POETRY.

From the National Intelligencer.

An attentive audience, who listened on Monday, February 1st, to the speech of Mr. WEBSTER, before the Supreme Court, could not hear, without a thrill of emotion, that this man of eloquence and power was thrice on the verge of a watery grave; having been on the point of embarkation in the Lexington, which was lost January 14, 1840; in the Swallow, April 9, 1845; and in the Atlantic, November 25, 1846.

It is a touching and remarkable fact that the Bell of the last named ill-fated steamer, supported by some portions of the wreck and the contiguous rock, still continues to toll, swept by heavy surges the requiem of the dead.

Toll, toll, toll,
Thou Bell by billows swung,
And night and day thy warning words
Repeat with mournful tongue!
Toll for the queenly boat,
Wreck'd on you rocky shore,
Sea-weed is in her palace-halls,
She rides the surge no more!

Toll for the Master bold,
The high soul'd and the brave,
Who rul'd her like a thing of life
Amid the crested wave!
Toll for the hardy crew,
Sons of the Storm and blast,
Who long the tyrant Ocean dar'd,
But it vanquish'd them at last!

Toll for the Man of God,
Whose hallow'd voice of prayer
Rose calm above the stilled groan
Of that intense despair!
How precious were those tones
On that sad verge of life,
Amid the fierce and freezing storm,
And the mountain-billows' strife!

Toll for the lover lost
To the summon'd bridal train!
Bright glows a picture on his breast,
Beneath the unfathom'd main—
One from her casement gazeth
Long o'er the misty sea;
He cometh not, pale maiden,
His heart is cold to thee!

Toll for the absent sire,
Who to his home drew near,
To bless a glad expecting group.
Fond wife and children dear!
They heap the blazing hearth,
The festal board is spread,
But a fearful guest is at the gate:
Room for the sheeted dead!

Toll for the lov'd and fair,
The whelm'd beneath the tide,
The broken harps around whose strings
The dull sea-monsters glide!
Mother and nurseling sweet,
Rest from the household throng,
There's bitter weeping in the nest
Where breadth'd their soul of song.

Toll for the hearts that bleed.
'Neath misery's furrowing trace!
Toll for the hapless orphan left
The last of all his race!
Yea, with thy heavist knell
From surge to rocky shore,
Toll for the living, not the dead,
Whose mortal woes are o'er!

Toll, toll, toll,
O'er breeze and billow free,
And with thy startling lore instruct
Each rover of the sea;
Tell how o'er proudest joys
May swift destruction sweep,
And bid him build his hopes on high,
Lone Teacher of the deep!

MISS MARGARET FULLER.

AMONG the Parisian news, we find that Miss Margaret Fuller's arrival in that Capital, has been complementarily noticed in several papers, and that the Revue Independante has given a notice of her writings. We also learn the following additional facts, interesting to Americans:—

"In a paper read on the 19th ult. before the Institute of France, by M. Dufau, the celebrated economist, on the operations of different systems of poor laws, he recognised his indebtedness to Mr George Summer, of Boston, for many important ideas, alluding to him as 'one who in his active philanthrophy, is like Howard, bounded by no clime.'" Mr. George W. Greene is engaged on an abridged History of Rome, purged from all its fabulous errors, and embodying the results of the profound researches of Niebuhr, the German writer.

John Howard Payne is engaged on his work on Tunis, for which he gathered much useful information when U. S. Consul there. The Presse has gained the suit brought against it by the Commerce, by asserting that a feuilleton, published by the latter journal as original, was pilfered from one of Edgar Poe's clever American stories. The theft was proved. M. de Mofras, who was sent by the French Government to Oregon and California, has received the order of St: Gregory the Grand from the Pope, for his remarks on the Romish missions in those countries.

THE REAL GRIT.—One of Erins's toil-worn sons came to the doors of the Brooklyn Institute, on the night of the lecture for the starving poor of Ireland.

"What's the price of admission, sir?" he very respectfully inquired.

"Fifty cents," was the reply.

He placed a two dollar bill on the table and the change was tendered to him, he hesitated for an instant and then remarked pushing back the change at the same time.

"Take it all! Sure and don't they want it more than myself?"

Such an act as this from a poor, hard-working—but noble-hearted man, is worth recording.—Advertiser.

Blackwood's Lady's Magazine,

And Gazette of the Fashionable World.—for Town and Country.

Devoted to Belles-Letters, Music, Fine Arts, Fashions, &c.

The well-known celebrity in Europe and this Country, of Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, has induced the subscriber to commence the re publication of this fashionable London Monthly.

It is a matter of surprise that the Re-publication of this Work was not commenced some years since. On looking over some of the late numbers, we find them filled with Stories and Poetry, and Narratives, the most of which fall but little behind those published in the Edinburgh Work, and many surpass even the emanations from the Giant intellects of the contributors to the great Northern Magazine. The best writers of the day contribute to its pages.

It has now been published seventeen years in London, and has a circulation exceeding 70,000 copies through England, Scotland, Ireland, and the continent of Europe. It is translated into several of the continental languages—it being the only instance of an English Magazine receiving that compliment.

The publication will commence in October next, and will be continued monthly.

The publication price of the above wark, in London, is six dollars.

The London World of Fashion.

And Continental Feuilletons.

Vol. II. for 1847.

THIS popular monthly for young people commences the second year of its new series in January, 1847. It may now be regarded as permanently established; and both the editor and publisher, encouraged by their past success, will endeavor not only to deserve the flattering encomiums so generally bestowed upon their labors, but to make the Cabinet a greater favorite among its readers than ever. The 2d volume will be enriched with a variety of Beautiful Embellishments from Original Designs.

The steel vignette, engraved from a design by one of the first artists in the country; is of itself a gem, rarely surpassed in the most costly magazines. When completed the yearly volume embraces.

ONE HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS.

several pieces of the choicest music, and nearly four hundred octavo pages.

The contents of this magazine are for the most part original. It is the aim of the editor to afford amusement and instruction of the best kind and in the most pleasing manner—to oppose the strongest barriers against vice—to multiply incentives to virtue—and while every thing sectarian is carefully discarded, to impress upon the young mind and heart the supreme importance of the truths of revelation, and the necessity of spiritual religion.

"SUGAR COATED" PILLS. BEWARE! CAUTION!!

The increasing popularity of Dr G BENJ SMITH'S IMPROVED INDIAN VEGETABLE SUGAR COATED PILLS, has induced a number of persons to make something they call PILLS, and coat them with sugar, in order to sell them for the genuine while they do not possess a particle of the goodness, nor even assimilate in appearance to the original, Dr. Smith's Pills. In short they are intended FRAUD upon the community. A minister who at first had an interest in an imitation Sugar Coated Pill, manufactured at Albany, N. Y., has given them up, as he says on account of the miserable dishonest parties concerned in manufacturing them. The same party are now industriously circulating reports calculated to injure Dr. Smith and to affect the reputation of his valuable pills; but rather than notice them in public. Dr Smith is about to institute legal proceedings against them for their slanders, as he has in another case against a similar party, in which he recovered a large amount of damages. These miserable imitators have to resort to the most abominable means to palm off their counterfeit pills as the public know that Dr. Smith's are the original and genuine. Several instances have come to public notice in which life has been endangered by the unfortunate use of the counterfeits. It is Dr Smith's Pills that are doing so much good in the country—as the following plainly show.

MORE MINISTERS.

Use and Recommend Dr Smith's Pills than all others

This is to certify that I have used the Sugar Coated Pills Manufactured by G. Benjamin Smith of New York, for some time, and believe them to be a good medicine; also, from inquiry in that city, I am persuaded that he is the original inventor, and therefore is entitled to the benefit of the invention

S. WILLIAMS
Pastor 1st Baptist Church.

From the Blue Hens's Chicken, (Del.)

We call the attention of our readers to the certificate of Rev. S. Williams, Pastor of 1st Baptist Church, Pittsburgh, in relation to Dr. Smith's Pills. We can ourselves bear testimony to the excellence of these Pills, one of us having used them and experienced great relief from them.

The above is the best paper in the State of Delaware.

The "improved indian vegetable Pills," (Sugar Coated,) are certainly doing much good in the whole country, and are highly esteemed it one half is true that people write and say about them. They are so easy in their operation that all like them The editor of the Northern State Journal, (one of the largest and best papers in the State of N Y.,) writes as follows.

Watertown, May 31, 1846.

Dr, G Benj Smith—

Dear Sir: I was laid up with a bad cold some time since my return from N Y. and during my illness I made trial of your pills and I must say I found them excellent. They are the best medicine for the purposes they are intended, that I have yet seen I seldom take pills, but I found yours entirely free from the objections to which other pills are liable. I hope they will continue to be a source of profit to you, as I doubt not they will be a means of relief to the afflicted on a large scale. Yours truly,

J. GREEN.

Tonawanda, Pa., Sept. 18, 1846.

Dr. G. Benj. Smith—

Dear Sir: Your agent left with me a lot of your Sugar coated Pills, and I have but a few boxes left Every box I have sold has given entire satisfaction. I have taken them myself and I consider them the best pills I have ever used, and I am not afraid to recommend them to the public. I wish a further supply at once.

Yours respectfully,
JACOB KIBLER, P. M.

Huntington, Ind., June 21, 1846.

Dr, Smith —

Dear Sir. I am most out of your "Indian Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills," and find them selling so fast that I think you had better send me two gross immediately. They give such general satisfaction that people come at least twenty miles for them, and as it is generally known I am agent for them, I would be very sorry to get out.

Yours respectfully,
SAML. MORE & Co

BEWARE!!!

If G. BENJ SMITH be not written with a pen on the bottom of the box, all "Sugar Coated" Pills are counterfeit

"The Whig Standard,"

IS the title of a WEEKLY PAPER, issued every Saturday, in the City of Baltimore, at $1,50 per annum.

The Standard is thoroughly Whig and will zealously advocate all necessary reforms in the General, State and City government. It will expose the hypocrisy of those who advocate Conventional Reform in the name of Democracy, which is used as a cloak to hide from the yeomanry of Maryland, the most wild and revolutionary designs, all the Reform desired being nothing more nor less than the offices and emoluments of the State Government.

The Standard is designed to be a permanent Journal, and not a party ephemeral gotten up to feed the excitement of an approaching election and then die off. It will be free and fearless, controlled by neither "clique nor cabal" but open to the opinion of every good Whig in Old Maryland.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber collector of state tax for T. county for 1842 and 1846 takes this method of once more calling the attention of delinquent tax payers to the fact, that the time is short in which Coupons will be received in payment of state taxes, he has given Bond to the state for the collection of this money and he intends to try to collect the same, he also intends if he has good luck to settle with the Treasurer very soon, and when that is done the law provides that delinquents shall pay in cash, he therefore hopes that gentlemen will come up & settle while they can save so much by paying in coupons should they however still neglect to do so as some have done, the fault will be their own and not his, he has given them the worning, he he would further add for information of those who may still neglect this notice that after the first day of January he shall feel authorised to give the Printar a job, & however pleasant it may be to the Printers it will not be so to him nor them, but necessity or duty will compel this course, I hope I shall be spared this unpleasant duty.
