POETRY.

For the Easton Gazette.

"THE LOVED ARE LOVELY."

Creative Love hath power, in sooth,
To clothe his Idol with charms;
Yet first, his torch—confess the truth—
The captive lover's bosom warms.

There hangs around the loved a spell
Not love-awaked, but love-awaking;
And there the thoughts unceasing dwell,
Their brightest hues from it partaking.

Then while I grant the maxim true,
As to my own experience proved,
Yet must I not reverse it too,
And say, "the lovely are beloved?"

U.

For the Easton Gazette.

TO A LADY WITH SOME PENS.

Tiny feather! who shall say
What the limits to thy sway?
Court, or camp, or lady's bower
Owns, alike, thy matchless power.

Tiny feather!—wand of fate!—
Herald, thou, of love or hate,
Time and space to thee are nought,
Minister of busy thought!

Tiny feather! fly away,
Proud thy mistress to obey;
Softly whisper to her ear
Gentlest words none else may hear.

DEAR ONES FAR AWAY.

BY PARK BENJAMIN.

Oftimes when o'er these lofty walls the twilight's veil is thrown,
Within my solitary room I sit and muse alone;
And, as the curtains of the West close round the dying day,
The past, the lovely past, returns with dear ones far away!

Oh, then, how sadly in my heart its olden memories throng!
The many unalloyed delights to childhood that belong,
Before the blossom and the rose of life had felt decay,
When I was folded in the arms of dear ones far away.

I hear my father's greeting mild, my mother's gentle call,
My brothers and my sisters twain—they're present with me, all!
And some are buried deep beneath the ocean's dashing spray,
Yet unto me their spirit's come with dear ones far away!

I see the old familiar scenes;—the cheerful hours we knew
Within the mirror of the mind successive rise to view;
And, though like unsubstantial dreams, they vanish in the day,
Such passing pictures hold the shape of dear ones far away.

While thus I muse on distant friends, and look through by-gone years,
My eyes, as in my childhood hours, are filled with pleasant tears;
For earth was bright before me then, and life was in its May,
When they in very truth were mine—those dear ones far away.

Thanks be to Heaven for that high power, which time cannot destroy—
A power that fills the saddened soul with images of joy,
Since unto clear and brilliant light, imagination's ray
Can throw the well-remembered forms of dear one's far away!

From the Liverpool Daily News.

VOICES FROM THE CROWD.

CLEAR THE WAY.

Men of thought! be up, and stirring
Night and day:
Sow the seed—withdraw the curtain—
Clear the way!
Men of action, aid and cheer them,
As ye may!
There's a fount about to stream,
There's a light about to beam,
There's a warmth about to glow,
There's a flower about to blow;
There's a midnight blackness changing
Into grey;
Men of thought, and men of action,
Clear the way!

Once the welcome has broken,
Who shall say,
What the unimagined glories
Of the day?
What the evil that shall perish
In its ray?
Aid the dawning, tongue and pen;
Aid it, hopes of honest men;
Aid it, paper—aid it, type—
Aid it, for the hour is ripe,
And our earnest must not slacken
Into play.
Men of thought and men of action,
Clear the way!

Lo! a cloud's about to vanish,
From the day;
Lo! the right's about to conquer,
Clear the way!
And a brazen wrong to crumble
Into clay.
With that right shall many more
Enter smiling at the door;
With the giant wrong shall fall
Many others great and small,
That for ages long have held us
For their prey;
Men of thought, and men of action,
Clear the way.

The American Farmer.

The 2d volume of the new series of this journal will commence on the 1st of July, 1846, and the subsequent numbers will be issued on the first of each month as usual. The very extended circulation which the FARMER has attained since its publication in its present form (being a large octavo, of 32 pages each No.) is a gratifying evidence that the labors of its conductors have not been in vain. The "FARMER" is the oldest agricultural publication in the United States, the volume just completed being the 27 year of its existence; and evinces in its vigorous old age, a stamina which will favorably compare with any of its contemporaries.

Terms for the forthcoming volume.—Single copies $1—Six copies for $5—Thirteen copies for $10. Sample Nos. will be sent to any one desirous of aiding in the circulation of the "Farmer".

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF

WILD CHERRY,

THE great remedy for Consumption, & the best medecine known to Man for Asthma of every stage, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Influenza, Coughs, Colds, Bleeding of the Lungs, Shortness of Breath, pains and weakness in the side, breast, &c. and all other diseases of the PULMONARY ORGANS.

A very important disease over which this "Balsam" exerts a very powerful influence, is that of a DISEASED LIVER. In this complaint it has undoubtedly proved more efficacious than any remedy hitherto employed, and in numerous instances when patients had endured long and severe suffering from the disease, without receiving the least benefit from various remedies, and when Mercury has been resorted to in vain, the use of this Balsam has restored the Liver to a healthy action, and in many instances effected PERMANENT CURES, after every known remedy had failed to produce this desired effect.

Besides its astonishing efficacy in the diseases above mentioned, we also find it a very effectual remedy in ASTHMA, a complaint in which it has been extensively used with decided success, even in cases of years standing.

It not only emanates from a regular Physician, but has also been well tested in all the complaints for which it is recommended. It is not my intention, therefore, either to cloak it in mistery, or in any way deceive the public by overrating its virtues on the contrary, I shall simply endeavour to give a brief statement of its usefulness, and flatter myself that its surprising efficacy will enable me to furnish such proofs of its virtues as will satisfy the most incredulous, that Consumption may and "Can be Cured," if this medicine be resorted to in time.

Opinions of a regular Physician.

Exeter, Me. Sept, 30, 1845.

This certifies that I have recommended the use of WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY for diseases of the Lungs, for two years past and many bottles to my knowledge have been used by my patients, all with beneficial results. In two cases where it was thought confirmed consumption had taken place, the Wild Cherry effected a cure. E BOYEN, Physician. at Exeter Corner.

NO QUACKERY! NO DECEPTION!

All published statements of cures performed by this medicine, are, in every respect, TRUE. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS & IMITATIONS.

The unparalleled and astonishing efficacy of Dr. Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry in all the diseases for which it is recommended, curing many cases after the skill of the best physicians was unavailing, has effected a large & increasing demand for it. This fact has caused several unprincipled counterfeiters and imitators to palm off spurious mixtures of similar name and appearance, for the genuine Balsam.

Be careful and get the genuine DR. WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. None genuine unless signed by I. BUTTS. Address all orders to SETH W. FOWLE, Boston Mass.

The price of which two Works in England is $12 a year.

☞As republished by the subscriber they will cost only $1 a year.

Blackwood's Lady's Magazine,

And Gazette of the Fashionable World.—

for Town and Country.

Devoted to Belles-Letters, Music, Fine Arts, Fashions, &c.

The well-known celebrity in Europe and this Country, of Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, has induced the subscriber to commence the re publication of this fashionable London Monthly.

It is a matter of surprise that the Republication of this Work was not commenced some years since. On looking over some of the late numbers, we find them filled with Stories and Poetry, and Narratives, the most of which fall but little behind those published in the Edinburgh Work, and many surpass even the emanations from the Giant intellects of the contributors to the great Northern Magazine. The best writers of the day contribute to its pages.

It has now been published seventeen years in London, and has a circulation exceeding 70,000 copies through England, Scotland, Ireland, and the continent of Europe. It is translated into several of the continental languages—it being the only instance of an English Magazine receiving that compliment.

The publication will commence in October next, and will be continued monthly.

The publication price of the above wark, in London, is six dollars.

The London World of Fashion,

And Continental Feuilletons.

A Monthly Publication of the Courts of London and Paris.—Dedicated to High Life. Fashionables, Fashions, Polite Literature, Fine Arts, the Operas, Theatres, &c. Edited by several Literary & Fashionable Characters.

In the above two works will be found, all the Gossip of London, Paris, and the principal Cities of the continent of Europe. Royal Gossip—Description of the Queen's Drawing Room Parties, with accurate accounts of the dresses of the Ladies of Rank—Noblemen's Fetes—Description of every New Opera, with criticisms on the same—Performers, &c. Tales by the best English Authors, Poetry. New Music. Her Majesty's visit to Different Noblemen—Description of New Paintings, & the Artists—Varieties. &c.

The publication price of the above work, in London, is six dollars.

Terms of Godey's New Mouthly Magazine, $1 a year in advance. All orders must be addressed, post paid, to L. A. GODEY, 101 Chesnut St. Philadelphia.

FEMALE SEMINARY.

THE exercises of this School, formerly under the management of Mr. THOS. PIERSON, have been resumed during the past week under the care and control of Mr. WILLIAM MERRILL, formerly of the State of Massachusetts.

The board of Trustees of this institution have engaged the services of Mr. Merril after mature consideration and upon the most full examination of his credentials as to competency and character. Mr. M. has been engaged for ten years past as a teacher both in male and female seminaries in our country; and from those by whom he has been employed he brings ample testimonials. The board of Trustees also feel warranted in saying, that from their personal inspection and observation during the past week, of his management of the School, he will give general satisfaction. Mr. Merrill proposes for the present to give instruction in the following branches, to wit:

The common branches of a thorough English education,
The natural sciences—moral and mental Philosophy,
Rhetoric and the higher branches of Mathematics,
The Latin, Greek & French languages.

The annual vacation of the Seminary will commence on the 31st July of each year, and the exercises of the School be resumed on the 1st of October following. Those pupils desiring instruction in Music can receive lessons for the present from Mrs. Rachael Hands, a lady most favorably known in this community; and as soon as the patronage of the school will warrant it, a female assistant will be procured to instruct the pupils in Music, Painting, Drawing and other ornamental branches of female education.

TERMS.
