THE SONG OF THE EDITOR.

An Editor sat in his office one night,
Resting his wearied hand,
Though, alas! for him, no visions bright
Would come at his command.
But he thought of the coming day,
With its ever-recurring care,
His voice it uttered a mournful lay
To his faithful old arm-chair.

Write! write! write!
Was there ever such labor as mine!
Write! write! write!
Paragraph, column, and line.
At early dawn, at midnight dark,
The lamp must yield its feeble spark;
There is no leisure time for me,
A holyday I never see.

Write! write! write!
Was there ever such labor as mine?
Write! write! write!
Paragraph, column, and line.
What though the care worn brow may ache.
What though the tired arm may shake,
The lonely task I must pursue
With anxious care, concealed from view.

Write! write! write!
Was there ever such labor as mine?
Write! write! write!
Paragraph, column, and line.
The call for copy meets the ear,
The devil's hurried step is near;
the temples throb—the eye balls pain,
And whirling thoughts flit through the brain,

Write! write! write!
Was there ever such labor as mine?
Write! write! write!
Paragraph, column, and line.
And oh! of all the varied throng,
Who may peruse the columns long,
How many give a passing thought
To all the care with which they're fraught,
Or dream how weary is the head.
Thus toiling for the children's bread!

LABOR.

BY THOMAS BUCHANAN READ.

"Labor, labor!" sounds the anvil
"Labor, labor, until death!"
And the file with voice discordant,
"Labor, endless labor!" saith.
While the bellows to the embers,
Speaks of labor in each breath.

"Labor, labor!" in the harvest,
Saith the whetting of the sythe,
And the mill-wheel tells of labor
Under waters falling blithe;
"Labor, labor!" groan the millstones,
To the bands that whirl and writhe!

And the woodmen tells of labor,
In his echo-waking blows;
In the forest, in the cabin,
'T is the dearest word he knows!
"Labor, labor!" saith the spirit,
And with labor comes repose.

"Labor!" saith the loaded wagon,
Moving t'ward the distant mart.
"Labor!" groans the heavy steamer,
As she cleaves the waves apart.
Beating like that iron engine,
"Labor, labor!" cries the heart!

Yes, the heart of man cries "labor!"
While it labors in the breast.
Hear the Ancient and Eternal,
In the Word which he hath blest,
Saying, "Six days shalt thou labor,
On the seventh thou shalt rest!"

Then how beautiful at evening,
When the toilsome week is done,
To behold the blacksmith's embers
Fade together with the sun;
And to think the doors of labor
Are all closing up like one!

SATAN NONPLUSSED BY A NATURALIST.—It is said of Cuvier, that, walking one day where Æneas is said to have walked, a certain repulsive personage met him and demanded of him worship.

"No, I will not worship you," said Cuvier.

"Yes, you must."

"No, I shall not," replied the other.

"Then," said the demon, "if you will not, I will eat you."

Cuvier eyed him deliberately; and instead of defying him, as no doubt he might have done, preferred falling back upon the natural history lessons of his mundane life, and said,

"Horns and cloven feet—graminivorous. You eat me? Nonsense!"

☞ A traveller, with his wife and child, wishing to secure a deck passage down the Ohio, made application to the Captain in the following terms:—

"Capting, are you the mate?"

"To be sure not—but what is wanting?"

"What do you charge for a deck passage for three of us down to Cincinnati?"

"Four dollars each."

"Four dollars each! but that's dear.—Well, Capting, do you eat us, or do we eat ourselves?"

"You eat yourselves, to be sure."

ANECDOTE.—Mr. Webster, (a Washington correspondent states while arguing a case this week in the Supreme Court at Washington, had occasion to refer to 'Dane's Abridgement,' a book somewhat known to the profession. What page and what volume of Dale's Abridgement did you mention? asked an honorable member of the Court. 'Dane, I said, may it please the cour', not Dale. I know not Dale.—Dane, 'the royal Dane,' I mentioned. Mr Dane was royal Professor of Law at Cambridge. 'One Nathan Dane,' somewhat commemorated in a certain reply to a speech of Mr. Hayne's on 'Foote's Resolutions.'—Boston Journal.

POSTPONED SALE.

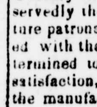

WOOD LOTS

FOR SALE,

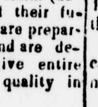

ONE MILE FROM EASTON.

THE subscriber, having been frequently applied to for wood from his farm, near Easton, has determined to offer at public sale, at the Court-house on SATURDAY, the 6th day of February, at two o'clock P. M.

EIGHT WOOD LOTS, of about seven acres each all in one body the centre of which is less than one mile, from the town,

Also, FOUR CLEARED LOTS, of similar size lying between the wood lots, and the main road, the said lots being part of a tract of land called SHARPS CHANCE. The wood on these lots has not been cut upon, and a strip on the West side of them which was cleared by Mr. E. Rozell and Capt. R. Thomas, yielded about thirty cords per acre The land is high and suitable for cultivation and is naturally adapted to grass Part of the cleared land has been marled.

These lots have been laid off by the county Surveyor, the lines cleared and the corners marked by stakes. A straight road has been laid out through the middle of the tract, leading to all the lots. The plot (by which the land will be sold) may be seen at the office of J. Buzman Kerr.

TERMS —The purchase money will be paid in three equal instalments, at six, twelve and eighteen months, with legal interest thereon from the day of sale, the purchaser giving bond with approved security, before taking possession. On the payment of the last Instalment, the land will be conveyed to the purchasers free of all incumbrances.

YOUTH'S CABINET.

FRANCIS C. WOODWORTH, EDITOR

Vol. 11. for 1847.

THIS popular monthly for young people commences the second year of its new series in January, 1847. It may now be regarded as permanently established; and both the editor and publisher, encouraged by their past success, will endeavor not only to deserve the flattering encomiums so generally bestowed upon their labors, but to make the Cabinet a greater favorite among its readers than ever. The 2d volume will be enriched with a variety of Beautiful Embellishments from Original Designs.

The steel vignette, engraved from a design by one of the first artists in the country; is of itself a gem, rarely surpassed in the most costly magazines. When completed the yearly volume embraces.

ONE HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS.

several pieces of the choicest music, and nearly four hundred octavo pages.

The contents of this magazine are for the most part original. It is the aim of the editor to afford amusement and instruction of the best kind and in the most pleasing manner—to oppose the strongest barriers against vice—to multiply incentives to virtue—and while every thing sectarian is carefully discarded, to impress upon the young mind and heart the supreme importance of the truths of revelation, and the necessity of spiritual religion.

Blackwood's Lady's Magazine,

And Gazette of the Fashionable World.—for Town and Country.

Devoted to Belles-Letters, Music, Fine Arts, Fashions, &c.

The well-known celebrity in Europe and this Country, of Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, has induced the subscriber to commence the re publication of this fashionable London Monthly.

It is a matter of surprise that the Re-publication of this Work was not commenced some years since. On looking over some of the late numbers, we find them filled with Stories and Poetry, and Narratives, the most of which fall but little behind those published in the Edinburgh Work, and many surpass even the emanations from the Giant intellects of the contributors to the great Northern Magazine. The best writers of the day contribute to its pages.

It has now been published seventeen years in London, and has a circulation exceeding 70,000 copies through England, Scotland, Ireland, and the continent of Europe. It is translated into several the continental languages —it being the only instance of an English Magazine receiving that compliment.

The publication will commence in October next, and will be continued monthly.

The publication price of the above wark, in London, is six dollars.

The London World of Fashion,

And Continental Feuilletons.

A Monthly Publication of the Courts of London and Paris;—Dedicated to High Life, Fashionables, Fashions, Polite Literature, Fine Arts, the Operas, Theatres, &c. Edited by several Literary & Fashionable Characters

In the above two works will be found, all the Gossip of London, Paris, and the principal Cities of the continent of Europe—Royal Gossip—Description of the Queen's Drawing Room Parties, with accurate accounts of the dresses of the Ladies of Rank—Noblemen's Fetes—Description of every New Opera, with criticisms on the same—Performers, &c. Tales by the best English Authors. Poetry, New Music. Her Majesty's visit to Different Noblemen—Description of New Paintings, & the Artists—Varieties. &c.

"The Whig Standard,"

IS the title of a WEEKLY PAPER, issued every Saturday, in the City of Baltimore, at $1,00 per annum.

The Standard is thoroughly Whig and will zealously advocate all necessary reforms in the General, State and City government. It will expose the hypocrisy of those who advocate Conventional Reform in the name of Democracy, which is used as a cloak to hide from the yeomanry of Maryland, the most wild and revolutionary designs, all the Reform desired being nothing more nor less than the offices and emoluments of the State Government.

The Standard is designed to be a permanent Journal, and not a party ephemeral gotten up to feed the excitement of an approaching election and then die off. It will be free and fearless, controlled by neither "clique nor cabal" but open to the opinion of every good Whig in Old Maryland.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY,

THE great remedy for Consumption, & the best medeeine known to Man for Asthma of every stage, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Influenza, Coughs, Colds, Bleeding of the Lungs, Shortness of Breath, pains and weakness in the side, breast, &c. and all other diseases of the PULMONARY ORGANS.

A very important disease over which this "Balsam" exerts a very powerful influence, is that of a DISEASED LIVER. In this complaint it has undoubtedly proved more efficacious than any remedy hitherto employed, and in numerous instances when patients had endured long and severe suffering from the disease, without receiving the least benefit from various remedies, and when Mercury has been resorted to in vain, the use of this Balsam has restored the Liver to a healthy action, and in many instances effected PERMANENT CURES, after every known remedy had failed to produce this desired effect.

Besides its astonishing efficacy in the diseases above mentioned, we also find it a very effectual remedy in ASTHMA, a complaint in which it has been extensively used with decided success, even in cases of years standing.

It not only emanates from a regular Physician, but has also been well tested in all the complaints for which it is recommended. It is not my intention, therefore, either to cloak it in mistery, or in any way deceive the public by overrating its virtues; on the contrary, I shall simply endeavour to give a brief statement of its usefulness, and flatter myself that its surprising efficacy will enable me to furnish such proofs of its virtues as will satisfy the most incredulous, that Consumption may and "Can be Cured," if this medicine be resorted to in time.

Opinions of a regular Physician.

Exeter, Me. Sept, 30, 1845.

This certifies that I have recommended the use of WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY for diseases of the Lungs, for two years past and many bottles to my knowledge have been used by my patients, all with beneficial results. In two cases where it was thought confirmed consumption had taken place, the Wild Cherry effected a cure. E BOYEN, Physician.
at Exeter Corner.

NO QUACKERY! NO DECEPTION!

All published statements of cures performed by this medicine, are, in every respect, TRUE.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS & IMITATIONS.

The unparalleled and astonishing efficacy of Dr. Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry in all the diseases for which it is recommended, curing many cases after the skill of the best physicians was unavailing, has effected a large & increasing demand for it. This fact has caused several unprincipled counterfeiters and imitators to palm off spurious mixtures of similar name and appearance, for the genuine Balsam

Be careful and get the genuine DR. WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. None genuine unless signed by I BUTTS. Address all letters to SETH W. FOWLE, Boston Mass.

"SUGAR COATED" PILLS.
BEWARE! CAUTION!!

The increasing popularity of Dr G. BENJ. SMITH'S IMPROVED INDIAN VEGETABLE SUGAR COATED PILLS, has induced a number of persons to make something they call PILLS, and coat them with sugar, in order to sell them for the genuine, while they do not possess a particle of the goodness, nor even assimilate in appearance to the original, Dr. Smith's Pills. In short they are intended FRAUD upon the community. A minister who at first had an interest in an imitation Sugar Coated Pill, manufactured at Albany, N. Y., has given them up as he says on account of the miserable dishonest parties concerned in manufacturing them. The same party are now industriously circulating reports calculated to injure Dr. Smith and to affect the reputation of his valuable pills; but rather than notice them in public. Dr Smith is about to institute legal proceedings against them for their slanders, as he has in another case against a similar party, in which he recovered a large amount of damages. These miserable imitators have to resort to the most abominable means to palm off their counterfeit pills as the public know that Dr. Smith's are the original and genuine. Several instances have come to public notice in which life has been endangered by the unfortunate use of the counterfeits. It is Dr Smith's Pills that are doing so much good in the country—as the following plainly show.

MORE MINISTERS.

Use and Recommend Dr Smith's Pills than all others.

This is to certify that I have used the Sugar Coated Pills Manufactured by G. Benjamin Smith of New York, for some time, and believe them to be a good medicine; also, from inquiry in that city, I am persuaded that he is the original inventor, and therefore is entitled to the benefit of the invention.

S. WILLIAMS.
Pastor 1st Baptist Church.

From the Blue Hens's Chicken, (Del.)

We call the attention of our readers to the certificate of Rev. S. Williams, Pastor of 1st Baptist Church, Pittsburgh, in relation to Dr. Smith's Pills. We can ourselves bear testimony to the excellence of these Pills, one of us having used them and experienced great relief from them.

The above is the best paper in the State of Delaware.

The "improved indian vegetable Pills," (Sugar Coated,) are certainly doing much good in the whole country, and are highly esteemed, if one half is true that people write and say about them. They are so easy in their operation that all like them. The editor of the Northern State Journal, (one of the largest and best papers in the State of N. Y.,) writes as follows.

Watertown, May 31, 1846.

Dr. G Benj Smith—

Dear Sir I was laid up with a bad cold some time since my return from N. Y. and during my illness I made trial of your pills and I must say I found them excellent. They are the best medicine for the purposes they are intended, that I have yet seen. I seldom take pills, but I found yours entirely free from the objections to which other pills are liable. I hope they will continue to be a source of profit to you, as I doubt not they will be a means of relief to the afflicted on a large scale. Yours truly,

J. GREEN.

Tonawanda, Pa., Sept. 18, 1846.

Dr. G. Benj. Smith—

Dear Sir. Your agent left with me a lot of your Sugar coated Pills, and I have but a few boxes left. Every box I have sold has given entire satisfaction. I have taken them myself and I consider them the best pills I have ever used, and I am not afraid to recommend them to the public. I wish a further supply at once.

Yours respectfully,
JACOB KIBLER, P. M.

Huntington, Ind., June 21, 1846.

Dr. Smith —

Dear Sir. I am most out of your "Indian Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills," and find them selling so fast that I think you had better send me two gross immediately. They give such general satisfaction that people come at least twenty miles for them, and as it is generally known I am agent for them, I would be very sorry to get out.

Yours respectfully,
SAML. MORE & Co.

BEWARE!!!

If G. BENJ. SMITH, be not written with a pen on the bottom of the box, all "Sugar Coated" Pills are counterfeit!
