STEAMBOAT COLLISION.—Twenty or Thirty Lives Lost, and Twenty or Thirty Scalded.—A slip from the office of the N. Orleans Picayune, dated Sunday, Nov. 22, 11 P. M., furnishes the following particulars of a dreadful steamboat accident on the Mississippi:—

The Sultana, Capt. Tufts, which arrived this morning from Vicksburg, brings the particulars of a terrible steamboat accident which occurred on the 21st inst., about seven miles below Natchez, in the bend of the river, by which some twenty or thirty lives weer lost and a great number of persons were severely scalded.

The Sultana, bound down the river, came in contact with the steamer Maria, Capt. T. W. Dunnica, bound up, about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, striking her just forward of the wheel house, and by the violence of the shock broke the connection pipe of the Maria, by which the chief clerk, the second engineer and between twenty-five & thirty deck hands & deck passengers were scalded, many of them so severely that there was no prospect of their recovery.

The Maria sunk to within about two feet of her cabin floor within five minutes after the collision, drowning between twenty-five and thirty persons who were on the lower deck. It is thought that Capt. Dunnica was drowned, but is not certainly known. The cabin passengers were all saved.

The steamboat Talma, Capt. Hite, came down the river soon after the accident, and took on board the wounded and conveyed them back to Natchez to be placed in the hospital. The Sultana remained by the side of the wreck till sunrise the next morning, rendering every assistance in their power. We are unable to furnish a list of the names of killed and scalded.—The Maria will be a total loss, it is thought. The hoves of the S. were much injured.

The New Orleans Tropic of the 23d inst. gives the following additional particulars:—

The boilers of the Maria were knocked off their stands, saving the connecting pipes, filling the space between the lower deck and cabin floor with steam and boiling water, scalding nearly all those persons in that portion of the boat aft of the boilers, consisting of the deck hands and some few deck passengers:

The third engineer is also missing, and no doubt is buried amid the ruins of the lower deck. The crew of the boat numbered fifty-two of these, only 9 could be mustered within three hours after the collision, at which time we left the wreck, who had escaped uninjured. These were principally the firemen and sailors on duty. About twenty are missing, and must have perished in the fire. Twenty-one were rescued, but all so dreadfully scalded that there are no hopes of their recovery, with the exception of the third cook, a man of color.

In a few minutes after the collision, the steamer Talma, which was ascending the river, came alongside and sent her yawl under charge of the mate, to the Maria, and succeeded by means of cutting through the decks and forcing off the doors of the deck rooms, in rescuing nine of the sufferers.

The Sultana having received the force of the collision immediately upon her bow, was not materially injured. The loss of a few feet of the guards of her bow, principally on the starboard side, was the only injury of note received above decks.

The passengers of the Sultana have published a certificate stating it to be their opinion that the collision was purely accidental.

PROBABLE LOSS OF SHIP ZENOBIA.

By the following extract from the log book of the brig Mary, Captain Norris, twenty eight days from Galveston for this port, which put into Newport in distress, on the 27th inst. we fear that the ship Zenobia, Capt. Kinney, cleared from this port on 22d inst. by N. L. & G. Griswold, and sailed on the 23d for Liverpool, loaded with flour, grain, &c. was lost in the recent severe storm.

Extract from log book of brig Mary, Nov. 24th, Sandy Hook bearing N. W. about 75 miles:—"At 2 P. M., saw a ship to leeward, showing a signal of distress; ran down to her, and found it was the ship Zenobia, from New York for Liverpool, leaking badly, and both pumps choked, bound back to New York; was requested to keep company, for fear she would go down; did so. Wednesday, 4 A. M., took the wind from the SE. still in company with the ship, with all sail set, steering W. N. W; at 2 P. M., the wind had increased to a gale and hove to; the ship done the same, about half a mile astern, and 2 P. M., moderate, with light wind, we still within one mile of each other; at 5 P. M. took the wind from the N. W. the ship still coming after me; at 8 P. M. lost sight of her, wore ship, and stood to the SW.; at 8½ past saw the ship to leeward; set a light but could get no answer; it then blowing a gale from the NW., and we laying too under fore topmast staysail and storm spencer, the sea making a complete breach over us, we being then in 22 fathoms water.

This, it will be recollected, was before the heavy gale on the 26th, which if she encountered, while in the situation described above, we fear it is but too certain, that she is lost. We trust, however, she may have fallen in with some vessel, which has taken off those on board.

SAD DEATH OF THE REV. DR. ARMSTRONG.—The New York Journal of Commerce thus notices the death of one of the unfortunate passengers on the Atlantic:—

The christian public, especially that portion of it connected with the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, will be deeply grieved to learn that the Rev. Dr. Armstrong, one of the Secretaries of that Board, was among the lost of the Atlantic. He performed his last service for the benefit of his fellow men on Thursday, while the Atlantic lay at anchor. He conducted the thanksgiving exercises, and delivered an appropriate address, recapitulating the reasons which ought to fill the bosoms of the passengers with gratitude and thanksgiving, and among the rest, no doubt the surprised fact that they had been saved from the dangers which threatened them while the noble boat was drifting and brought to a safe anchorage. Dr. Armstrong's family consists of his wife and five children, the eldest 18 years of age, the youngest an infant. Dr. Armstrong was returning from his monthly visit to Boston, to attend the meeting of the Prudential Committee of the Board.

FREE TRADE.

While we rejoice at the fact that there is a demand abroad for the produce of the American farmer, and trust that (without distress any where,) the demand may increase, we cannot help entertaining a contempt for editors who know better, and yet persist in enforcing the falsehood, that this demand is consequent upon the American Tariff of 1846. This assertion, (for however set forth, it is always intended to operate as a bold assertion of a fact,) is usually made by the unflinching advocates of Mr. Polk's administration. Now we need not say to the readers of this paper, that the corn laws of Great Britain were repealed before the passage of the present Tariff Bill of this country, and, therefore, the demand for American corn has no more to do with the free trade bill of Mr. McKay, than has the rising of the sun to do with the revocation of the Berlin and Milan decrees. But it may be, as it has been suggested, that there was an understanding between the two governments on this subject.—We hope not. If it should appear that the protection of American industry was bartered away by treaty never presented to the Senate, we should like to hear the epithets that would and should be applied to the President, for this act of usurpation, not to use a more offensive and, perhaps a more deserved term.

The abrogation of the corn laws of England, by which American grain is admitted into the ports of Great Britain, was in all respects just such a movement as that made by the Governors of some the West India Islands after a severe drought, or some other visitation, that renders it necessary to open the ports to American produce, and American lumber, free of duties.

Has Great Britain reduced her import duties on tobacco, on which she levies an importation tax, varying from three hundred per cent. to eleven hundred per cent. with home valuation in effect, though the duty is specific, at about eighty cents per pound? Is this free trade, about which so much is boasted.—U. S. Gazette.

MAINE.—We copy below the official report of the votes given at the recent Congressional election in the State of Maine, from which it will be seen that, so far as this vote may be regarded as a test, the Locofoco party is in a minority in that State of nine thousand five hundred and forty-nine votes:

ARKANSAS FINANCES.—A letter in the Louisville Journal, from a member of the Arkansas Legislature, which is now in session at Little Rock, says:

The Governor's message is a plain document, and gives the true picture of our situation, which is a deplorable one, God knows. Our population is now 145,000, yet we do not pay as much revenue into our Treasury as when we had a population a little short of one hundred thousand.—Our taxes are higher than then, but lands that were taken up for speculation have been stricken off many instances for taxes, and property of all kinds has gone down in value.

The back interest on bonds amounts to some $860,000 and upwards. How we are to get out of our difficulties God only knows. A recent decision of our supreme court makes the bonds mortgaged to the State for the bonds furnished in the Real Estate Bank for capital liable for these bonds; that is to say, the bank cannot foreclose the mortgages upon the debts due her; that the bondholder and the State of Arkansas are parties concerned; of course until the bonds become due, no action can be had in relation to the mortgages.

Mt. Holly, N. J., Nov. 1, 1845.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle,

Dear Sir: Having used Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, with great benefit to myself, I cheerfully comply with your request to give my testimony in favor of it. Some time since I took cold and it settled on my lungs; I was troubled for several weeks with a very bad cough, raised blood several times, and had all the alarming symptoms attending confirmed Consumption. I despaired of recovery. After trying various remedies in vain, I obtained a bottle of your Balsam: I took three bottles, and to my astonishment was entirely cured. I attribute my restoration to health to that medicine alone. All who are sick or afflicted with pulmonary affections, I would recommend them to try Dr. Wistar's Balsam immediately.

LET ALL THE WORLD KNOW THAT SELLERS' VERMIFUGE is the Best in Use! Here is the proof.

LICKING STATION, KY., Dec. 17th 1845.

Mr. R. E. Sellers:—I have the pleasure to inform you that I have used in my practice your celebrated Vermifuge with the most happy results. I have formerly used Hoestock's but being persuaded to try yours I have found it far superior in every respect, and can say without the fear of contradiction, that your Vermifuge possesses more virtue than any I ever used, and most cordially recommend it to the attention of the public. I will state a case where I gave one vial of your vermifuge: My brother's child was pining and wasting to a mere skeleton; in 30 hours after I gave the Vermifuge the enormous quantity of upwards of six hundred worms were passed. The child that was given up as lost, is now well and as hearty as any in the neighborhood. AMBROSE ARNETT M. D.

"SUGAR COATED" PILLS.

BEWARE!!! CAUTION!!

The increasing popularity of Dr G. BENJ. SMITH'S IMPROVED INDIAN VEGETABLE SUGAR COATED PILLS, has induced a number of persons to make something they call PILLS, and coat them with sugar, in order to sell them for the genuine, while they do not possess a particle of the goodness, nor even assimilate in appearance to the original, Dr Smith's Pills. In short they are intended FRAUD upon the community. A minister who at first had an interest in an imitation Sugar Coated Pill, manufactured at Albany, N. Y., has given them up, as he says on account of the miserable dishonest parties concerned in manufacturing them. The same party are now industriously circulating reports calculated to injure Dr. Smith and to affect the reputation of his valuable pills; but rather than notice them in public, Dr Smith is about to institute legal proceedings against them for their slanders, as he has in another case against a similar party in which he recovered a large amount of damages. These miserable infidels have to resort to the most abominable means to palm off their counterfeit pills as the public know that Dr. Smith's are the original and genuine. Several instances have come to public notice in which life has been endangered by the unfortunate use of the counterfeits. It is Dr Smith's Pills that are doing so much good in the country—as the following plainly show.

MORE MINISTERS.

Use and Recommend Dr Smith's Pills than all others

This is to certify that I have used the Sugar Coated Pills Manufactured by G. Benjamin Smith' of New York, for some time, and believe them to be a good medicine; also from inquiry in that city I am persuaded that he is the original inventor, and therefore is entitled to the benefit of the invention

S. WILLIAMS.

Pastor 1st Baptist Church.

From the Blue Hens's Chicken, (Del.)

We call the attention of our readers to the certificate of Rev. S. Williams, Pastor of 1st Baptist Church, Pittsburgh, in relation to Dr. Smith's Pills. We can ourselves bear testimony to the excellence of these Pills, one of us having used them and experienced great relief from them.

The above is the best paper in the State of Delaware.

The improved indian vegetable Pills, (Sugar Coated) are certainly doing much good in the whole country, and are highly esteemed if one half is true that people write and say about them. They are so easy in their operation that all like them. The editor of the Northern State Journal, (one of the largest and best papers in the State of N. Y.) writes as follows.

Watertown, May 31, 1846.

Dr. G. Benj Smith—

Dear Sir I was laid up with a bad cold some time since my return from N. Y. and during my illness I made trial of your pills and I must say I found them excellent. They are the best medicine for the purposes they are intended, that I have yet seen. I seldom take pills but I found yours entirely free from the objections to which other pills are liable. I hope they will continue to be a source of profit to you, as I doubt not they will be a means of relief to the afflicted on a large scale. Yours truly, J. GREEN.

Tonawanda, Pa., Sept. 18, 1846.

Dr G. Benj Smith—

Dear Sir, Your agent left with me a lot of your Sugar coated Pills, and I have but a few boxes left. Every box I have sold has given entire satisfaction. I have taken them myself and I consider them the best pills I have ever used, and I am not afraid to recommend them to the public. I wish a further supply at once.

Yours respectfully,

JACOB KIBLER, P. M.

Huntington, Ind., June 21, 1846.

Dr Smith—

Dear Sir. I am most out of your "Indian Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills," and find them selling so fast that I think you had better send me two gross immediately. They give such general satisfaction that people come at least twenty miles for them, and as it is generally known I am agent for them, I would be very sorry to get out

Yours respectfully,

SAML. MORE & Co.

BEWARE!!!

If G. BENJ. SMITH be not written with a pen on the bottom of the box, all "Sugar Coated" Pills are counterfeit!

Principal Office 179 Greenwich St, 1 door brick block, N. Y. Price 25 cents a box.
