POETRY.

SONG OF THE POOR.

BY R. NICHOL.

We are lowly—very lowly!
Misfortune is our crime;
We have been trodden under foot
From all recorded time.
A yoke upon our necks is laid,
A burden to endure;
To suffer is our legacy—
The portion of the poor!

We are lowly—very lowly!
And scorned from day to day—
Yet we have something of our own
Power cannot take away.
By tyrants we are toiled to death—
By cold and hunger killed;
But peace is in our heart—it speaks
Of duties all fulfilled!

We are lowly—very lowly!
Nor house nor home have we—
But there's a heritage for us
While we have our eyes to see.
They cannot hide the lovely stars—
Words in creation's book—
Although they hold their fields and lands,
Corrupted by our look!

We are lowly—very lowly!
And yet the fairest flowers!
That by the wayside raise their eyes—
Thank God, they still are ours;
Ours is the streamlet's mellow voice,
And ours the common dew;
We still may gaze on hill and plain,
And field and meadow too!

We are lowly—very lowly!
But when the cheerful spring
Comes forth with flowers upon her feet,
To hear the throstle sing,
Although we dare not seek the shade
Where haunt the forest deer;
The waving leaves we still can see,
The humming birds can hear.

We are lowly—very lowly!
Our hedge-row paths are gone,
Where woodbines laid their fairy hands
The hawthern's nest upon.
Yet slender mercies still are felt,
And Heaven doth endure,
And hears the prayers that upwards rise
From the afflicted poor!

IT RAINS.

BY SPOONS OF THE N. Y. MERCURY.

By Jove! how like th' old Nick it rains!
Tom cats and dogs!—
Baptising forests, fields and plains,
And hastening hogs
Homeward along the narrow lanes—
But fine for frogs.

The little pigs are scampering to their pens;
With all their might
Unto the shed betake the hens,
In a sad plight;
And bears and 'coons flee to their dens,
To snooze till night.

The birds seek shelter in the trees,
But the ducks squddle
With perfect unconcern and ease
In every puddle,
While folded sheep, like hive-pent bees,
Together huddle.

The farmer by the window sits,
Smoking his pipe;
Anon upon the floor he spits—
The wife doth wipe,
And scold, and broom the cats and kits—
She gives 'em 'tripe.'

Into the house old Towser takes,
All dripping wet;
Unmannerly himself he shakes
On Moll and Bet,
And on the babe, who squalling wakes—
The darling pet!

Free from all cares and earthly pains,
Granny doth snore,
With nothing to disturb her brains—
The fire before;
The pot upsets!—"La, me! when't rains,
It's sure to pour!

AN ORATOR AT A LOSS.—The following is a literal copy of a speech we heard made not long since in one of our legislative bodies in this enlightened Republic:

"Well the subject to be excussed, Mr. Speaker, is whether the state of our finances will allow a high salary. I confer it don't. I am not the man to speak for straws. I didn't come here as a Locofoco or a Whig.

I didn't come here to give away the people's monies to officers to live on the fat of the land. (Pause.) Jist think of our ancestors in future days, they lived, while fighting the British Tiger, on pork and greens, so that I think it is'nt right any how to give big salaries in these days of intrenchment. (Long pause.) Well the question to be excussed and termined upon is whether a few cents will be saved or not—so that I include it will. (Another long pause.) I can't get hold of the plaguy thing. (Another pause and the shake of the head.) Our fathers, Mr. Speaker, before us lived to a very numerous age without distravagant salaries. I didn't purpose on speaking, but them are my sentiments.

CURIOUS CALCULATION.—It has been calculated that a single penny put out at 5 per cent. compound interest at the birth of our Saviour, would have produced in the year 1806, the enormous sum of £290 9-91,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000 sterling, which would make a bulk of solid gold 110 million times the magnitude of the whole earth; whilst a simple interest the same sum in the same space of time would only have produced 7s. 6d.

YOUTH'S CABINET.
FRANCIS C. WOODWORTH, EDITOR
Vol. 11. for 1847.

THIS popular monthly for young people commences the second year of its new series in January, 1847. It may now be regarded as permanently established; and both the editor and publisher, encouraged by their past success, will endeavor not only to deserve the flattering encomiums so generally bestowed upon their labors, but to make the Cabinet a greater favorite among its readers than ever. The 2d volume will be enriched with a variety of Beautiful Embellishments from Original Designs.

The steel vignette, engraved from a design by one of the first artists in the country; is of itself a gem, rarely surpassed in the most costly magazines. When completed the yearly volume embraces.

ONE HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS.

several pieces of the choicest music, and nearly four hundred octavo pages.

The contents of this magazine are for the most part original. It is the aim of the editor to afford amusement and instruction of the best kind and in the most pleasing manner—to oppose the strongest barriers against vice—to multiply incentives to virtue—and while every thing sectarian is carefully discarded, to impress upon the young mind and heart the supreme importance of the truths of revelation, and the necessity of spiritual religion.

for Town and Country.
Devoted to Belles-Letters, Music, Fine Arts, Fashions, &c.

The well-known celebrity in Europe and this Country, of Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine has induced the subscriber to commence the re publication of this fashionable London Monthly.

It is a matter of surprise that the Re-publication of this Work was not commenced some years since. On looking over some of the late numbers, we find them filled with Stories and Poetry, and Narratives, the most of which fall but little behind those published in the Edinburgh Work, and many surpass even the emanations from the Giant intellects of the contributors to the great Northern Magazine. The best writers of the day contribute to its pages.

It has now been published seventeen years in London, and has a circulation exceeding 70,000 copies through England, Scotland, Ireland, and the continent of Europe. It is translated into several the continental languages—it being the only instance of an English Magazine receiving that compliment.

The publication will commence in October next, and will be continued monthly.

The publication price of the above wark, in London, is six dollars.

The London World of Fashion,
And Continental Feuilletons.

A Monthly Publication of the Courts of London and Paris;—Dedicated to High Life, Fashionables, Fashions, Polite Literature, Fine Arts, the Operas, Theatres, &c. Edited by several Literary & Fashionable Characters

In the above two works will be found, all the Gossip of London, Paris, and the principal Cities of the continent of Europe. Royal Gossip—Description of the Queen's Drawing Room Parties, with accurate accounts of the dresses of the Ladies of Rank—Noblemen's Fetes—Description of every New Opera, with criticisms on the same—Performers, &c. "The Whig Standard,"

IS the title of a WEEKLY PAPER, issued every Saturday, in the City of Baltimore, at $1,00 per annum.

The Standard is thoroughly Whig and will zealously advocate all necessary reforms in the General, State and City government. It will expose the hypocrisy of those who advocate Conventional Reform in the name of Democracy, which is used as a cloak to hide from the yeomanry of Maryland, the most wild and revolutionary designs, all the Reform desired being nothing more nor less than the offices and emoluments of the State Government.

The Standard is designed to be a permanent Journal, and not a party ephemeral gotten up to feed the excitement of an approaching election and then die off. It will be free and fearless, controlled by neither "clique nor cabal" but open to the opinion of every good Whig in Old Maryland.

The American Farmer.

The 2d volume of the new series of this journal will commence on the 1st of July, 1846, and the subsequent numbers will be issued on the first of each month as usual. The very extended circulation which the FARMER has attained since its publication in its present form. (being a large octavo, of 32 pages each No.) is a gratifying evidence that the labors of its conductors have not been in vain. The "FARMER" is the oldest agricultural publication in the United States, the volume just completed being the 27 year of its existence, and evinces in its vigorous old age, a stamina which will favorably compare with any of its contemporaries.

Terms for the forthcoming volume—Single copies $1—Six copies for $5—Thirteen copies for $10. Sample Nos. will be sent to any one desirous of aiding in the circulation of the "Farmer".

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY,

THE great remedy for Consumption, & the best medecine known to Man for Asthma of every stage, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Influenza, Coughs, Colds, Bleeding of the Lungs, Shortness of Breath, pains and weakness in the side, breast, &c. and all other diseases of the PULMONARY ORGANS.

A very important disease over which this "Balsam" exerts a very powerful influence, is that of a DISEASED LIVER. In this complaint it has undoubtedly proved more efficacious than any remedy hitherto employed, and in numerous instances when patients had endured long and severe suffering from the disease, without receiving the least benefit from various remedies, and when Mercury has been resorted to in vain, the use of this Balsam has restored the Liver to a healthy action, and in many instances effected PERMANENT CURES, after every known remedy had failed to produce this desired effect.

Besides its astonishing efficacy in the diseases above mentioned, we also find it a very effectual remedy in ASTHMA, a complaint in which it has been extensively used with decided success, even in cases of years standing.

It not only emanates from a regular Physician, but has also been well tested in all the complaints for which it is recommended. It is not my intention, therefore, either to cloak it in mistery, or in any way deceive the public by overrating its virtues; on the contrary, I shall simply endeavour to give a brief statement of its usefulness, and flatter myself that its surprising efficacy will enable me to furnish such proofs of its virtues as will satisfy the most incredulous that Consumption may and "Can be Cured," if this medicine be resorted to in time.

Opinions of a regular Physician.

Exeter, Me. Sept, 30, 1845.

This certifies that I have recommended the use of WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY for diseases of the Lungs, for two years past and many bottles to my knowledge have been used by my patients, all with beneficial results. In two cases where it was thought confirmed consumption had taken place, the Wild Cherry effected a cure. E BOYEN, Physician, at Exeter Corner.

NO QUACKERY! NO DECEPTION!

All published statements of cures performed by this medicine, are, in every respect, TRUE.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS & IMITATIONS

The unparalleled and astonishing efficacy of Dr. Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry in all the diseases for which it is recommended, curing many cases after the skill of the best physicians was unavailing, has effected a large & increasing demand for it. This fact has caused several unprincipled counterfeiters and imitators to palm off spurious mixtures of similar name and appearance, for the genuine Balsam

Be careful and get the genuine DR. WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. None genuine unless signed by I BUTTS. Address all orders to SETH W. FOWLE, Boston Mass.

"SUGAR COATED" PILLS.
BEWARE! CAUTION!!

The increasing popularity of Dr G. BENJ. SMITH'S IMPROVED INDIAN VEGETABLE SUGAR COATED PILLS, has induced a number of persons to make something they call PILLS, and coat them with sugar, in order to sell them for the genuine, while they do not possess a particle of the goodness, nor even assimilate in appearance to the original, Dr. Smith's Pills. In short they are intended FRAUD upon the community. A minister who at first had an interest in an imitation Sugar Coated Pill, manufactured at Albany, N. Y., has given them up, as he says on account of the miserable dishonest parties concerned in manufacturing them. The same party are now industriously circulating reports calculated to injure Dr. Smith and to affect the reputation of his valuable pills; but rather than notice them in public. Dr Smith is about to institute legal proceedings against them for their slanders, as he has in another case against a similar party, in which he recovered a large amount of damages. These miserable imitators have to resort to the most abominable means to palm off their counterfeit pills as the public know that Dr. Smith's are the original and genuine. Several instances have come to public notice in which life has been endangered by the unfortunate use of the counterfeits. It is Dr Smith's Pills that are doing so much good in the country—as the following plainly show.

MORE MINISTERS.

Use and Recommend Dr Smith's Pills than all others

This is to certify that I have used the Sugar Coated Pills Manufactured by G. Benjamin Smith of New York, for some time, and believe them to be a good medicine; also, from inquiry in that city, I am persuaded that he is the original inventor, and therefore is entitled to the benefit of the invention.

S. WILLIAMS.
Pastor 1st Baptist Church.

From the Blue Hens's Chicken, (Del.)

We call the attention of our readers to the certificate of Rev. S. Williams, Pastor of 1st Baptist Church, Pittsburgh, in relation to Dr. Smith's Pills. We can ourselves bear testimony to the excellence of these Pills, one of us having used them and experienced great relief from them.

The above is the best paper in the State of Delaware.

The "improved indian vegetable Pills," (Sugar Coated,) are certainly doing much good in the whole country, and are highly esteemed, it one half is true that people write and say about them. They are so easy in their operation that all like them. The editor of the Northern State Journal, (one of the largest and best papers in the State of N. Y.,) writes as follows.

Watertown, May 31, 1846.

Dr. G Benj Smith—

Dear Sir I was laid up with a bad cold some time since my return from N. Y. and during my illness I made trial of your pills and I must say I found them excellent, they are the best medicine for the purposes they are intended, that I have yet seen. I seldom take pills, but I found yours entirely free from the objections to which other pills are liable. I hope they will continue to be a source of profit to you, as I doubt not they will be a means of relief to the afflicted on a large scale. Yours truly,

J. GREEN.

Tonawanda, Pa., Sept. 18, 1846.

Dr. G. Benj. Smith—

Dear Sir. Your agent left with me a lot of your Sugar coated Pills, and I have but a few boxes left. Every box I have sold has given entire satisfaction. I have taken them myself and I consider them the best pills I have ever used, and I am not afraid to recommend them to the public. I wish a further supply at once.,

Yours respectfully,
JACOB KIBLER, P. M.

Huntington, Ind., June 21, 1846.

Dr. Smith –

Dear Sir. I am most out of your "Indian Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills," and find them selling so fast that I think you had better send me two gross immediately. They give such general satisfaction that people come at least twenty miles for them, and as it is generally known I am agent for them, I would be very sorry to get out.

Yours respectfully,
SAML. MORE & Co.

BEWARE!!!

If G. BENJ SMITH be not written with a pen on the bottom of the box, all "Sugar Coated" Pills are counterfeit!
