And afterwards to wit, on the 12th day of September 1846 came the said James V Wagner and Ethelbert A Marshall by their counsel John Glenn and John Johnson Esquires and filed in the said cause their answer to the petition of the said Mendes I Cohen for an Injunction in the words following to wit. —

To the Honorable Theodorick Bland, Chancellor of Maryland. —
The joint and several answers of James V Wagner of the City of Baltimore and Ethelbert A Marshall of the City of Philadelphia to the petition of Mendes I Cohen filed against these respondents in the case of Cohen and others against Gwynn and others in this Honorable Court — These defendants admit that exceptions were filed by the said Mendes I Cohen to the final ratification of the sale made to the respondent Wagner by John H B Latrobe Esquire the Trustee appointed in the said cause at the period mentioned in the said petition and that your Honor passed an order thereupon on the 23d of July last directing that said exceptions should stand for hearing on the 22d of this present month of September and these respondents admit that a copy of said exceptions and order were duly served and that they remain undecided by this Court. — That an answer thereto has been filed by the said John H B Latrobe Esquire the trustee, wholly contradicting, and as these respondents are advised and insist, removing all ground of objection to the ratification of the said sale, and this defendant Wagner answering in this respect for himself says that he was reported as the purchaser of the property in the proceedings mentioned which was sold fairly and at public sale, That he was the highest bidder therefor and was immediately after the sale put in possession of said property which was however subject to a lease to the said Marshall which expired on or about the 5th of August last. — That thereupon supposing he might do so with propriety he leased the same to the said Marshall not for a moment supposing he was thereby encroaching upon the rights of any person but that he was acting simply as his own interests and rights justified and required and these respondents admit that the said property under the lease so made by the said Wagner to the said Marshall was used for Theatrical Exhibitions, as formerly and so continued to be used until the injunction prohibiting the same issued from this Court. — These defendants do not know precisely how many shares of the stock in the said Theatre the said petitioner owned but they have always understood and are willing to admit that he was a stockholder therein, but they are advised and insist that the sale to this respondent Wagner fairly publicly and made according to the terms of the decree of this Court has extinguished the said shares and all the rights of him the said Cohen and the other stockholders therein and they therefore admit that the contract between these respondents for the leasing the said Theatre was made without consultation with or the authority of the said stockholders whose rights were thus extinguished, &c —
