POETRY.

For the Gazette.

WHY I'M SAD I CANNOT TELL.

As the deep'ning shades of evening
Steal adown yon Western height,
Shrouding all that erst was splendor
Into shadows of the night!
So around this heart of mine,
Dreams of sadness sometimes spread,
Turning what before was quiet
Into shadows of the dead.

Yet if you should ask the reason
Why my brow is dash'd with care,
Like a child my heart is swelling,
And I answer with a tear;
Thousand thoughts are rushing o'er me,
Thousand visions round me swell,
Past and present join the future,—
Why I'm sad I cannot tell!

HAROLD.

From the Columbia Washingtonian.

MY HUSBAND, WHO USES TOBACCO

He sits in his chair from morning to night,
'Tis smoke, chew, smoke,
He rises at dawn his pipe to light,
Goes puffing and ch wing with all h s might
Till the hour of sleep. 'T s his delight
To smoke, chew, smoke.

The quid goes in when his pipe goes out,
'Tis chew, chew, chew,
Now, a cloud of smoke pours from his throat,
Then, his mouth sends a constant stream afloat,
Sufficie nt to s ar a mill or a boat,
'Tis chew, chew, chew.

He sits all day in a smoke or fog,
'Tis puff, puff, puff,
He growls at his wife, the cat and dog,
He covers with filth the carpet and rug,
And his only answer, when I give him a jog,
Is puff, puff, puff.

Such a room, I'm sure, was ne'er seen before,
'Tis pipes, quids, pipes;
Quids are scattered from door to door,
With pipe stems the mantel is covered o'er,
Pig tail and fine cut strewed over the floor.
'Tis pipes, quids, pipes.

The house all o'er from end to end,
Is smoke, smoke smoke,
In whatever room my way I wend;
If I take his old clothes to patch and mend,
Ungrateful perfumes will ever ascend,
Of smoke, smoke, smoke.

At home or abroad, afar or near,
'Tis smoke, chew, smoke.
His mouth is stuffed from ear to ear,
Or puffing the stump of a pipe so dear,
And his days will end, I verily fear,
In smoke, smoke, smoke.

Young ladies, beware! live single, indeed,
Ere you marry a man who uses the weed;
Better that husbands you ever should lack, O.
Than marry a "husband who uses tobacco."

"SUGAR COATED" PILLS.

BEWARE! CAUTION!!

The increasing popularity of Dr G. BENJ SMITH'S IMPROVED INDIAN VEGETABLE SUGAR COATED PILLS, has induced a number of persons to make something they call PILLS, and coat them with sugar, in order to sell them for the genuine, while they do not possess a particle of the goodness, nor even assimilate in appearance to the original, Dr Smith's Pills. In short they are intended FRAUD upon the community. A minister who at first had an interest in an imitation Sugar Coated Pill, manufactured at Albany, N Y., has given them up as he says on account of the miserable dishonest parties concerned in manufacturing them The same party are now industriously circulating reports calculated to injure Dr Smith and to affect the reputation of his valuable pills; but rather than notice them in public. Dr Smith is about to institute legal proceedings against them for their slanders, as he has in another case against a similar party, in which he recovered a large amount of damages. These miserable imitators have to resort to the most abominable means to palm off their counterfeit pills as the public know that Dr. Smith's are the origin l and genuine. Several instances have come to public notice in which life has been endangered by the unfortunate use of the counterfeits. It is Dr Smith's Pills that are doing so much good in the country—as the following plainly show.

MORE MINISTERS.

Use and Recommend Dr Smith's Pills than all others

This is to certify that I have used the Sugar Coated Pills Manufactured by G. Benjamin Smith' of New York, for some time, and believe them to be a good medicine; also from inquiry in that city I am persuaded that he is the original inventor, and therefore is entitled to the benefit of the invention

S. WILLIAMS.
Pastor 1st Baptist Church.

From the Blue Hens's Chicken, (Del.)

We call the attention of our readers to the certificate of Rev. S. Williams, Pastor of 1st Baptist Church, Pittsburgh, in relation to Dr. Smith's Pills. We can ourselves bear testimony to the excellence of these Pills, one of us having used them and experienced great relief from them.

The above is the best paper in the State of Delaware.

The "improved indian vegetable Pills," (Sugar Coated) are certainly doing much good in the whole country, and are highly esteemed, if one half is true that people write and say about them. They are so easy in their operation that all like them. The editor of the Northern State Journal, (one of the largest and best papers in the State of N. Y.,) writes as follows.

Watertown, May 31, 1846.

Dr, G Benj Smith—

Dear Sir I was laid up with a bad cold some time since my return from N. Y. and during my illness I made trial of your pills and I must say I found them excellent. They are the best medicine for the purposes they are intended, that I have yet seen I seldom take pills, but I found yours entirely free from the objections to which other pills are liable. I hope they will continue to be a source of profit to you, as I doubt not they will be a means of relief to the afflicted on a large scale, Yours truly,

J. GREEN.

Tonawanda, Pa., Sept. 18, 1846.

Dr. G. Benj. Smith—

Dear Sir. Your agent left with me a lot of your Sugar coated Pills, and I have but a few boxes left. Every box I have sold has given entire satisfaction. I have taken them myself and I consider them the best pills I have ever used, and I am not afraid to recommend them to the public. I wish a further supply at once.

Yours respectfully,

JACOB KIBLER, P. M.

Huntington, Ind., June 21, 1846.

Dr. Smith—

Dear Sir. I am most out of your "Indian Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills," and find them selling so fast that I think you had better send me two gross immediately. They give such general satisfaction that people come at least twenty miles for them, and as it is generally known I am agent for them, I would be very sorry to get out

Yours respectfully,

SAML. MORE & Co.

"The Whig Standard,"

IS the title of a WEEKLY PAPER, issued every Saturday, in the City of Baltimore, at $1.00 per annum.

The Standard is thoroughly Whig and will zealously advocate all necessary reforms in the General, State and City government. It will expose the hypocrisy of those who advocate Conventional Reform in the name of Democracy, which is used as a cloak to hide from the yeomanry of Maryland, the most wild and revolutionary designs, all the Reform desired being nothing more nor less than the offices and emoluments of the State Government.

The Standard is designed to be a permanent Journal, and not a party ephemeral gotten up to feed the excitement of an approaching election and then die off. It will be free and fearless, controlled by neither "clique nor cabal" but open to the opinion of every good Whig in Old Maryland.

☞Subscriptions will be received for six months, where ten or more copies are sent to one address; in all cases payable in advance. Address, post paid,

The American Farmer.

The 2d volume of the new series of this journal will commence on the 1st of July, 1846, and the subsequent numbers will be issued on the first of each month as usual. The very extended circulation which the FARMER has attained since its publication in its present form, (being a large octavo, of 32 pages each No.) is a gratifying evidence that the labors of its conductors have not been in vain. The "FARMER" is the oldest agricultural publication in the United States, the volume just completed being the 27 year of its existence; and evinces in its vigorous old age a stamina which will favorably compare with any of its contemporaries.

Terms for the forthcoming volume—Single copies $1—Six copies for $5—Thirteen copies for $10. Sample Nos. will be sent to any one desirous of aiding in the circulation of the "Farmer".
