M'Coull and others vs. M'Coull. } Baltimore County Court, Equity side. September Term 1839. Let Injunction issue according to the prayer of the Bill on the Complainants or some one of them filing a Bond in the penalty of one thousand dollars with security to be approved by one of the Judges of the Court conditioned in the usual way. Let a rule also be laid on the defendant to show cause on or before the 11th day of September instant, why a receiver of rents should not be appointed according to the prayer of the Bill provided a copy of the rule so to be laid be served on the defendant on or before the 7th instant. John Purviance, Sep. 4th 1839.

On this 6th day of September 1839 before the subscriber a Justice of the peace for the City of Baltimore personally appears before me Augustus T. Crawford and makes oath that he this day served a copy of the within order upon George C. M'Coull.

M Bush.

Know all men by these presents that we Elijah Hughes and John Glenn are held and firmly bound unto George C. M'Coull in the full and just sum of one thousand dollars to the payment whereof well and truly to be made & done we bind ourselves our heirs jointly and severally firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals and dated this 6th day of September 1839.

Whereas the Judges of Baltimore County Court on the fourth of September instant ordered that an Injunction should issue in the case of M'Coull and others against M'Coull according to the prayer of the bill on the complainants or some one of them entering into bond in the penalty of one thousand dollars with security to be approved by one of the Judges of the Court conditioned in the usual way. Now the condition of this obligation is such that if the above bound Elijah Hughes and the other complainants in the bill above referred to their heirs executors or administrators do and shall prosecute the said writ of Injunction with effect and satisfy and pay all costs and charges that shall or may accrue in the County Court aforesaid as a Court of Equity in case the said Injunction shall be dissolved, and do and shall obey and perform such order or decree as said Court shall pass in the premises, and do shall well and sufficiently indemnify and save harmless the said George C. M'Coull and his representatives from and against all loss injury or damage that may arise to, or be sustained by him or them by occasion of the issuing of said Injunction then the aforegoing obligation to be void else to be and remain in full force and virtue in Law.
