of each crop must be exhibited with an account of the mode of cultivation and satisfactory evidence must be produced that the ground and the crop have been accurately measured and the sample fairly selected in the presence of not less than two competent and disinterested witnesses.

We understand that, for the purpose of distributing the Premiums as generally as possible, the Agricultural Societies have determined that no member of either society shall receive more than one premium during the show—and that if any other should be awarded to them, they shall be given to the owner of the next best article of the same kind.

Death of the Acting Governor of Delaware. We learn by a slip from the Wilmington Journal, that Dr. Maull, who, as President of the State Senate of Delaware, succeeded the late Major Stockton, as Governor, died on Sunday, from gout in the stomach. According to the constitution, William Témple, Esq., of Smyrna, is now the acting Governor. This makes the third Governor Delaware has had within the last three months.

ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS.—A proposition was made in the House of Representatives on Thursday, for the adjournment of Congress, sine die, on the 13th day of July. But on a division being had, the motion to suspend was decided in the negative, two thirds not voting in the affirmative. Yeas 101, nays 62.

EX-GOVERNOR THOMAS' TRIAL.—The trial of Ex-Governor Thomas, for publishing a libel against the character of Senator Benton, has been postponed, for the purpose of taking the testimony of Mrs. Linn, until the second Monday in November next.

SIGNED.—The President on Tuesday sent a message to the House of Representatives informing that body that he had approved and signed the Joint Resolution authorising the giving of notice to Great Britain for a cessation of the joint occupancy of the Oregon Territory.

The President of the United States has recognized T. PARKIN SCOTT, Esq., as Vice Consul of his holiness the Pope, for the State of Maryland, to reside in Baltimore.

VIRGINIA ELECTION.—All the returns are now in, except from one county—Prince Edward. The Democrats have a majority of 8 in the Senate, and 12 or 14 in the House.

Troops for Texas.—The ship India, Capt. Burnet, which arrived at New Orleans on the 27th ult. from New York, brought out as passengers—Lieut. D. H. McPhail, 5th Infantry, commanding; Lieut. N. B. Rossell of the 5th infantry, Lieut. S. Hamilton, of the 13th do.; and 180 U. S. soldiers, destined to the army of occupation in Texas.—Balt. Sun.

The National Fair at Washington.—The members of the American Institute of N. Y. intend to exhibit at the Fair, to be held, in Washington on the 20th of this month, all the fancy articles that have been manufactured in the city of New York, in every branch of industry, within the last three or four years, and for that purpose they are now, by their agents, going around to the different manufacturers and artizans urging them to send to the Institute such manufactures and works of art as they have on hand. They also propose to charter the steamboat Mohegan to take them to Washington, and to give their owners a free passage going and returning.

National Fair.—The building in which the fair is to be held has been completed, and its vast proportions can hardly be realised except upon personal inspection.—Considerable progress has been made in the erection of tables upon which to display many of the articles sent for exhibition. The District, and Alexandria especially, will doubtless be represented at the fair. The banners of our mechanics should certainly be displayed, in the way of cabinet, tin and stone ware, books, shoes hats chairs, carriages, &c., with which, and other items, we could possibly furnish the entire building, vast as it is.—Sun.

The trial of Fransis Thomas, late Governor of Maryland, for a libel on Col. Benton, is now before the Circuit Court of Washington city. The proceedings of Friday and Saturday were founded upon a motion made by Gen. Jones to the Court to issue a commission to take the testimony of an important witness, Mrs. Linn, of Missouri, who it is alleged, is prevented by indisposition from attending personally.—The motion, which also embraces the postponement of the trial until the next term, was ably and earnestly supported by Messrs. Jones and Maulsby for the defence, and ably and eloquently resisted by the Hon. Waddy Thompson, the Hon. Mr. Crittenden, and Mr. Fendall on the part of the United States. The argument was not concluded when the Court adjourned on Saturday. The National Intelligencer says:

We noticed in the Court room on Friday morning the Hon. Senator Benton, his lady and two daughters; ex-Governor McDowell, his lady and daughter, (the late wife of the defendant,) another lady, Judge Legrand, of Baltimore, and several other distinguished strangers.

During the progress of the argument last Saturday, and while Mr. Fendall was addressing the Court, a strange but amusing incident occurred. In the crowded state of the court-room, and in the midst of the absorbing argument, a plain-dressed and simple-looking man had gone behind the Judges' seats, and, finding one of the chairs vacant, placed himself in it, bending himself forward, and apparently very much at his ease, listening with a vacant stare to the argument. As soon as the man was noticed by the Hon. Chief Justice Cranch, a placid smile was seen to overcome the gravity of the venerable Judge. The bar tittered, the audience laughed, and the simple stranger, before even the deputy marshal could get near enough to ejest the intruder from Judge Dunlop's chair—finding himself most unexpectedly "the observed of all observers"—suddenly bounced out of it, and made a most sudden and amusing exit. The simple intruder, as we are told, refused to give his name to the Deputy Marshal; but said, "he wondered what all this darned fuss was about, for the like of that was quite common for folks to do at the monthly courts in Virginia."

Inauguration of Mr. Everett.—This academic ceremony was performed on Thursday, at Cambridge University, in the presence of a great multitude, both citizens and strangers. After prayer by Dr. Walker, the Governor of Massachusetts addressed Mr. Everett, presenting to him the symbolical keys and ancient charter seal of the institution. The president elect replied, & then an oration in Latin was pronounced by Mr. Lane, a member of the senior class. Mr. Everett then delivered his inaugural address, which is to be published, & therefore is not reported in the Boston papers. The entrance of Mr. Webster, just as Mr. Everett commenced, gave the latter an opportunity of throwing in a neat allusion which was received with hearty cheers. The ceremony closed with prayer, singing and the benediction.

After this a procession was formed and marched to the dining hall, where an hour or more was passed in mingled physical and intellectual enjoyment. The toasts and speeches were accompanied by libations of water and lemonade only—the former of course from the Pierian spring, and the latter flavored with Attic salt. The principal speakers were President Everett, ex-President Quincy, Mr. Webster and Mr. Winthrop, In the evening there was a gathering in the house of the new president, and the College buildings were illuminated.

Important from the Texas Army.—The New Orleans Delta has the following additional item of news from Gen. Taylor's Camp—"We learn that Gen. Taylor has made an imperative demand on the Mexican Commandant at Matamoras, for the liberation of Capt. Cross, who, it is believed, is confined at that place. An answer had not been returned at the latest date from the army. Lieut. Deas was at liberty on parole.

Canales, with a roving band of rancheros, annoy the army, by their predatory expeditions. He is evidently acting under Arista's advice."

An Ecclesiastical Court is now being held in St. John's church, in Geogetown. It was convened to try the truth of certain representations said to have been made by the Rev. Mr. Shiras and the Rev. Mr. Gassaway, touching the sanity, &c., of the Rev. J. C. Jones. Mr. Jones and his wife charged Messrs. Shiras and Gassaway with having libelled them—the latter have, I understand, pleaded the truth of their statements. Richard S. Cox, Esq., appears as counsel for Messrs. Gassaway and Shiras, and I have been informed that a Mr.—Brown, of Baltimore attends as prosecutor. —Correspondent of the Sun.

The national debt of France amounts to 8,000,000,000 francs, or about £333,000,000 sterling.

Mr. SETH W. FOWLE—Sir: I understand the general agency for the sale of Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry has been tranferred to you. I have been the agent for selling it in this town for a number of years, during which time I have sold a large quantity. Many persons seriously sick in this vicinity, have used this medicine and been cured with it when all other medicines failed. One lady in particular, in this town, was sick fifteen years, when entirely cured with this article, as she herself testifies. I think it myself one of the best medicines in the world for the cure of the diseases for which it is recommended, viz: consumption, asthma, and liver complaint. If you please you may send me half a gross the earliest opportunity; no doubt I shall find a ready sale for it.

Yours &c. D. W. WELLS.

Such is the unprecedented success of this valuable and popular medicine, we are constantly receiving similar letters from different parts of the country. We publish this one because the article has been thoroughly proved in Maryland, and not found wanting.

The genuine and original Wisters Balsam of Wild Cherry—Signed I. Butts on the wrapper, is for sale by

E. M. DAWSON & BRO'R.

SELLERS' CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, for the cure of the Liver Complaint.

The proprietor of the above medicine, aware of the many instances in which the afflicted have been imposed upon by quack remedies, proclaimed to be remedies for every disease yet hopes that the Liver Pill will not be placed in that class until they are fairly tested.

It is expressly stated "that persons who use these Pills, and find, after following the given directions, that they have not been benefited, shall have their money returned."

This is done that the public may see it is not the purpose of the proprietor to speculate upon their credulity but to give at least an equivalent for their money.

In addition to the qualities already mentioned, they are highly recommended as Antibilious and Purgative Pills Sold by,

E. M. DAWSON & BRO'R.
