POETRY.

[In giving place to the following acute retort we feel bound to defend our correspondent from the assault made upon his French. The accidental prefix of the particle "To," has, we presume, offended our hyper-critical friend, as the address is implied in the motto itself. This, however, as well as the substitution of the apostrophe for a grave accent, we must do "Y." the justice to say, was a typographical error, and proceeded neither from the quill or the head of our correspondent.—The French is therefore, as yet, unimpeached. In passing we might recommend "Z" before turning critic to learn the difference between the acute and the grave accent. We print the A' as we find it, not being willing for the world if we could help it to depart from so correct a manuscript. We are ourselves "nothing if not critical." EDITOR.]

Reason and rhyme we know, "fond" youth,
Have wedded been—but now—(what treason!)
We've rhyme enough of yours, forsooth,
Without the shadow of a reason.

To whom addressed—she may discover,
But pray when next you wield a feather,
Do be advised, most ardent lover,
To mend your quill and French together.

EXCELSIOR

BY LONGEFELLOW.

The shades of night were falling fast,
As through an Alpine village passed
A youth; who bore 'mid snow and ice,
A banner with the strong device,
EXCELSIOR!

His brow was sad; his eye beneath
Flashed like a falchion from its sheath,
And like a silver clarion rung
The accents of that unknown tongue,
EXCELSIOR!

In happy home he saw the light
Of household fires gleam warm and bright;
Above, the spectral glaciers shone,
And from his lips escaped a groan,
EXCELSIOR!

"Try not the pass!" the old man said;
Dark lowers the tempest overhead,
The roaring torrent is deep and wide!"
And loud that clarion voice replied,
EXCELSIOR!

"O stay," the maiden said, "and rest
Thy weary head upon this breast!"
A tear stood in his bright blue eye,
But still he answered, with a sigh,
EXCELSIOR!

Beware the pine tree's withered branch!
Beware the awful avalanche!"
This was the peasant's last good-night;
A voice replied far up the height,
EXCELSIOR!

At break of day, as heavenward
The pious monks of Saint Bernard
Uttered the oft repeated prayer,
A voice cried through the startled air,
EXCELSIOR!

A traveller, by the faithful hound,
Half-buried in the snow was found,
Still grasping in his hand of ice
That banner with the strange device
EXCELSIOR!

There in the twilight cold and gray;
Lifeless, but beautiful, he lay,
And from the sky; serene and far,
A voice fell, like a falling star,
EXCELSIOR!

SONG.

BY LORD LYTTLETON.

WHEN Delia on the plain appears,
Aw'd by a thousand tender fears,
I would approach, but dare not move—
Tell me, my heart, can this be love?

Whene'er she speaks, my ravished ear
No other voice but hers can hear;
No other wit but hers approve—
Tell me, my heart, if this be love?

If she some other swain commend,
Though I was once his fondest friend,
His instant enemy I prove—
Tell me, my heart, if this be love?

When she is absent, I no more
Delight in all that pleased before;
The clearest spring, the shadiest grove—
Tell me, my heart, if this be love?

When fond of power, of beauty vain,
Her nets she spread for every swain,
I strove to hate, but vainly strove—
Tell me, my heart, if this be love?

The close elbowing of the poetical and practical is a most marked peculiarity of our country, and it is very well "sketched in charcoal" by the following quotation from a Down-East political speech:—"I have lived to see the wilderness blossom as the rose, the village church spire glisten in the rays morning sun, and one night the stream rose and carried away my mill, which cost one thousand dollars."

☞ A very polite young lady, seeing a doctor open his lance to bleed her, begged him to desist, as she never had anything to do with doctrinal points.

☞ 'Pray, Miss, don't eat me,' said a dandy to a young lady who had evinced some impatience at his impertinence.—'Don't be alarmed, sir, I am a Jewess,' was the lady's reply.

Manlove Hazel and Matilda his wife, and Ann Eliza and Henry Spencer, and others } In Chancery, 30th Decr., 1846.

THE object of the Bill filed in this cause is to obtain a decree for a conveyance by the Defendants to the complainants of the proper herein after mentioned.

The Bill states that a certain Richard Spencer of Talbot county departed this life seized and possessed in his demense as of fee and in certain Lands and Real Estate lying and being in Talbot county having first made and published in due form of Law his last will and testament in which among other clauses and devises are the following to wit. item the residue of my estate Real personal and mixed I give devise and bequeath unto my other children Robert, Joseph, Perry Susan, Jeremiah, and Edward, to them their heirs and assigns forever in equal proportions share and share alike comprehending however in the said divisions the accounts charged on my Books against my two eldest sons Robert, and Joseph, which said accounts are not to be considered a charge by my executors but are to be as so much paid them whenever a division of my property shall take place, as a part of their several portions. Item I give and bequeath, unto my daughter Susan Spencer, the free use, privilege and occupancy of a home with her mothor (or in case of her mothers death) with her brother Matthew and Henry, during her single life, and lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife Ellanor Spencer & my son Henry Spencer, sole executors of this my last, will and testament (with power to sell and dispose of such of my personal property as they may think proper or to sell my dwelling farm called "Beverly" at their discretion to raise whatever sum or sums of money, may be necessary for the payment of my just debts which I wish done as promptly as practicable revoking and annulling all former wills by me heretofore made, ratifying and confirming this and none other to be my last will and testament".

That Ellanor Spencer, widow of said testator and one of the executors in said will named took upon herself the sole execution of the trust as executrix by said last will and testament conferred and executed her Bond in due form of Law for the performance of her duties as executrix aforesaid and in due time pursuant to the discretionary power vested in her by the said last will and testament of her deceased husband Richard spencer sold and disposed of the dwelling farm or plantation of said Testator called "Beverly" to one Wrightson Jones of Talbot county who paid the entire purchase money for the same but failed to procure a deed therefore from the executrix aforesaid of the said Richard Spencer in her life time that the said Ellanor Spencer sole executrix as aforesaid hath since departed this life. That under and by virtue of judicial process in due form of law issued out of Talbot county court and to the Sheriff of said county directed against the goods chattles lands and tenaments of the said Wrightson Jones and others the said farm or plantation called "Beverly" and so sold as aforesaid to said Wrightson Jones was sold at public auction to the highest bidder and purchased by a certain Elizabeth Jones of Talbot county.

That subsequently a certain Matthew Spencer of Talbot county became the purchaser of said farm or plantation called "Beverly." That subsequently he himself became the purchaser of said farm or plantation called "Beverly" of and from the said Matthew Spencer," That notwithstanding the above recited mense conveyances for said farm or plantation called "Beverly" there hath been no conveyances from the executors of Richard Spencer deceased, o his heirs and legal representatives of the title of said Richard Spencer as by the above recital will appear. That Henry Spencer, above named and who was a child of Richard Spencer dec'd and left one of his executors but who declined acting as such hath since departed this life leaving a widow Matilda Spencer, who hath since intermarried with a certain Manlove Hazel and the following children to wit, Ann, Eliza, Matilda, Ellen, and Henry Spencer, and that the said Ellen Spencer hath also since departed this life a minor of tender years intestate and without issue That Susan Spencer, in said Will named hath since intermarried with a certain Stephen Harrison of Talbot county since deceased leaving said Susan surviving him that Robert Spencer also departed this life intestate and without issue, That Edward Spencer, hath also since departed this life residing in the City of Baltimore leaving widow Spencer and the following children Edward Spencer, Thomas Mummy Spencers and Robert Spencer all minors of tender year that Joseph Spencer, still resides in Talbot county Maryland that Perry and Jeremiah Spencer resides in the State of Missouri beyond the Jurisdiction of this court, That the said Manlove Hazel and Matilda his wife and Ann Eliza, Matilda and Henry Spencer, children of Henry Spencer deceased also resides in the State of Delaware and beyond the jurisdiction of this court. That Matthew Spencer resides in Baltimore city, That Susan, widow of Stephen Harrison dec'd., also reside in Talbot county Spencer widow of Edward Spencer and his minor children aforesaid reside in Baltimore city.

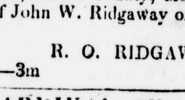

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered that the Complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Talbot county, once in each successive week for one month before the 10th day of February next give notice to the said absent defendants of the substance and object of this bill and warn them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the thirtieth day of June next to answer the premise and shew cause if any they have why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.

for Town and Country.
Devoted to Belles-Letters, Music, Fine Arts, Fashions, &c.

The well-known celebrity in Europe and this Country, of Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, has induced the subscriber to commence the re publication of this fashionable London Monthly.

It is a matter of surprise that the Republication of this Work was not commenced some years since. On looking over some of the late numbers, we find them filled with Stories and Poetry, and Narratives, the most of which fall but little behind those published in the Edinburgh Work, and many surpass even the emanations from the Giant intellects of the contributors to the great Northern Magazine. The best writers of the day contribute to its pages.

It has now been published seventeen years in London, and has a circulation exceeding 70,000 copies through England, Scotland, Ireland, and the continent of Europe. It is translated into several of the continental languages—it being the only instance of an English Magazine receiving that compliment.

The publication will commence in October next, and will be continued monthly.

The publication price of the above wark in London, is six dollars.

"SUGAR COATED" PILLS.

BEWARE! CAUTION!!

The increasing popularity of Dr G. BENJ. SMITH'S IMPROVED INDIAN VEGETABLE SUGAR COATED PILLS, has induced a number of persons to make something they call PILLS, and coat them with sugar, in order to sell them for the genuine while they do not possess a particle of the goodness, nor even assimilate in appearance to the original, Dr. Smith's Pills. In short they are intended FRAUD upon the community. A minister who at first had an interest in an imitation Sugar Coated Pill, manufactured at Albany, N. Y., has given them up as he says on account of the miserable dishonest parties concerned in manufacturing them The same party are now industriously circulating reports calculated to injure Dr Smith and to affect the reputation of his valuable pills; but rather than notice them in public. Dr Smith is about to institute legal proceedings against them for their slanders, as he has in another case against a similar party in which he recovered a large amount of damages. These miserable imitators have to resort to the most abominable means to palm off their counterfeit pills as the public know that Dr. Smith's are the original and genuine Several instances have come to public notice in which life has been endangered by the unfortunate use of the counterfeits. It is Dr Smith's Pills that are doing so much good in the country—as the following plainly show.

MORE MINISTERS.

Use and Recommend Dr Smith's Pills than all others.

This is to certify that I have used the Sugar Coated Pills Manufactured by G. Benjamin Smith of New York, for some time, and believe them to be a good medicine; also, from inquiry in that city, I am persuaded that he is the original inventor, and therefore is entitled to the benefit of the invention

S. WILLIAMS.
Pastor 1st Baptist Church.

From the Blue Hens's Chicken, (Del.)

We call the attention of our readers to the certificate of Rev. S. Williams, Pastor of 1st Baptist Church, Pittsburgh, in relation to Dr. Smith's Pills. We can ourselves bear testimony to the excellence of these Pills, one of us having used them and experienced great relief from them.

The above is the best paper in the State of Delaware.

The "improved indian vegetable Pills," (Sugar Coated,) are certainly doing much good in the whole country, and are highly esteemed, if one half is true that people write and say about them. They are so easy in their operation, that all like them. The editor of the Northern State Journal, (one of the largest and best papers in the State of N Y.,) writes as follows.

Watertown, May 31, 1846.

Dr. G Benj Smith—

Dear Sir I was laid up with a bad cold some time since my return from N Y. and during my illness I made trial of your pills and I must say I found them excellent. They are the best medicine for the purposes they are intended, that I have yet seen I seldom take pills, but I found yours entirely free from the objections to which other pills are liable. I hope they will continue to be a source of profit to you, as I doubt not they will be a means of relief to the afflicted on a large scale. Yours truly,

J. GREEN.

Tonawanda, Pa., Sept. 18, 1846.

Dr. G. Benj. Smith—

Dear Sir; Your agent left with me a lot of your Sugar coated Pills, and I have but a few boxes left. Every box I have sold has given entire satisfaction. I have taken them myself and I consider them the best pills I have ever used, and I am not afraid to recommend them to the public. I wish a further supply at once.

Yours respectfully,
JACOB KIBLER, P. M.

Huntington, Ind., June 21, 1846.

Dr. Smith—

Dear Sir. I am most out of your "Indian Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills," and find them selling so fast that I think you had better send me two gross immediately. They give such general satisfaction that people come at least twenty miles for them, and as it is generally known I am agent for them, I would be very sorry to get out.

Yours respectfully,
SAML. MORE & Co.

BEWARE!!!

If G BENJ SMITH be not written with a pen on the bottom of the box, all "Sugar Coated" Pills are counterfeit!

"The Whig Standard."

IS the title of a WEEKLY PAPER, issued every Saturday, in the City of Baltimore, at $1,00 per annum.

The Standard is thoroughly Whig and will zealously advocate all necessary reforms in the General, State and City government. It will expose the hypocrisy of those who advocate Conventional Reform in the name of Democracy, which is used as a cloak to hide from the yeomanry of Maryland, the most wild and revolutionary designs, all the Reform desired being nothing more nor less than the offices and emoluments of the State Government.

The Standard is designed to be a permanent Journal, and not a party ephemeral gotten up to feed the excitement of an approaching election and then die off. It will be free and fearless, controlled by neither "clique nor cabal" but open to the opinion of every good Whig in Old Maryland.

☞ Subscriptions will be received for six months, where ten or more copies are sent to one address; in all cases payable in advance. Address, post paid,

Corner Baltimore and Calvert streets.

The American Farmer.

The 2d volume of the new series of this journal will commence on the 1st of July, 1846, and the subsequent numbers will be issued on the first of each month as usual. The very extended circulation which the FARMER has attained since its publication in its present form (being a large octavo, of 32 pages each No.) is a gratifying evidence that the labors of its conductors have not been in vain. The "FARMER" is the oldest agricultural publication in the United States, the volume just completed being the 27 year of its existence; and evinces in its vigorous old age a stamina which will favorably compare with any of its contemporaries.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY,

THE great remedy for Consumption, & the best medecine known to Man for Asthma of every stage, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Influenza, Coughs, Colds, Bleeding of the Lungs, Shortness of Breath, pains and weakness in the side, breast, &c and all other diseases of the PULMONARY ORGANS.

A very important disease over which this "Balsam" exerts a very powerful influence, is that of a DISEASED LIVER In this complaint it has undoubtedly proved more efficacious than any remedy hitherto employed, and in numerous instances when patients had endured long and severe suffering from the disease, without receiving the least benefit from various remedies, and when Mercury has been resorted to in vain, the use of this Balsam has restored the Liver to a healthy action, and in many instances effected PERMANENT CURES, after every known remedy had failed to produce this desired effect.

Besides its astonishing efficacy in the diseases above mentioned, we also find it a very effectual remedy in ASTHMA, a complaint in which it has been extensively used with decided success, even in cases of years standing.

It not only emanates from a regular Physician, but has also been well tested in all the complaints for which it is recommended. It is not my intention, therefore, either to cloak it in mistery or in any way deceive the public by overrating its virtues on the contrary, I shall simply endeavour to give a brief statement of its usefulness, and flatter myself that its surprising efficacy will enable me to furnish such proofs of its virtues as will satisfy the most incredulous, that Consumption may and "Can be Cured," if this medicine be resorted to in time.

Opinions of a regular Physician.
Exeter, Me. Sept, 30, 1845.

This certifies that I have recommended the use of WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY for diseases of the Lungs, for two years past and many bottles to my knowledge have been used by my patients, all with beneficial results. In two cases where it was thought confirmed consumption had taken place, the Wild Cherry effected a cure. E BOYEN, Physician.
at Exeter Corner.

NO QUACKERY! NO DECEPTION!

All published statements of cures performed by this medicine, are, in every respect, TRUE.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS & IMITATIONS.

The unparalleled and astonishing efficacy of Dr. Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry in all the diseases for which it is recommended, curing many cases after the skill of the best physicians was unavailing, has effected a large & increasing demand for it. This fact has caused several unprincipled counterfeiters and imitators to palm off spurious mixtures of similar name and appearance, for the genuine Balsam

Be careful and get the genuine DR. WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. None genuine unless signed by I BUTTS. Address all orders to SETH W. FOWLE. Boston Mass.
