POETRY.

For the Easton Gazette.

TO AMELIA.

"Amelia," in my boyhood's day.
The age of dreams and warm desire,
When hopes were blight and hearts were gay,
My fingers swept the shrinking wire;
But when the joys so fondly cherished,
Beneath the cross of Jesus perished!
To grasp the trump, I dropped the lyre

Yet since my eyes have looked on you,
Sweet daughter of the flowing song,
The tuneful fervor flames anew,
Extinguished in my heart so long;
And fancies that in boyhood flourished,
And feelings that in tears were nourished,
Like seraph forms around me throng.

The genius on that brow impressed,
And gleaming in those angel eyes,
And burning in that angel breast,
Like magic on my spirit lies;
Bland as the balmy breath of even,
Bright as the golden gems of heaven,
And pure as the cerulean skies.

Like flute-tones at the eventide,
Thy verse, "Amelia" floats along;
Like streamlets down the mountain side,
Leaps the live sweetness of thy song;
Like morning voices in the trees;
Like midnight anthems on the breeze,
As free, as clear, as wild, as strong.

I met thee and my heart was glad,
And owned the sweet poetic spell;
I left thee and my heart was sad,
To hear the dirgelike word—"Farewell!"
How pure, how fervent, was that gladness—
How deep, how mournful, was that sadness—
It wants a tongue like thine to tell.

Adieu! and if congenial minds,
Are one, though parting words are spoken—
Adieu! and if the chain that binds
Congenial hearts connot be broken—
In hope of that celestial meeting,
When happier far shall be our greeting,
Receive this unpretending token!

SONG.

Fragrant flowers, fresh and bland,
Sighing on each lonely stem,
Here await thy skilful hand!
Wilt thou wreathe love's diadem?
Come, love, the morning sun gleams through the bower,
Come, love, while dewy tears gem every flower:

Tenderest language softly wreathe,
Tenderest thoughts unspoken;
Words, which purest love should breathe
Garland in love's token;
Come, while while the matin song trills in the bowers,
Lovely one, I'll pluck for thee morning's sweetest flowers.

Flowers are more eloquent!
To lovers hearts, than softest speech,
Flowers, were by Heaven sent
Heaven's language here to teach:
Come, then, I'll cull for thee the sweetest flowers that ope:
Will thou return to me one bud to whisper Hope?

WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY,

THE great remedy for Consumption, & the best medecine known to Man for Asthma of every stage, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Influenza, Coughs, Colds, Bleeding of the Lungs, Shortness of Breath, pains and weakness in the side, breast, &c. and all other diseases of the PULMONARY ORGANS.

A very important disease over which this "Balsam" exerts a very powerful influence, is that of a DISEASED LIVER. In this complaint it has undoubtedly proved more efficacious than any remedy hitherto employed, and in numerous instances when patients had endured long and severe suffering from the disease, without receiving the least benefit from various remedies, and when Mercury has been resorted to in vain, the use of this Balsam has restored the Liver to a healthy action, and in many instances effected PERMANENT CURES, after every known remedy had failed to produce this desired effect.

Besides its astonishing efficacy in the diseases above mentioned, we also find it a very effectual remedy in ASTHMA, a complaint in which it has been extensively used with decided success, even in cases of years standing.

It not only emanates from a regular Physician, but has also been well tested in all the complaints for which it is recommended. It is not my intention, therefore, either to cloak it in mistery, or in any way deceive the public by overrating its virtues, on the contrary, I shall simply endeavour to give a brief statement of its usefulness, and flatter myself that its surprising efficacy will enable me to furnish such proofs of its virtues as will satisfy the most incredulous that Consumption may and "Can be Cured," if this medicine be resorted to in time.

Opinions of a regular Physician.

Exeter, Me. Sept, 30, 1845.

This certifies that I have recommended the use of WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY for diseases of the Lungs, for two years past and many bottles to my knowledge have been used by my patients, all with beneficial results. In two cases where it was thought confirmed consumption had taken place, the Wild Cherry effected a cure. E BOYEN, Physician. at Exeter Corner.

NO QUACKERY! NO DECEPTION!

All published statements of cures performed by this medicine, are, in every respect, TRUE. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS & IMITATIONS.

The unparalleled and astonishing efficacy of Dr. Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry in all the diseases for which it is recommended, curing many cases after the skill of the best physicians was unavailing, has effected a large & increasing demand for it. This fact has caused several unprincipled counterfeiters and imitators to palm off spurious mixtures of similar name and appearance, for the genuine Balsam.

Be careful and get the genuine DR. WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. None genuine unless signed by I BUTTS. Address all orders to SETH W. FOWLE, Boston Mass.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE
Protracted Meeting in Talbot Co.

THE DISCIPLES will hold a protracted meeting at the "OAK" on the ground recently occupied by the Methodist Camp, the use of which has been kindly given them by Major Dawson—to be continued for 4 or 5 days commencing Friday, August 28th, at early candle light. The meeting will be conducted by several distinguished ministers from different parts of the country. Elder Robert F. Ferguson—Elder John Young, of Trenton N. Jersey, and Mr. John D. Ferguson of Kentucky, George Austin, of Baltimore, are all expected to be present and take part in the meeting Two or three discourses will be delivered each day of the meeting by these Gentlemen who are of reputation and high standing as ministers of the Gospel.

The Disciples—few in number in this immediate nighbourhood and consequently without a house of sufficent size for such a meeting, have determined on the erection of a large and comfortable "Board Tent" at the above named place under which the audience will be effectually protected from both sun and rain.

It is expected that many highly interesting and important points in the teachings of the Saviour and his Apostles will be brought before the public in the discussion of which a careful and scrupulous regard will be had for the views of others upon these subjects.

The citizens of Easton, St. Michaels and of Talbot county generally: especially those who feel an interest in the subject of Religion, are most respectfully and affectionately invited to attend. WM. C. SKINNER. GEO. W. MORLIN.

Etrurian Wheat.

A SMALL quantity of the above wheat may be had for seeds, by any one wishing to sow it this fall, by application to Mr. Graham if immediately made.

It is highly recommended to the Farmers of the United States by the Editor of "American Farmer" (in volume 1. No. 12) who has become the agent for the sale of it at $2 per bushel. It is an early white wheat, with a smooth head, very strong vigorous growth, though not fly proof—where the grower of it in this neighborhood had supposed it almost destroyed last fall, it recovered and produced over eight bushels to one. A sample may be seen at the Gazette Office.

Celebrated Improved Ever-pointed GOLD PEN.

WARRENTED.

THIS Pen received the highest premium at the last Fair of the American Institute, and has been pronounced by the first teachers of Penmanship in the country, to be infinitely superior to any Gold Pen ever before introduced to the American public. These Pens are indestructible except by actual violence—no ink will injure them—retain their elasticity, and the peculiar shape of the nibs, (which was first introduced by Bagley) makes it more pleasant to use, renders it less liable to damage, more easy to repair, and prevents the necessity of the great care that other articles of the kind require.

"Having used a bottle of your Worm Destroying Syrup I hereby send you a statement of my cure, which I consider a very remarkable one) in order that any who are afflicted with worms, may be induced to try your invaluable medicine. For the last thirteen years I have been very much afflicted, and thought the cause of my affliction was worms, but I had repeatedly taken the usual medicine prescribed by Physicians, without receiving any benefit therefrom My case gradually grew worse and for the last two years I have suffered so severely that I had no hopes of ever getting better —My mind became affected and my reason a good deal shattered, in consequence of my bodily sufferings, and for three months of the time I dare not suffer myself to go to sleep while lying down, on account of being frequently choked while in that position. A short time since, I tried a bottle of your Worm Destroying Syrup which brought away an astonishing quantity of worms of every sort and size. Of the whole quantity there could not have been less than three quarts. Since that have been intirely relieved, and enjoy good health which I have not done before for thirteen years.
