said County came James E Dorsey of said County and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God that he is acquainted with the property of Edward H Dorsey in Baltimore County which was sold by Messrs Mayer & Stewart Trustees under a Decree of the Court of Chancery in April last and that from his knowledge of said property and the value of lands in the neighborhood he believes that said property was sold greatly under its value. James E Dorsey.

Sworn before me Geo Latchford Justice of the peace in and for Baltimore County.

Exhibit No. 2.

Having been requested by my friend and neighbour Edward H Dorsey Esq of Baltimore County to express my opinion of the value of the farm called "Hunting Ridge on which he now resides, I do so in the following terms, viz. That in view of the good qualities and usual productiveness of the soil, great beauty and healthfulness of location, sundry valuable improvements as Mansion House &c and the relative estimation of other property in the same neighbourhood the said farm is in my judgment worth per acre sixty dollars or more.

Baltimore June 30th 1847. Francis Waters.

State of Maryland City of Baltimore to wit.

On this 30th day of June 1847 before the subscriber a Justice of the peace of said State in and for said City came Francis Waters and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God that the above statement is true to the best of his knowledge & belief. J. Hanson Bett.

Exhibit 3.

State of Maryland City of Baltimore to wit.

On this 29th day of June in the year 1847 before the subscriber a Justice of the peace of said State in and for said City came Charles McBlair of Baltimore County and made oath on the Holy Evangely that he knows the property of Edward H Dorsey which was sold by Trustees under a decree of the High Court of Chancery in April last that he resides on a farm adjoining the same, and that from the rates at which property of the kind has lately been sold in the neighborhood he believes that said property was sold greatly below its value. That forming his opinion from the sources already stated he is of opinion that said property ought to have brought at least sixty dollars per acre. That he purchased the farm on which he resides from said Dorsey being originally part of the same estate containing 80 acres and gave him for the same without improvements $75 per acre. J Hanson Bett.

Exhibit 4.

State of Maryland, Baltimore County to wit.

On this thirtieth day of June 1847 before the subscriber a Justice of the peace of said State in and for said County came Benjamin Comegys of said County and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God that he is acquainted with the property of Edward H Dorsey in Baltimore County which was sold by Messrs Mayer & Stewart Trustees under a decree of the Court of Chancery in April last and that from his knowledge of said property and the value of said lands in the neighbourhood he believes that said property is worth and ought to have brought at least twenty thousand dollars.

Benjamin Comegys.

Sworn before Geo W Latchford Justice of the peace in and for Baltimore County.

Exhibit 5.

State of Maryland City of Baltimore to wit. On this 2nd day of July in the year 1847 before the subscriber a Justice of the peace of the said State in and for the said city came John Noke of Baltimore County and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God that he knows the farm of Edward H Dorsey in said County which was sold by Messrs Stewart and Mayer as Trustees under a decree of the Court of Chancery in April last that he has known said farm all his life time and always resided within three miles of from thereof and that from his knowledge of said farm and of the value of lands in the neighborhood he considers the same to be fully worth at least $75 per acre. G. L. Spurrier.

Exhibit No. 6.

State of Maryland Baltimore County to wit. On this first day of July 1847 before me the subscriber a Justice of the peace of the said State in and for said County came James Powers and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God that he knows the property of Edward H Dorsey which was sold by Messrs Stewart and Mayer as Trustees under a decree of the Court of Chancery in April last and that from his knowledge of said property and of the value of lands in the neighborhood he believes that $40 pr acre is much less than the value of said property and that the same ought to have brought at least $70 pr acre.

Sworn to before. John H Smith, District Justice.

Exhibit 7.

State of Maryland Baltimore County to wit.

On this first day of July 1847 Before the subscriber a Justice of the peace of the said State in and for said County came Peter W Gibbons and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God that he knows the property of Edward H Dorsey which was sold by Messrs Stewart and Mayer as trustees under a decree of the Court of Chancery in April last and that from his knowledge of said property and of the value of land in the neighborhood he believes that $40 pr acre is much less than the value of said property and that the same ought to have brought at least $70 per acre.

Sworn to before. Benjn Palmer.

Exhibit 8.

State of Maryland City of Baltimore to wit. On this first day of July in the year 1847 before the subscriber a Justice of the peace of the said State in and for said City came Mr Fernandis Jr of said City and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God that as solicitor of Edward H Dorsey he had a conversation with James Mr Henry Boyd Esq during the last week in which said Boyd told him that he wished to purchase the property of said Dorsey in Baltimore County which was sold at trustees sale in April last by Messrs Mayer and Stewart under a decree of the Court of Chancery and that he would have attended said sale and bid for the same, but he was informed by some person or persons that said Dorsey had made some arrangement by reason of which said property would not be sold and on looking into the daily papers at the time and not finding the advertisement of said sale he supposed that the same had been withdrawn and that said