DEATH.

Pallida Mors æquo pulsat pede
Pauperum tabernas
Reguinque turres.—Hor.

O, death thou hast thy trophies in all time!
The opening bud of promise infantile,
Childhood's gay step, and pleasure-beaming smile
Youth in its promise, manhood in its prime,
Life in its sober autumn day,
And wintry age with tresses gray,
Are victims all to thy relentless sway!

We toil intently for the auspicious day,
Whose dawn shall crown each wish with full success,
The toil of many a weary year shall bless,
And every painful sacrifice repay—
Just as its coming paint's the sky,
The darling object greets the eye
Death grasps the prize—"'tis only ours to die!"

We delve in ancient mines for classic ore,
In metaphysic mazes patient tread,
Con o'er the pages of the unconcious dead,
And hoard with eager care the priceless lore,
Then all to thee we must resign,
For learning's treasures too are thine,
And all her votaries, victims at thy shrine!

We court the goddess Pleasure in her bower,
List to her siren song with charmed ear,
Pursue the phantom Fame, with eager care,
And bend the suppliant knee to pomp and power.
But power and fame decay,
And pleasure fades away,
All yield resistless to thy tyrant sway!

In the mute grave thou hidest all our joy:
Each budding bliss doth wither in thy breath;
O death, thou spoiler! grim relentless death!
There is nothing earth-born thou dost not destroy!
The only flower of amaranthine bloom
Is Heaven-born hope—it blossoms on the tomb,
And cheers of death's lone vale, the dismal gloom!

HAROLD.

HOFER'S HYMN TO THE SWORD.

"What rights the brave?
The sword!
What frees the slave?
The sword!
What cleaves in twain
The despot's chain,
And makes his gyves and dungeons vain?
The sword!

CHORUS.

"Then cease thy proud task never,
While rests a link to sever;
Guard of the free,
We'll cherish thee,
And keep the bright for ever!

"What checks the knave?
The sword!
What smites to save?
The sword!
What wreaks the wrong
Unpunished long,
At last, upon the guilty strong?
The sword!

CHORUS.

"Then cease thy proud task never,
While rests a link to sever;
Guard of the free,
We'll cherish thee,
And keep thee bright for ever!

"What shelters right?
The sword!
What makes it might?
The sword!
What strikes the crown
Of tyrants down,
And answers with its flash their frown?
The sword!

CHORUS.

"Then cease thy proud task never,
While rests a link to sever;
Guard of the free,
We'll cherish thee,
And keep thee bright for ever!

"Still be thou true,
Good sword!
We'll die or do,
Good sword!
Leap forth to light
If tyrants smite,
And trust our arms to wield thee right,
Good sword!

CHORUS.

"Yes, cease thy proud task never,
While rests a link to sever;
Guard of the free,
We'll cherish thee,
And keep thee bright for ever!"

IS the title of a WEEKLY PAPER, issued every Saturday, in the City of Baltimore, at $1,00 per annum.

The Standard is thoroughly Whig and will zealously advocate all necessary reforms in the General, State and City government. It will expose the hypocrisy of those who advocate Conventional Reform in the name of Democracy, which is used as a cloak to hide from the yeomanry of Maryland, the most wild and revolutionary designs, all the Reform desired being nothing more nor less than the offices and emoluments of the State Government.

The Standard is designed to be a permanent Journal, and not a party ephemeral gotten up to feed the excitement of an approaching election and then die off. It will be free and fearless, controlled by neither "clique nor cabal" but open to the opinion of every good Whig in Old Maryland.

The best writers of the day contribute to its pages.

It has now been published seventeen years in London, and has a circulation exceeding 70,000 copies through England, Scotland, Ireland, and the continent of Europe. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF

WILD CHERRY,

THE great remedy for Consumption, & the best medecine known to Man for Asthma of every stage, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Influenza, Coughs, Colds, Bleeding of the Lungs, Shortness of Breath, pains and weakness in the side, breast, &c. and all other diseases of the PULMONARY ORGANS.

A very important disease over which this "Balsam" exerts a very powerful influence, is that of a DISEASED LIVER In this complaint it has undoubtedly proved more efficacious than any remedy hitherto employed, and in numerous instances when patients had endured long and severe suffering from the disease, without receiving the least benefit from various remedies, and when Mercury has been resorted to in vain, the use of this Balsam has restored the Liver to a healthy action, and in many instances effected PERMANENT CURES after every known remedy had failed to produce this desired effect.

Besides its astonishing efficacy in the diseases above mentioned, we also find it a very effectual remedy in ASTHMA, a complaint in which it has been extensively used with decided success, even in cases of years standing.

It not only emanates from a regular Physician, but has also been well tested in all the complaints for which it is recommended. It is not my intention, therefore, either to cloak it in mistery, or in any way deceive the public by overrating its virtues, on the contrary, I shall simply endeavour to give a brief statement of its usefulness, and flatter myself that its surprising efficacy will enable me to furnish such proofs of its virtues as will satisfy the most incredulous, that Consumption may and 'Can be Cured,' if this medicine be resorted to in time.

Opinions of a regular Physician.

Exeter, Me. Sept. 30, 1845.

This certifies that I have recommended the use of WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY for diseases of the Lungs, for two years past and many bottles to my knowledge have been used by my patients, all with beneficial results. In two cases where it was thought confirmed consumption had taken place, the Wild Cherry effected a cure. E BOYEN, Physician, at Exeter Corner.

NO QUACKERY! NO DECEPTION!

All published statements of cures performed by this medicine, are, in every respect, TRUE.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS & IMITATIONS.

The unparalleled and astonishing efficacy of Dr. Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry in all the diseases for which it is recommended, curing many cases after the skill of the best physicians was unavailing, has effected a large & increasing demand for it. This fact has caused several unprincipled counterfeiters and imitators to palm off sparious mixtures of similar name and appearance, for the genuine Balsam.

Be careful and get the genuine DR. WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. None genuine unless signed by I. BUTTS. Address all orders to SETH W. FOWLE, Boston Mass.

Hemsley's Worm Destroying

SYRUP is performing wonders in the East read the following letter from a respectable old Lady, who resides in Connecticut. "Having used a bottle of your Worm Destroying Syrup I hereby send you a statement of my cure (which I consider a very remarkable one) in order that any who are afflicted with worms, may be induced to try your invaluable medicine. For the last thirteen years I have been very much afflicted, and thought the cause of my affliction was worms, but I had repeatedly taken the usual medicine prescribed by Physicians without receiving any benefit therefrom. My case gradually grew worse and for the last two years I have suffered so severely that I had no hopes of ever getting better—My mind became affected and my reason a good deal shattered, in consequence of my bodily sufferings, and for three months of the time I dare not suffer myself to go to sleep while lying down, on account of being frequently choked while in that position. A short time since, I tried a bottle of your Worm Destroying Syrup which brought away an astonishing quantity of worms of every sort and size. Of the whole quantity there could not have been less than three quarts. Since that I have been entirely relieved, and enjoy good health which I have not done before for thirteen years.

A. G. HAGLEY'S Celebrated Improved Ever-pointed GOLD PEN.

WARRENTED.

THIS Pen received the highest premium at the last Fair of the American Institute, and has been pronounced by the first teachers of Penmanship in the country, to be infinitely superior to any Gold Pen ever before introduced to the American public. These Pens are indestructible except by actual violence—no ink will injure them—retain their elasticity, and the peculiar shape of the nibs, (which was first introduced by Bagley) makes it more pleasant to use, renders it less liable to damage, more easy to repair, and prevents the necessity of the great care that other articles of the kind require.

A SMALL quantity of the above wheat may be had for seeds, by any one wishing to sow it this fall, by application to Mr. Graham if immediately made.

It is highly recommended to the Farmers of the United States by the Editor of "American Farmer" (in volume 1. No. 12) who has become the agent for the sale of it at $2 per bushel. It is an early white wheat, with a smooth head, very strong vigorous growth, though not fly proof—where the grower of it in this neighborhood had supposed it almost destroyed last fall it recovered and produced over eight bushels to one.
