THE VICTORY IN MASSACHUSETTS

The Boston Atlas, of Monday, has the following noble article on the result of the recent election in Massachusetts. The spirit that pervades this article, and which animated the Whigs of the old Bay State in this election, will meet with the cordial response of every Whig in the Union. We here see that the Whigs of Massachusetts, as a party, stand on the same political platform with the Whigs of other states, be they in the North or in South, in the East or in the West. Local views they may have—independent sectional opinions they may entertain—peculiarities in laws and customs may distinguish their State from other States in the Union, but on the general question of national politics, they are simply Whigs—a name comprehensive enough to include every friend of the Union, the Constitution and the republicanism of this country—a name which ranges under its flag men of all creeds, in all the States, and of all professions—and which is sanctified by the blood and treasure of the patriots of the Revolution, and which is now borne by the party whose aim and end is to preserve and perpetuate all that is good in the social and political compact—to preserve to each State its individual rights—to give to the general government only so much power as is necessary to secure the perfect union of the States—and to so administer the laws, that every man shall find protection for his person, protection for his labor, security for his property, and all the multitude of blessings a good government can bring to those who live under it.

This is the understanding of the Whigs of Massachusetts—this is the understanding of the Whigs of all the States. These are the purposes for which they have united as a party; and to believe these things and to desire these things constitute a man a whig, no matter where, he may live, no matter where born no matter what believing otherwise.

Cordially responding as we do to all that is said in the Atlas, expressing our gratification at its publication of the article and satisfied that it will do much to disabuse the minds of those whom the Locofoco organs have been artfully contriving to mislead, we commend it to the careful perusal of our readers:

OUR RECENT ELECTION.

We should not do justice to our own feelings, if we did not publicly express the pride and pleasure we feel at the results of our recent State election, and at the honorable position which Massachusetts, is now entitled to claim, among her sister States.

We have re-elected, by very handsome by almos unprecedented, majorities, our most excellent Whig governor and Lieutenant Governor. We have chosen thirty one Whigs to the Senate, out of forty Senators—and prevented all our opponents from choosing a single member of the Senate. We shall have the next House of Representatives of our State, by an overwhelming majority of one hundred and fifty. We have elected eight good, sound and true Whig Members of Congress—and have yet two Districts left, in which there will be but little difficulty in ultimately choosing Whigs, who will be worthy to take their places among the other eight.—Massachusetts will thus, for the first time for many years be represented by an entire delegation in the present & in the next Congresses, of one political character. An able, efficient, and unflinching army of Whigs will be there to act for her on the floor of the national House of Representatives. By the results of last Monday's election, too, we have secured the re-election of our faithful efficient and honest U. S. Senator, the Hon. John Davis. These are the effects—or rather, some of the most prominent effects, of the successful efforts of the good Whigs of old Massachusetts.

Our victory is hailed by the Whigs of every part of the country, through which the news of it passes, with the most unfeigned and heart joy. The Whigs of the Old State are cordially congratulated upon this signal triumph over all their enemies. The gratifying result which we had the pleasure to lay before our readers on the last Tuesday morning, are copied far and wide—and to Massachusetts must be accorded the Whig praise of standing second to no other Whig State in the Union. The sympathy and participation of our Whig brethren, in the glorious victory we have obtained, is cordially and thankfully received and reciprocated, by the Whigs of Massachusetts.

There were some elements intermingled in this last election, which renders the victory we have achieved doubly acceptable and grateful. It is well known that the great body of the Whig Party of Massachusetts, is strongly, thoroughly, deeply opposed to the institution of Slavery; that they look upon it as a great moral blot and stain upon our Republican institutions—that they most heartily desire its extinction and abolition from our country: and that they are willing to use all means—fair, reasonable, available, constitutional means—to free our country from the existence and imputation of this great evil. Certain hot-headed theorists—men who have little else to do in the world than to waste their lives upon the contemplation of chimerical and impracticable abstractions—started forth from the depths of their seclusion, and endeavored, in this recent election, to carry the Whig Party of Massachusetts to an extreme course of action, which would have involved that party in gross absurdity and irretrievable error.—Availing themselves of the known and often proclaimed aversion of Party to the institution of Slavery, these new fangled political reformers thrust themselves forth into the political arena, and, with specious rhetoric and inflamatory writing, endeavored to draw the Whig Party into open and hostile collision with their political brethren of other States—to bring them to a declaration, that the abolition of slavery was paramount to every consideration of kinsmen and of country, and to involve them in a constructive declaration of intention to dissolve the Union of the States of this Republic. They desired by the misuse of an honorable and conscientious sentiment in the Whig Party, to allure that Party to a course of action which would have involved its certain destruction and which would have deeply endangered the existence of our Government, and the Union of the States.

The Whigs of Massachusetts have proved themselves too sagacious to be caught in such a trap. Again and again—through their legislative bodies and their public assemblies—they have declared their thorough disapprobation of Slavery; their desire for its extinction; and their determination to use all proper and constitutional means in their power, to limit and curtail its influence. They were not simple enough however, to lose sight of every other interest, whilst looking at this. They were not weak enough to allow a few vain and visionary men—self elected keepers of the public conscience—to start forth into the van of the party; thrust all its former well known and accredited leaders aside; set themselves up as the only safe lights and guides of the age, and carry the Party, with themselves at its head, boldly and recklessly to the very verge of disunion. Signal, prompt, honorable and discriminating, has been the action of our Party, at this election. Stern and astounding has been the rebuke pronounced upon these new-light, "conscience" reformers. Noble and commanding is the position now assumed and maintained by the Whigs of Massachusetts.

Our Whig brethren of the South and the West will perceive, through the results of this election, that the Whigs of the Old Bay state are determined to maintain the integrity of the Whig Party proper throughout the country. We look to the united effort of our party—here, there and every where in the Republic—as the only safe hope upon which we can rely, for the establishment of a wise a good administration of our government, for the enactment and execution of wholsome laws, for the restoration, and preservation of peace abroad, and for the protection of the great interests of our country at home. We have beaten down every political sect and faction that has set itself up in array against us. We have nobly triumphed over all our enemies. We stand on the high ground that the Whig Party should always occupy. We deplore the evils that exist in the land—we detest the wrongs that are done by wicked men in power—but, nevertheless, we go for the Union, and we are determined to maintain it. We love our Country, and we mean to live here—wherever is her territory, or however it may be bounded.

DREADFUL GALE ON THE LAKES.

BUFFALO, Nov. 24, morning.

News reached here yesterday morning of a fearful and melancholy gale which visited Lake Erie on Thursday night. The steamboat Helen Strong lies a complete wreck. Above Barcelona the schooner Swan is ashore, as is also a schooner, name unknown: Both are greatly damaged.

There is also a sloop capsized. The brig Oceola and schooner Cleveland are ashore eight miles above Barcelona. The brig lost four hands in the gale. The brig John Hancock is ashore on the rocks above Erie—probably a total loss. The brig Europe is a wreck at Fairport, and may probably get off without much damage.

The Ainsworth, United States, Charles and A. P. Haywood are ashore at Erie, and will get off with but trifling damage. The brig H. H. Sizer & schooner Huron, at Erie, are total wrecks. The steamer Indian Queen is on the rocks at Dunkirk, and is a perfect wreck. There are fourteen vessels and three steamers ashore this side of Cleveland.

On Sunday morning, sixteen dead bodies floated on shore at Barcelona. The shore for miles along the Lake is strewed with fragments of vessels. The storm has been a most disastrious one, and we fear to hear farther accounts. On Lake Ontario, schooners Minerva and W. H. Merritt are ashore at Braddock's Point. The schooner Cleveland is ashore at Irondequoit Bay.

DEATH OF A DAUGHTER OF CHARLES CARROLL.—Mrs. Caton, relict of the late Richard Caton, Esq., died on Sunday last, at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. MacTavish, the British Consul, in Elkridge.—This venerable and excellent lady was the eldest daughter of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton. She arrived to a ripe old age, like her distinguished father, and leaves several children, among whom is the Marchioness Wellesley, to perpetuate her many amiable qualities and high accomplishments, which gave her a grace and a charm that attracted to her the warmest regard of the exalted and the humble, to whom she was endeared by acts of courtesy and kindness.

The New Orleans Bulletin in noticing the accident to Capt. Ridgely, says:

He was always noted for a desperate & fearless rider, and it appears that he was going from the quarters of his regiment which were picketed on the outside of the city, to dine in Monterey, and was mounted on a vicious Mexican horse who in going over a spot of loose stones stumbled in full speed, and threw his rider with great violence, and whose head struck a stone wall. We learn there was no fracture of the skull, but the concussion was so severe, that the blood started from his eyes and mouth, and soon proved fatal.

Thus has perished in the full bloom of youth and usefulness one of the most gallant meritorious and rising officers of our army, and who will prove a loss to the service, not easily replaced—peace and honor to his ashes.

☞ As the Indian formerly roamed over the mountains of Peru, unconcious of the vast wealth that lay hidden beneath its surface; so, till lately, have we strolled through our native forests, ignorant of the fact that they contain ingredients which, in hands skilled by study and experience, form by far the most efficacious remedy for all kinds of Pulmonary and Liver affections known to the world; yet this is true.—Wild Cherry bark and Tar have, indeed, been used before, but their virtues could not be fully appreciated, because they were not fully extracted. Dr. Wistar has done this—and his balsam of Wild Cherry (which contains also an extract of Tar) is astonishing every body, especially the M. D's, by its wonderful efficacy in Asthma, Liver Complaints, Coughs, Colds, Bleeding of the Lungs, first stages of Consumption, etc. The Balsam is made from materials which nature has placed in all northern latitudes as an antidote for diseases caused by cold climates.

"Nature is but the name for an effect.
Whose cause is God."

Let us not neglect her plainest dictates. Always be sure to get the genuine article, as spurious "Balsams" etc. are afloat.

The proprietor of the above medicine, aware of the many instances in which the afflicted have been imposed upon by quack remedies proclaimed to be remedies for every disease yet hopes that the Liver Pill will not be placed in that class until they are fairly tested.

It is expressly stated that persons who use these Pills and find, after following the given directions, that they have not been benefited shall have their money returned."

This is done that the public may see it is not the purpose of the proprietor to speculate upon their credulity but to give at least an equivalent for their money.

In addition to the qualities already mentioned they are highly recommended as Antibilious and Purgative Pills.

"SUGAR COATED" PILLS.

BEWARE! CAUTION!!

The increasing popularity of Dr G. BENJ. SMITH'S IMPROVED INDIAN VEGETABLE SUGAR COATED PILLS, has induced a number of persons to make something they call PILLS, and coat them with sugar, in order to sell them for the genuine while they do not possess a particle of the goodness, nor even assimilate in appearance to the original, Dr Smith's Pills. In short they are intended FRAUD upon the community. A minister who at first had an interest in an imitation Sugar Coated Pill, manufactured at Albany, N. Y. has given them up as he says on account of the miserable dishonest parties concerned in manufacturing them. The same party are now industriously circulating reports calculated to injure Dr Smith and to affect the reputation of his valuable pills; but rather than notice them in public, Dr Smith is about to institute legal proceedings against them for their slanders as he has in another case against a similar party in which he recovered a large amount of damages. These miserable imitators have to resort to the most abominable means to palm off their counterfeit pills as the public know that Dr. Smith's are the original and genuine. Several testimonies have come to public notice in which the has been endangered by the unfortunate use of the counterfeits. It is Dr Smith's Pills that are doing so much good in the country—as the following plainly show.

MORE MINISTERS.

Use and Recommend Dr Smith's Pills than all others

This is to certify that I have used the Sugar Coated Pills Manufactured by G. Benjamin Smith' of New York for some time, and believe them to be a good medicine, also, from inquiry in that city I am persuaded that he is the original inventor, and therefore is entitled to the benefit of the invention

S. WILLIAMS
Pastor 1st Baptist Church.

From the Blue Hens's Chicken, (Del.)

We call the attention of our readers to the certificate of Rev. S. Williams, Pastor of 1st Baptist Church, Pittsburgh, in relation to Dr. Smith's Pills. We can ourselves bear testimony to the excellence of these Pills one of us having used them and experienced great relief from them.

The above is the best paper in the State of Delaware.

The "improved indian vegetable Pills," (Sugar Coated) are certainly doing much good in the whole country, and are highly esteemed. If one half is true that people write and say about them. They are so easy in their operation that all like them. The editor of the Northern State Journal, (one of the largest and best papers in the State of N Y.,) writes as follows.

Watertown, May 31, 1846.

Dr. G Benj Smith—

Dear Sir: I was laid up with a bad cold some time since my return from N Y. and during my illness I made trial of your pills and I must say I found them excellent. They are the best medicine for the purposes they are intended, that I have yet seen I seldom take pills but I found yours entirely free from the objections to which other pills are liable. I hope they will continue to be a source of profit to you, as I doubt not they will be a means of relief to the afflicted on a large scale. Yours truly, J. GREEN.

Tonawanda, Pa., Sept. 18, 1846.

Dr G. Benj Smith—

Dear Sir: Your agent left with me a lot of your Sugar coated Pills, and I have but a few boxes left. Every box I have sold has given entire satisfaction. I have taken them myself and I consider them the best pills I have ever used, and I am not afraid to recommend them to the public. I wish a further supply at once.

Yours respectfully,
JACOB KIELER P. M.

Huntington, Ind., June 21, 1846.

Dr. Smith—

Dear Sir. I am most out of your "Indian Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills," and find them selling so fast that I think you had better send me two gross immediately. They give such general satisfaction that people come at least twenty miles for them, and as it is generally known I am agent for them, I would be very sorry to get out

Yours respectfully,
SAML. MORE & Co

BEWARE!!

If G BENJ SMITH be not written with a pen on the bottom of the box, all "Sugar Coated" Pills are counterfeit
