State of Maryland City of Baltimore to wit,

Be it remembered that on this 22d day of May 1843 before me the subscriber a Justice of the peace of the said State in and for said City personally appeared William Morris surviving partner of the late firm of Fridge and Morris and made oath that the foregoing account is just and true as it stands stated to the best of his knowledge information and belief and that neither he nor his said partner to the best of his knowledge information & belief has received any part or parcel of the same or any security or satisfaction therefor, other than is credited thereon in said account. And be it further remembered that the same William Morris at the time aforesaid made oath that the proof of the charges in the foregoing account is contained in the contract of sale of certain property on the corner of Douglass and Forrest streets in the City of Baltimore $1888.51 made by him and his late partner Fridge on the 31st January 1831 to George C. M'Coull and filed in the High Court of Chancery in the case of Robert M'Coull and others vs George C. M'Coull and this deponent and in the receipts and certificate herewith filed of the Baltimore Equitable Society the latter being filed in order to explain the former which do not (as is usually the case) explain upon their face on what property the contribution is levied and in relation to the 4 first items of contribution to supply the absence of the original receipts, which this deponent cannot lay his hands on they having been given to the deponents partner in his lifetime and this deponent if he has them not knowing where to look for them. Sworn before. J. Hanson Bell, Justice of the Peace.
