The said Orlando G. White, being first examined, to the first interrogatory propounded to him answers" about seventy five or seventy six."
To the second Interrogatory, the paper marked A. being shewn to him the witness answers "Yes sir, that's my signature and I signed it in the presence of Agnes Gaither I could not say positively that she did request me verbally, but it was reasonable as I was sent for for that purpose."
3d To the third interrogatory the witness answers "Yes sir they were, all present at the time, and to the best of my knowledge, I did see them sign their names."
4th To the fourth interrogatory the witness answers "I dont recollect that I did hear Mrs Gaither say verbally that it was her last will and testament I dont recollect having heard her. I wont swear that she did or not I have known Mrs Gaither for twenty eight years and thought her a sensible smart woman, and at that time she was to the best of my judgment, as capable of making a will or any thing else as ever she was."
6th To the sixth interrogatory the witness answers "I am at times a little hard of hearing, but ordinarily I hear as well as most persons and can hear what passes in a room in ordinary conversation, when I have a cold, I cant hear as well as at other times."
+1st The witness being cross examined on the part of the defendants to the first cross interrogatory answers" she had been complaining for some time and I believe it was the dead palsy on one side that she was affected with, as I had heard, she had been complaining for some time and Dr Warfield was attending her, she was sitting up on her chair at the time and seemed to be as well as ever and cheerful and did not appear to be in misery and seemed to have a good countenance, I did not feel her pulse."
+2d To the second cross interrogatory the witness answers" No sir, I never did except as to an old negro woman that she did not wish to be put to any hardship or to serve any body else, they called her Lettice."
+3d To the third cross interrogatory the witness answers "To the best of my recollection he was not."
+4th To the fourth cross interrogatory the witness answers" All that I recollect is that he said that it was Mrs Gaithers will, He did not particularize any one in particular, but I suppose it was meant for us who were there to witness it, in order that we might understand what we were doing. He did not state the contents. He said nothing about her situation, only that, when he was going away, he told her it would not be necessary to give her any more medicine, that in her situation she would require none."
+5th To the fifth cross interrogatory the witness answers "I cant tell particularly who sent for me, some person came from there, I do not know whether it was her servant, but think it was with a message for me to come, There was not any thing said to me for two hours I had been there, until Richard came and then I was informed it was Mrs Gaither's will."
+6th To the sixth cross interrogatory the witness answers" The will was lying on the table and Mrs Gaither was sitting by and Dr Warfield presented it as her will for them to witness."

+7th To the seventh cross interrogatory the witness answers" That I cant recollect, To the best of my recollection it lay on the table a while before it was presented to us, It was written before I came there."
+8th To the eighth cross interrogatory the witness answers" That I dont recollect, It was on the table and Dr Warfield took it up and told us it was Mrs Gaither's will."
+9th To the ninth cross interrogatory the witness answers" I cant particularize, I did not take particular notice, To the best of my recollection it was on the table when I got there, and it was several hours before we witnessed it, I did not look at a watch and cant tell exactly."
+10th To the tenth interrogatory the witness answers" He did not say either to the best of my recollection."
+11th To the eleventh cross interrogatory the witness answers" I dont suppose that I heard every thing that was said in the room, neither have I heard every thing that has been said in the room here, but I heard every thing that was said relating to the business."
Jefferson Griffith being next examined as a witness on the part of the plaintiff to the first interrogatory propounded to him answers.
1st "I am nearly forty two years of age."
2d To the second interrogatory, the paper marked A. being shewn to him the witness answers" Yes sir, I signed it in her presence and at her request."
3d To the third interrogatory the witness answers" Yes sir, and I saw them sign it and I understood it was at her request."
4th To the fourth interrogatory the witness answers" Yes sir, and I thought her as much so as I have ever known her, I have known her something like fifteen or sixteen years."
5th To the fifth interrogatory the witness answers" yes sir, I did."
7th To the seventh interrogatory the witness answers" I think it was somewhere about eighteen hundred and thirty eight."
+1st The witness being then cross examined on the part of the defendants To the first cross interrogatory answers" As well as my memory serves Doctor Warfield took up the paper and asked Mrs Gaither if she acknowledged it to be her last will and testament and she said she did, He then asked her if she wished me and Mr White and Mr Richard to sign it and she said she did."
+2d To the second cross interrogatory the witness answers" yes sir, I heard her say more than once that she wished her servants to be free but she was told that she could not set them free, and that if she could not set them free, she wished them to serve no one but Miss Rachel Gaither."
+3rd To the third cross interrogatory the witness answers" I do not recollect that she did but that she had been told that the law of Maryland prohibited her from setting them free."
+4th To the fourth cross interrogatory the witness answers" I thought, sir, from the way she talked that she would prefer it, if they could be free."
The witness being then further examined on the part of the plaintiff to the additional interrogatory in chief answers" It was after."
The witness being then further cross examined on the part of the defendants to the additional cross interrogatory answers "one side of her was
