the payment of the salary of such preachers but in case such preachers shall not be furnished, or if furnished and not received and accepted by said congregation then in trust that the said annuity shall be appropriated and applied by the said Christian Newcomer, and Henry Kumler, or the survivor of them, or the heirs of such survivor towards defraying the expenses of preaching the Gospel among other congregations of Christians attached to the United Brethren in Christ aforesaid.

Item, I give and bequeath unto my neice, Araminta Ewaldt, daughter widowhood but no longer the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars per annum to be paid to her from time of my decease, out of the rest and residue of my estate in equal quarterly payments and applied toward the support of herself and the support and education of her children.

Item I devise and bequeath to my friend Nicholas Popplein, James Campbell and Philip Letting and the survivors or survivor of them, and the heirs executors and administrators of such survivor, my plantation lands and premises, situate and lying in the County of Frederick and State of Virginia, conveyed to me by James Wiggington, together with the stock farming utensils, implements of husbandry, and other goods and chattels thereon belonging to me, In trust and special confidence nevertheless and to for and upon the uses trusts and purposes hereinafter mentioned and expressed of and concerning the same that is to say, In Trust that my son George Heide, for and during the term of his natural life, shall be permitted and suffered to have, hold use occupy and enjoy the said premises and property, and the rents issues income and profits thereof, to receive take and apply to his use and benefit, and from and immediately after the decease of my son George then in trust for, and the said premises and property shall descend to, and be equally divided between all and every the children the said George now hath and may hereafter have, whenever the youngest, if a female attains the age of eighteen years or if a male, the age of twenty one years, To hold to them, their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns forever as tenants in common share and share alike, reserving however, one third of the said plantation, lands and premises, including the dwelling house and appurtenances, and one third of the stock farming utensils and other personal property thereon for the benefit of the widow of the said George, should he leave one, during the term of her natural life, but no longer, But in case, my said son George should depart this life without leaving any child or children, or descendants of the same, then in trust that the said Nicholas Popplein, James Campbell and Philip Letting or the survivors or survivor of them or the heirs, executors or administrators of the survivor, shall immediately after the decease of the said George, sell and dispose of the said plantation lands and premises, with the stock farming utensils and other personal estate thereon to the best advantage and for the most money that can be had therefor, and upon receipt of the purchase money, make execute and deliver, in due form of law, one or more good and sufficient deed or deeds of conveyance therefor to the purchaser or purchasers thereof his her or their heirs and assigns and from and immediately after such sale, and conveyance or conveyances, then in trust, as to the monies or proceeds arising therefrom or thereby, that the same shall be disposed of in manner following that is to say, one third thereof to the widow of the said George should he leave one, and she shall be then living and the remaining two thirds thereof or in case the said George leaves no widow, or she shall then be dead, then the whole of said proceeds shall be equally divided among my three daughters, Eliza Baynard, Caroline Ferguson and Mary Ann Norris and their respective representatives, share and share alike.

Item, I give to all and each of my negro, or mulatto slaves, their freedom at the expiration of their respective periods following, my black boy named Thomas whom I purchased of Beale Owings is to be free in July, eighteen hundred and thirty three Elizabeth whom I purchased of William N Wallace, to be free in January eighteen hundred and fifty and Mary whom I purchased of Major Wheeler is to be free in October eighteen hundred and forty, But if either of the said slaves shall absent themselves from the person or persons owning them before they are free then in that case he or she so absenting themselves, shall serve his or her owner, double the time of such absence.

Item, All the rest residue and remainder of my estate, real personal and mixed, of every kind and nature not herein before disposed of, I give and devise in manner following that is to say 1st. The dwelling House and warehouse, and lots of ground, and premises on Cheapside, in the City of Baltimore the lot of ground and premises on the south side of Baltimore Street between Paca and Green streets and extending to German Street, the lot of land and ground and premises now also situate in said city heretofore purchased by me of Samuel Chase, Trustee appointed by a Decree of the Chancellor of Maryland, all my annuities, or yearly ground rents with the fee and reversion of and in the grounds from which they arise, the lands Down on Fishing Creek in the State of Virginia, all moneys deposited by me in any of the banks, all monies due to me on notes of hand, and other debts owing to me together with my negroes, and all my stock of every description (except the ten thousand dollars worth of stock hereinafter devised for the benefit of my grand daughter Caroline Cooch) with all the residue of my personal property, not herein otherwise disposed of, shall be allotted to and equally divided between my three daughters, Eliza Baynard Caroline Ferguson and Mary Ann Norris in manner and by the persons hereinafter mentioned and directed to hold to my said three daughters, their heirs executors administrators and assigns absolutely as tenants in common without any limitation or restriction in fact and on account nevertheless of their shares of the whole residue of my estate, 2nd The sum of ten thousand dollars in Bank stock of the kind and description to be fixed on, and assigned by the persons appointed to divide the said rest and residue of