POETRY.

CLINGING TO EARTH.

BY FANNY FORESTER.

Oh! do not let me die! the earth is bright,
And I am earthly, so I love it well;
True, heaven is holier, all replete with light
But I am frail, and with frail things would dwell.

I cannot die; the flowers of earthly love
Shed their rich fragrance on a kindred breast;
There may be purer, brighter ones above;
Yet with these flowers 'twould be too hard to part.

I dream of heaven, and well I love these dreams;
They scatter sunlight on my varying way;
But 'mid the clouds of earth are priceless gleams
Of brightness; and on earth, oh, let me stay!

It is not that my lot is void of gloom,
That sadness never circles round my heart;
Nor that I fear the darkness of the tomb,
That I would never from earth depart.

'Tis that I love the world; its cares, its sorrows,
Its bounding hopes, its feelings fresh and warm,
Each cloud it wears, and every light it borrows,
Loves, wishes, fears, the sunshine and the storm—

I love them all; but closer still the loving
Twine with my being's cords and make my life;
And while within this sunlight I am moving,
I well can bide the storms of worldly strife.

Then do not let me die! for earth is bright,
And I am earthly, so I love it well;
Heaven is a land of holiness and light—
Yet I am frail, and with the frail would dwell.

A MOTHER'S INFLUENCE.

BY SOPHIA WEBSTER.

A fair haired boy was standing
Beside his mother's knee,
Repeating in a sweet low tone,
The prayer of infancy.
But coldly fell the 'customed words,
His eye was far away,
And the schoolboy troubles which
Had crossed his path that day.

Softly the mother laid her hand
On his rich clustering hair;
Kindly she listened to his griefs,
And soothed each little care;
Gently she led his heart away,
To the sweet thoughts of Heaven;
Gently the good-night blessing, and
The good-night kiss were given.

Under an influence such as this,
The fair boy's childhood passed,
A mother placed within his heart
The principles that last.
A mother's gentle hand restrained
The waywardness of youth;
And brought his wandering footsteps back
To rectitude and truth.

Time passed away, and manhood came
On that young brow to bind
The wreath of noble intellect,
The stamp of god-like mind.
Yet still he cherished, bright and fair,
The lessons of his youth;
His high and holy principles,
His deep strong love of truth.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF
WILD CHERRY,
THE great remedy for Consumption, & the best medicine known to Man for Asthma of every stage. Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Influenza, Coughs, Colds, Bleeding of the Lungs, Shortness of Breath, pains and weakness in the side, breast, &c and all other diseases of the PULMONARY ORGANS.
A very important discase over which this "Balsam" exerts a very powerful influence, is that of a DISEASED LIVER. In this complaint it has undoubtedly proved more efficacious than any remedy hitherto employed, and in numerous instances when patients had endured long and severe suffering from the disease without receiving the least benefit from various remedies, and when Mercury has been resorted to in vain, the use of this Balsam has restored the Liver to a healthy action, and in many instances effected PERMANENT CURES after every known remedy had failed to produce this desired effect.
Besides its astonishing efficacy in the diseases above mentioned, we also find it a very effectual remedy in ASTHMA, a complaint in which it has been extensively used with decided success, even in cases of years standing.
It not only eminates from a regular Physician, but has also been well tested in all the complaints for which it is recommended. It is not my intention, therefore, either to cloak it in mystery or in any way deceive the public by overrating its virtues; on the contrary, I shall simply endeavour to give a brief statement of its usefulness, and flatter myself that its surprising efficacy will enable me to furnish such proofs of its virtues as will satisfy the most incredulous that Consumption may and Can be Cured, if this medicine be resorted to in time.
Opinions of a regular Physician.
Exeter, Me. Sept. 30, 1845.
This certifies that I have recommended the use of WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY for diseases of the Lungs, for two years past and many bottles to my knowledge have been used by my patients, all with beneficial results. In two cases where it was thought confirmed consumption had taken place, the Wild Cherry effected a cure. E BOYEN, Physician at Exeter Corner.
NO QUACKERY! NO DECEPTION!
All published statements of cures performed by this medicine, are, to every respect, TRUE. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS & IMITATIONS.
The unparalleled and astonishing efficacy of Dr. Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry in all the diseases for which it is recommended, during many cases after the skill of the best physicians was unavailing, has effected a large & increasing demand for it. This fact has caused several unprincipled counterfeiters and imitators to palm off spurious mixtures of similar name and appearance, for the genuine Balsam
Be careful and get the genuine DR. WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. None genuine unless signed by I BUTTS. Address all orders to SETH W. FOWLE, Boston Mass.
For sale by E. M. Dawson and Bro. Easton; L. Seats St. Michaels, H. T. Dean Hillsborough, T. H. Slaughter Denton, Wm. Hopper, Centreville.

The well-known celebrity in Europe and this Country, of Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, has induced the subscriber to commence the re publication of this fashionable London Monthly.
It is a matter of surprise that the Re-publication of this Work was not commenced some years since. On looking over some of the late numbers, we find them filled with Stories and Poetry, and Narratives, the most of which fall out little behind those published in the Edinburgh Work, and many surpass even the emanations from the Giant intellects of the contributors to the great Noctheru Magazine. The best writers of the day contribute to its pages.
It has now been published seventeen years in London, and has a circulation exceeding 70,000 copies through England, Scotland, Ireland, and the continent of Europe. It is translated into several of the continental languages—it being the only instance of an English Magazine receiving that compliment.
The publication will commence in October next, and will be continued monthly.

"The Whig Standard,"
IS the title of a WEEKLY PAPER, issued every Saturday, in the City of Baltimore, at $1.00 per annum.
The Standard is thoroughly Whig and will zealously advocate all necessary reforms in the General, State and City government. It will expose the hypocrisy of those who advocate Conventional Reform in the name of Democracy, which is used as a cloak to hide from the yeomanry of Maryland, the most wild and revolutionary designs, all the Reform desired being nothing more nor less than the offices and emoluments of the State Government.
The Standard is designed to be a permanent Journal, and not a party ephemeral gotten up to feed the excitement of an approaching election and then die off. It will be free and fearless, controlled by neither "clique nor cabal" but open to the opinion of every good Whig in Old Maryland.
