who have fallen in the fight now lay inhumed in Mexican soil and the pulse of every true American beats high to avenge their fall.

Let it be the maxim of every genuine son of freedom to rally to the rescue while yet his country can be saved—hereafter the time will come to consider the important councils that have involved the nation in war, and the political calculations, if any, that would risk such a calamity for the sake of party triumph.

THE NEW STAMP ACT.

By a recent act of the Legislature, all Deeds, Mortgages, and Releases of Mortgages, (and also Bills of Sale for more than $200,00) executed after the first day of May, 1846, are charged with a stamp duty of one dollar. It will be assentially necessary that the Clerks of Courts should record the "Stamps" upon the record or the record, would contain no evidence of a compliance with the law, a conformity to which is made essential to the validity of the instrument.—Kent News.

Melancholy Affair the Maryland Hospital.—Yesterday morning, about seven o'clock, as one of the keepers of the Maryland hospital was in the act of entering the room of a colored patient, named Michael McHurd, situated in the basement of the building, for the purpose of changing the dress of the man, the latter rushed out past him, apparantly with a view of making his escape. Becoming instantly aware that the patient was laboring under a fit of madness to which he was subject at times, although between the paroxysms he was generally very quiet, the keeper called for assistance, and was in a few moments reinforced by another. Seizing an article in the chamber, Michael struck the latter in the face, cutting him severely, and also severely injuring one of his arms. Wrenching a piece from a bedstead in his room, he rushed past the keepers and succeeded in getting up into the second floor, where, he chanced to pass by one of the inmates, named J. W. Higgins, of Talbot county, who has been for some time in the institution, and who was, at the moment, leaning over a half door, looking into the yard. In passing, Michael struck Higgins with the stick on the back of the head with such a force as to knock him down into the yard, from which blow & fall he was so severely injured that he died immediately. A short distance farther along the passage, he met another inmate, who was engaged in sweeping the passage, named Samuel Law, whom he struck over the head, inflicting so severe an injury upon him that he died in a short time after. He then passed into the yard, where he was surrounded by the keepers, and finally captured by being caught in the breast upon a hay fork which one of the assistants caught up as the black rushed upon him with the club. The fork wounded him but slightly, but held him by the clothes until he was properly secured. The men who were killed received instant attention from the resident physician of the Institution, but, as we have stated, one died almost instantly, and the other a short time after. The black man was, of course, securely confined.—Balt. Sun of Yesterday.

Can consumption be cured? Scores of impudent impostors are advertising their worthless nostrums as a certain cure for Consumption even in its confirmed and advanced state. Believe them not. It is absolutely false. They tell their lying tale to deceive the wasting invalid, and rob him of his money. Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry will cure the dieases that lead to Consumption, and thus prevent it. It will also cure Consumption in its mild and incipient stages—before it has got a fast & fatal hold. Doct. Skillman, of Boundbrook, N. Jersey, says that it is the best preventive of that disease he has ever found in his long experience. He also uses it after a cure is hopeless, and avers that it alleviates the suffering and renders the patient more comfortable than any medicine ever known. This Balsam has effectually cured many who supposed they were in the last stages of this frightful disease. Let not the despairing and emaciated consumptive entirely despond till he has given it a trial. He may yet recover. Let him not fatally mistake the stage of his disease. Try in time. Be sure to get the genuine Wistar's Balsam. Imitations abound. Soldby,

DIED?

In this town on Tuesday last ELI H. FURNISS, after a short but severe illness.—The deceased was universally respected by all who knew him, and possessed such social and amiable qualities that will long cause him to be remembered by a numerous circle of friends. He leaves a wife and several children to lament their irreparable loss. The order of Odd Fellows paid to his remains the last solemn rites to which he was entitled as a member of that institution. Peace to his ashes.

MARYLAND

Talbot County Orphans' Court,

April Term, A. D 1846.

On application of Thomas Pierson, Ext'r. of Thomas Dulin, late of Talbot county Dec'd

It is ordered, that he give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased's estate and that he cause the same to be published once in each week for the space of three successive weeks in one of the newspapers printed in the town of Easton.

In testimony that the foregoing is truly copied from the minutes of proceedings of Talbot county Orphans' Court, I have hereunto set my hand, and the seal of my office affixed, this 24th day of April, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and forty six.

Test, J. H. HARRIS, Register of Wills for Talbot county

In compliance to the above Order,

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

That the Subscriber of Talbot County hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of Talbot county, in Maryland, letters testamentary on the personal estate of Thomas Dulin, late of Talbot county, deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased's estate are hereby warned to exhibit the same with the proper vouchers thereof to the subscriber, on or before the 24th day of November, 1846 or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate.

Given under my hand this 15th day of May 1846.
