For the want of time, we are compelled to omit full statements of the result in the several counties. We copy, from the Baltimore Sun, of yesterday, the following recapitulation of the Delegates elected, as far as known, from which it will be seen that the Whigs will have an increased majority on joint ballot in the next legislature.

State Senators.—The Democrats have gained a State Senator in Allegany county, and one in Caroline, and the Whigs one in Baltimore city.

We have received a circular announcing the publication by Taylor & Co., Astor House, New York, of the first number of a monthly, entitled "The Chess Palladium and Mathematical Sphinx." It proposes to present to its readers brilliant games of all openings, by the eminent masters, with a choice collection of original and selected problems by the best players of both Hemispheres. From the prospectus we should conclude that this must be a publication highly interesting to the lovers of that game of which Franklin says, "It is a priceless invention, and to play it well is to possess a most desirable mental accomplishment." Another feature of this magazine, which must greatly enhance its value in the estimation of students, is the mathematical department, containing a collection of curious, difficult and entertaining problems, arithmetical and mathematical. We recommend the devotees of ingenuity, curiosity and skill, to subscribe forthwith. The price is 1S 3-4 cts. for a single number, or $2 per annum, and the publishers will furnish a copy of the first number gratis, on application post-paid, to "Palladium, New York city post office."

The Rev. Dr. UPFOLD, Rector of Trinity Church, Pittsburgh, was assaulted on Friday morning last by "Major Dunn," a teacher of the sword exercise. The "Major" was afterwards arrested, and in default of bail, was committed to jail to answer.

The causes and circumstances of the assault are as follows: It had come to the knowledge of some of the members of Trinity Church that it was the intention of Maj. Dunn to commune in that Church, and Dr. Upfold was requested to signify to him that it would be repugnant to the feelings of the members of the Church for him to do so. On Wednesday evening the Doctor met Dunn near the door of the vestry room, and after ascertaining that it was his intention to commune with the Church, frankly and plainly told him that it would not be agreeable to members of the Church. Dunn insisted upon his purpose, and the Doctor told him if he did so it would be his duty to pass him by, when administering the ordinance. At this Dunn got enraged, and seized the Doctor by the shirt-bosom, but he slipped from his grasp and went into the vestry and closed the door.

From this time it appears that Dunn has looked for an opportunity to revenge himself for what he was pleased to deem an insult, and on Friday morning he met Dr. Upfold, in company with the Right Rev. Bishop Potter, at the entrance to the Church-yard, on Sixth street, and after some questions, in regard to whether the Doctor was satisfied that he was not a drunkard, he attacked him with a heavy cane. Dr. Upfold warded off the blow with his arm, but the second one struck him across the forehead, causing a very severe contusion.

The brutality of the insult is the more aggravated from the fact that the Doctor was but honestly and conscientiously exercising the duties of his calling, and as all our citizens know, is one of the kindest, most inoffensive, courteous, and urbane men in the city. His very enemies (if he has any) speak well of his gentlemanly bearing in his personal intercourse with all mankind.

EXPORTS OF INDIAN CORN TO ENGLAND.—The quantity of Indian Corn exported from New York previous to the 1st of September of this year, is estimated at 562,000 bushels. From Philadelphia, during the same period, it amounted to 105,-707 bushels, and from New Orleans 941,-580 sacks. The export of this article from Boston and Baltimore each, was probably larger than from Philadelphia. The product of this country this year is estimated by some at five hundred millions of bushels. The census of 1840 states the product of that year to have been 377,531,-875 bushels. The news received by the steamer on Saturday not only announces an advance in price of this and other articles, but warrants the belief that the exports from the United States to Europe during the next eight months will be immense.

A PROFITABLE PUBLICATION.—Mr. Mayhew, who has been in some way connected with Punch, on his examination at the Bankruptcy Court, on the 1st instant, stated the profits of this periodical at £10,000 per annum.

THE FOREIGN NEWS.—Effect on the Markets.—The news by the Hibernia has slightly raised the price of corn, while wheat is somewhat depressed. Yesterday 1600 bushels prime Pennsylvania white wheat sold at $1,25. We quote prime reds at 100 a 108c. There were sales of both white and yellow corn at 77a78c.—Holders of Howard street flour were willing to take $5,37, at which there were small sales yesterday. City Mills and Susquehanna are held at $5,50 each. We find in the Patriot the following report of yesterday's Philadelphia market:

The price of wheat has declined. Sales of prime reds at 98a100c. per bushel. A small advance in corn, with sales of prime yellow at 75c. Oats selling at 35c. Whiskey, 26a27c. per gal. Provisions and groceries are firm as last quoted.

No change in flour. It is held firm at $5,50 for fresh ground. Corn meal has advanced 25c. per bbl., with sales at $4.

At New York, on Saturday, flour improved from Friday's sales—the sales of Western canal will not fall short of 13 to 15,000 bbls., commencing at $5.50 and closing at $5,75. 5,000 bbls. sold at the latter price. Southern flour was offered at $5,50a$5,72, but the sales were moderate.

The supply of corn was good. Distillers picked up some 8000 bushels at 75a78 c. for mixed lots of western, &c. 25,000 bushels white southern sold, part to arrive at 80a92 1-2 cts. for export. 1000 bushels rye sold at 78 and 2000 bushels at 80c.—Baltimore Clipper, 6th inst.

The Indians on a Visit to the President.—The Union, noticing the arrival at Washington, of a delegation of Winnebago Indians, says—

On Monday last they made a formal visit to the President, and were introduced by Col. Medill, Commissioner of Indian Affairs. They are twenty-three in number, and the finest-looking—best and most appropriately dressed and painted band of Indians we have ever seen. The President received and welcomed the delegation in his usual bland and courteous manner, and it was evident they soon felt as if they were really in the presence of the "Great Father of the red man." After he had spoken to them of the object of their visit, and expressed a desire to listen to anything they had to say, Shaw-go-nik or Little Hill, orator of the delegation, responded. He said that the Winnebagoes had heard the voice of their Great Father a long distance off—that their Father, the governor of Iowa and their agent, had informed them that their great Father wished to see a delegation of their people on business—that the chiefs and braves now here, were chosen to represent the Winnebago nation—that the principal chief "Wen-ne-shick," was now very old and infirm, and could not accompany the delegation, but his brother was here in his place. He said they wished their Great Father to have their business transacted without delay—that they were very anxious to return home, as many of their families were sick.

The President then informed them that he would appoint commissioners to meet them on the next day, (Tuesday,) and on Wednesday morning they would be ready to proceed to business; and that they might rely that full justice should be done them in any negotiations they might make.—With some salutary advice, the President then told them he would be glad to shake them by the hand again, after all their business was transacted, and they were ready to go home. The agent (Gen. Fletcher) then announced that the brother of Wen-ne-shick, had brought a pipe from the old chief for the President, which he desired now to present. Ah-hoo-zhib-kaw, a young chief, possessing much natural grace and elegance in form and manner, then rose, and after making a pertinent little speech, in which he called the PIPE the "emblem of peace and friendship, sent by the Great Spirit to the Red man," he presented it to the President. He had previously charged the pipe with thir favorite kin-ne-kin-ick, and lighting it, desired the President to smoke. The pipe was then passed to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and to all the Indians, and to the circle around the room, each taking a whiff as a mark of good will.

The New Orleans Picayune has conversed with an officer direct from Camargo, who stated that at least twenty men in each company of volunteers, are sick with a species of diarrhœa, which seems to baffle the medicine chests of the surgeons.

The Protestant Episcopal Convention for the Diocese of New York, is now in session in New York City. The following resolution has been carried by a majority of 93.

Resolved, That the trustees of the Episcopal fund be directed to pay over to the Rt. Rev. B. T. Onderdonk, D. D., out of the income of the said fund (excepting the portion set apart for accumulation,) the sum of $2500 annually, to commence from the first day of October, 1846, until otherwise directed by the Convention, and that he be paid at the same rate for the period from the 3d January, 1815, to 1st October, 1846, whenever the state of the funds will admit.

N. P. WILLIS, Esq.—We see it stated that this distinguished writer is about to become connected with the New York Tribune, as its literary editor.

THE COTTON CROP.—The cotton crop of the South, according to a computation in the New Orleans Price Current, is 2,-058,410 bales for 1845-6, against 2,394,-403 bales for 1844-5.

THE TELEGRAPH.—A project for establishing a line of Magnetic Telegraph in New York, between the various station houses, watch towers, &c., to the Chief's office, is before the Board of Aldermen in that city. It will be of great advantage in cases of fire, riot, &c.

The price of Indian Corn, as quoted in the London market, is 38 shillings per quarter, which is equal to $1.12 per bushel.

CAPTURE OF SANTA FE.—The Union states that official information has been received from Gen. Kearney, announcing the capture and quiet military possession of the territory of New Mexico.—There is nothing in them but what has already been published.

It is understood that General Kearney, with a small force, was about to leave Santa Fe for a few days on an excursion to some of the principal places in the territory, and might conclude to establish a military post below or near the Rio Grande.

A letter from an officer in Gen. Kearney's command says—

After his return he will commence fitting out his expedition for California.—The number of men he will take with him is not known. The march to California will be as arduous a one as was ever undertaken. You can judge when there is one reach of ninety miles without grass or water. If it can be done, Gen. Kearney is the man, of all others, who can do it.

MODERN PROGRESS.—The newspapers in Buffalo head their news with the following announcement: "Received by lightning, printed by steam." This is indeed the 'go ahead' age.

VALUABLE LIBRARY.—The library of Cambridge College, England, consists of 51,000 vols., besides 8,000 or 9,000 pamphlets. The department on American history is supposed to be the largest in the world, containing 5,000 vols. The oldest work on American history known to exist, is a letter from Columbus, translated from Italian into Latin, and published in 1494.

PROPHECY AND FULFILMENT.—John M. Clayton, in his great speech at Lancaster, in 1844, thus eloquently and truthfully predicted the effect of Polk's election, upon the Keystone State:

"Should the struggle for national independence, which is now raging throughout the length and breadth of the land, be decided against us by the vote of Pennsylvania, she will come out of that contest, with her gorgeous banner trailing in the dust, herself bleeding at every pore. The shouts of party triumph will be speedily succeeded by the wail of her ruined ploughmen and her beggared mechanics. The fires of her forges and the sound of the axe and hammer in her workshops will die away amidst the acclamations of her fatal victory; and there may be many among the thousands before me, who, with sorrow-stricken, if not with broken hearts, may live to mourn the loss of that without which public liberty would cease to be a blessing."

From the Bay State Democrat, Boston Nov. 4, 1846.

REMEDIES.

There are so many medicines of doubtful character advertised and puffed by the newspapers at the present time, that we should have shrunk from the task we have now undertaken, were we not most thoroughly convinced, from our own personal knowledge, of the facts which we state below.

It is of "Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry" that we would speak, and we speak advisedly. A lady of our acquaintance, whom we see every day, was a short time since, in what we thought a precarious, if not a dangerous state of health. A cough had settled on her lungs; her form seemed wasting away; she was obliged to abandon her work, and we thought not soon to resume it again. For about two months she has been taking Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and already has she so far regained her health as to be able to resume her labors.

This is but a single case, but it is one, at least, in which we cannot doubt the efficacy of the medicine.

SELLERS' CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, for the cure of the Liver Complaint.

The proprietor of the above medicine, aware of the many instances in which the afflicted have been imposed upon by quack remedies, proclaimed to be remedies for every disease yet hopes that the Liver Pill will not be placed in that class until they are fairly tested.

It is expressly stated "that persons who use these Pills, and find, after following the given directions, that they have not been benefited shall have their money returned."

This is done that the public may see it is not the purpose of the proprietor to speculate upon their credulity but to give at least an equivalent for their money.

In addition to the qualities already mentioned they are highly recommended as Antibilious and Purgative Pills.

To the Editor of the Star.

Mr. BATEMAN:—Permit me through the columns of the 'Star' to say that the conversation reported to have been held with Wm. W. Loweby John V. Lowe, as published in the "Easton Gazette" of Saturday last, together with every circumstance detailed in that article which has any reference to me, is totally and entirely false. I never exchanged a word with Mr. Arringdale in the whole course of my life, either upon the subject of Temperance or otherwise, and am much astonished at the liberty which has been taken with my name in this nefarious production.

DIED,

On Sunday the 4th inst., MARY, daughter of the late Daniel Feddeman, Esq.

The eulogy of the dead, are the tears of the living. Where known there loved, her memorial, we trust with that hope which maketh not ashamed, is recorded on a brighter than human page. Her piety calm, yet fervent; such as reason sanctioned, while it flowed warmly from the heart, the departure of this lady, from time into eternity, was, like her life, truly Christian. Nor, may the closing moments of this duteous daughter of the Church, occurring on the sacred day of Christian rest, and while the faithful were yet employed in the duties of the sanctuary, be vainly associated in our remembrance of her, with that better and eternal rest which remaineth for the people of God, and with those choirs in Heaven whose song of praise is ceaseless, and from whose notes of joy sighing and sorrow shall flee away.
