POETRY.

For the Easton Gazette.

STANZAS.

The earliest bird that sweetly sings
It song of praise when night-shades flee,
As in mine ear its warbling rings,
Seems but to sing, dear girl! of thee.

As climbs the sun his noonday height,
And wakes new life in flow'rand tree,
I bless—I love the glorious light,—
Because it shines, dear girl! on thee.

"When eve is purpling cliff and cave,"
Its golden clouds are dear to me;
For while they gild the western wave,
Then dwell my thoughts, dear girl! on thee.

When kindly in the lap of night
Soft sleep enfolds all things that be,
And stars look down with holy light,
I wake—to think, dear girl! of thee.

When sleep seals up my weary eye,
In dreams thy angel-form I see,—
In dreams I heave a wishful sigh,
Or, raptured, call, dear girl! on thee.

Whate'er my fate, where'er I roam,
One bliss alone can visit me:
No spot I e'er can call my own,
Unless 'tis shared, dear girl! with thee.

EPIGRAMS.

Of tenderest wish that emblem flower
Which blest, dear maid! thy dreaming view,
As wandering in that shady bower,
From buds of thought we brushed the dew,—
Expresses both our hopes and fears—
Sad fears—that we too soon may part,
Fond hopes—that pierce the mist of years,
And there unite us hand and heart.

J. L.

As "coming events cast their shadows before,"
Your dream, dearest lady! proved true:
The flower in your vision was double:
—nay more—
One bud was your lover—the other was you:
Then let not the shadow the substance forsake,
Nor so lovely an emblem reject!
What I strived in your dream let me share
when you wake,
Nor the bud then united dissect.

Trappe, Md. H. W. C.

I MISS THEE, SISTER.

BY H. M. G., JR.

I miss thee, Sister, when the Spring
Brings forth the song-birds free;
Together we have heard them sing,
On our own household tree.

I miss thee, when the summer flowers
Are bright by wood and shore;
The tree and bower that once were ours.
Are ours, alas! no more!

I miss thee, when the autumn fades
Along the sunset hills;
O! we have loved its solemn shades,
Its dimly gleaming rills.

I miss thee, when the winter showers
Beat on the lattice pane;
As we have passed those merry hours,
We ne'er shall pass again.

We are parted now, a lengthened way
Our weary feet are treading,
While shadows of life's falling day
Along our paths are spreading.

We meet no more, when the rosy light
Of evening fades away;
O! we have loved, in the calm twilight,
'Midst falling dews to stray.

We meet no more, at the hour of prayer,
Around our own bright hearth;
That household band is scattered far,
To unite no more on earth.

Farewell, dear Sister; we have loved,
In other days full well;
We still may love, though far removed—
Sweet Sister! fare thee well!

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF

WILD CHERRY,

THE great remedy for Consumption, & the best medecine known to Man for Asthma of every stage, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis Influenza, Coughs, Colds, Bleeding of the Lungs, Shortness of Breath, pains and weakness in the side, breast, &c a d all other diseases of the PULMONARY ORGANS.

A very important disease over which this "Balsam" exerts a very powerful influence, is that of a DISEASED LIVER In this complaint it has undoubtedly proved more efficacious than any remedy hitherto employed, and in numerous instances when patients had endured long and severe suffering from the disease without receiving the least benefit from various remedies, and when Mercury has been resorted to in vain, the use of this Balsam has restored the Liver to a healthy action, and in many instances effected PERMANENT CURES after every known remedy had failed to produce this desired effect.

Besides its astonishing efficacy in the diseases above mentioned, we also find it a very effectual remedy in ASTHMA, a complaint in which it has been extensively used with decided success, even in cases of years standing.

It not only emanates from a regular Physician, but has also been well tested in all the complaints for which it is recommended. It is not my intention, therefore, either to cloak it in mistery, or in any way deceive the public by overrating its virtues; on the contrary, I shall simply endeavour to give a brief statement of its usefulness, and flatter myself that its surprising efficacy will enable me to furnish such proofs of its virtues as will satisfy the most incredulous, that Consumption may and 'Can be Cured,' if this medicine be resorted to in time.

Opinions of a regular Physician.

Exeter, Me. Sept. 30, 1845.

This certifies that I have recommended the use of WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY for diseases of the Lungs, for two years past and many bottles to my knowledge have been used by my patients, all with beneficial results In two cases where it was thought confirmed consumption had taken place, the Wild Cherry effected a cure. E BOYEN, Physician.
at Exeter Corner.

NO QUACKERY! NO DECEPTION!

All published statements of cures performed by this medicine, are, in every respect, TRUE BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS & IMITATIONS.

The unparalleled and astonishing efficacy of Dr. Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry in all the diseases for which it is recommended, during many cases after the skill of the best physicians was unavailing, has effected a large & increasing demand for it. This fact has caused several unprincipled counterfeiters and imitators to palm off spurious mixtures of similar name and appearance, for the genuine Balsam.

Be careful and get the genuine DR. WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. None genuine unless signed by I BUTTS. Address all orders to SETH W FOWLE, Boston Mass.

"The Whig Standard,"

IS the title of a WEEKLY PAPER, issued every Saturday, in the City of Baltimore, at $1,99 per annum.

The Standard is thoroughly Whig and will zealously advocate all necessary reforms in the General, State and City government. It will expose the hypocrisy of those who advocate Conventional Reform in the name of Democracy, which is used as a cloak to hide from the yeomanry of Maryland, the most wild and revolutionary designs, all the Reform desired being nothing more nor less than the offices and emoluments of the State Government.

The Standard is designed to be a permanent Journal, and not a party ephemeral gotten up to feed the excitement of an approaching election and then die off. It will be free and fearless, controlled by neither "clique nor cabal" but open to the opinion of every good Whig in Old Maryland.

EASTON. FEMALE SEMINARY.

THE exercises of this School, formerly under the management of Mr. THOS. PIERSON, have been resumed during the past week under the care and control of Mr. WILLIAM MERRILL, formerly of the State of Massachusetts.

The board of Trustees of this institution have engaged the services of Mr Merril after mature consideration and upon the most full examination of his credentials as to competency and character. Mr. M. has been engaged for ten years past as a teacher both in male and female seminaries in our country; and from those by whom he has been employed he brings ample testimonials. The board of Trustees also feel warranted in saying, that from their personal inspection and observation during the past week, of his management of the School, he will give general satisfaction. Mr. Merrill proposes for the present to give instruction in the following branches, to wit:

The common branches of a thorough English education,
The natural sciences—moral and mental Philosophy,
Rhetoric and the higher branches of Mathematics,
The Latin, Greek & French languages.

The annual vacation of the Seminary will commence on the 31st July of each year, and the exercises of the School be resumed on the 1st of October following. Those pupils desiring instruction in Music can receive lessons for the present from Mrs. Rachael Hands, a lady most favorably known in this community; and as soon as the patronage of the school will warrant it, a female assistant will be procured to instruct the pupils in Music, Painting, Drawing and other ornamental branches of female education.

TERMS.

Orthography, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic and elements of Geography per quarter, $4 00
English Grammar, Geography, ancient and modern, with the use of maps and globes and history, per quarter, $5 00 for Town and Country.

Devoted to Belles-Letters, Music, Fine Arts, Fashions, &c.

The well-known celebrity in Europe and this Country, of Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, has induced the subscriber to commence the re publication of this fashionable Lond.n Monthly.

It is a matter of surprise that the Republication of this Work was not commenced some years since. On looking over some of the late numbers, we find them filled with Stories and Poetry, and Narratives, the most of which fall but little behind those published in the Edinburgh Work, and many surpass even the emanations from the Giant intellects of the contributors to the great Northern Magazine. The best writers of the day contribute to its pages.

It has now been published seventeen years in London, and has a circulation exceeding 70,000 copies through England, Scotland, Ireland, and the continent of Europe. It is translated into several of the continental languages —it being the only instance of an English Magazine receiving that compliment.

The publication will commence in October next, and will be continued monthly.

The publication price of the above work, in London, is six dollars.

The London World of Fashion,
And Continental Feuilletons.

A Monthly Publication of the Courts of London and Paris.—Dedicated to High Life, Fashionables, Fashions, Polite Literature, Fine Arts, the Operas, Theatres, &c. Edited by several Literary & Fashionable Characters

In the above two works will be found, all the Gossip of London, Paris, and the principal Cities of the continent of Europe. Celebrated Improved Ever-pointed

GOLD PEN.

WARRENTED.

THIS Pen received the highest premium at the last Fair of the American Institute, and has been pronounced by the first teachers of Penmanship in the country, to be infinitely superior to any Gold Pen ever before introduced to the American public. These Pens are indistructible except by actual violence—no ink will injure them—retain their elasticity, and the peculiar shape of the nibs, (which was first introduced by Bagley) makes it more pleasant to use, renders it less liable to damage, more easy to repair, and prevents the necessity of the great care that other articles of the kind require.

Hemsley's Worm Destroying

SYRUP is performing wonders in the East read the following letter from a respectable old Lady, who resides in Connecticut. "Having used a bottle of your Worm Destroying Syrup I hereby send you a statement of my cure, (which I consider a very remarkable one) in order that any who are afflicted with worms, may be induced to try your invaluable medicine. For the last thirteen years I have been very much afflicted, and thought the cause of my affliction was worms, but I had repeatedly taken the usual medicine prescribed by Physicians, without receiving any benefit therefrom. My case gradually grew worse and for the last two years I have suffered so severely that I had no hopes of ever getting better—My mind became affected and my person a good deal shattered, in consequence of my bodily sufferings, and for three months of the time I dare not suffer myself to go to sleep while lying down, on account of being frequently choked while in that position. A short time since, I tried a bottle of your Worm Destroying Syrup which brought away an astonishing quantity of worms of every sort and size. Of the whole quantity there could not have been less than three quarts. Since that I have been intirely relieved, and enjoy good health which I have not done before for thirteen years.

Egyptian Wheat.

A SMALL quantity of the above wheat may be had for seeds, by any one wishing to sow it this fall, by application to Mr. Graham if immediately made.

It is highly recommended to the Farmers of the United States by the Editor of "American Farmer" (in volume I. No. 12 who has become the agent for the sale of it at $2 per bushel. It is an early white wheat, with a smooth head, very strong vigorous growth, though not fly proof—where the grower of it in this neighborhood had supposed it almost destroyed last fall, it recovered and produced over eight bushels to one. A sample may be seen at the Gazette Office.
