STANZAS.

O think not I am always gay,
And careless as you see me now—
That shadows never shroud my way,
Nor clouds invest my laughing brow;
The eye which glows when thou are near,
When thou art gone, reveals a tear!

'Tis not for thee to know the gloom,
The pang of hopeless passion's dower,
That grudges the full heart its' room,
And blights its' blossoms hour by hour;
That steels the cheek, the lip to lie
With smiles—where darkling floods go by!

If e'er I do not seem to own
The magic of thy charms divine;
If 'mid the crowd thy gentle tone
Unheeded thrills this heart of mine;
'Tis only that I long have strayed
Thro scenes like this, in masquerade!

Forget me—'tis a waste to throw
On such a shrine thy heart-fraught sighs,
Flowers have no place 'mid ice and snow;
Stars nought to do in clouded skies;
Forget me—'tis no recent lot,
To love, and be by love forgot!

FAMINE IN SCOTLAND.

There's weeping mid the lonely sea,
Where the rude Hebrides lie,
And where the misty Highlands point
There foreheads to the sky.

The oats were blighted on the stalk—
The corn before its bloom—
And many a hand that held the plough
Is pulseless in the tomb!

There is no playing in the streets—
The haggard children move.
Like mournful phantoms, mute and slow,
Uncheered by hope or love.

No dog upon his master fawns—
No sheep the hillocks throng—
Not even the playment kitten sports
The sad eyed babes among—

No more the cock his clarion sounds,
Nor brooding wing is spread,
There is no food in barn or stall,
And all are with the dead!

From the young maiden's hollow cheek
The ruddy blush is gone—
The peasant like a statue stands,
And hardens into stone—

The shuttle sleepeth in the loom,
The crook upon the walls—
And from the languid mother's hand
The long used distaff falls.

She hears her children ask for bread,
And what can she bestow?
She sees their uncomplaining sire
A mournful shadow grow.

Oh, Scotia!—sister! if thy woes.
Awake no pitying care,
If long at banquet board we sit,
Nor heed thy deep dispair—

While thou art pining into death,
Amid thy heather brown—
Will not the Giver of our joys
Upon our luxuries frown?

And blast the blossom of our pride,
And ban the rusted gold?
And turn the morsel into gall
That we from thee withold?

L. H. S.

THE DESERTED WIFE.

He comes not—I have watched the moon go down,
But yet he comes not.—once it was not so.
He thinks not how these bitter tears do flow,
The while he holds his riot in that town.
Yet he will come, and chide, and I shall weep;
And he will wake my infant from its sleep,
To blend its feeble wailing with my tears.
O! how I love a mother's watch to keep
Over those sleeping eyes, that smile, which cheers
My heart, though sunk in sorrow, fix'd and deep.
I had a husband once, who loved me—now
He ever wears a frown upon, his brow,
And feeds his passion on a wanton's lip,
As bees, from laurel flowers a poison sip;
But yet I cannot hate—O! there were hours
When I could hang forever on his eye,
And time, who stole with silent swiftness by,
Strew'd, as he hurried on, his path with flowers.
I loved him then—he loved me too.—My heart
Still finds its fondness kindle if he smile;
The memroy of our loves will ne'r depart,
And though he often sting me with a dart,
Venom'd and barb'd, and waste upon the vile
Caresses, which his babe and mine should share;
Though he should spurn me, I will calmly bear
His madness,—and should sickness come and lay
Its paralyzing hand upon him, then
I would, with kindness, all my wrongs repay,
Until the penitent should weep, and say,
How injured, and how faithful I had been!

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

Passed at the December session 1846, of the Legislature of Maryland, relative to the Revenue of the State.

No. 288.

A SUPPLEMENT TO THE ACT; entitled, "An Act to regulate sales by Public Auction," passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty seven, chapter one hundered and eleven.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all real estate and all goods; wares merchandize stocks, and every other species of personal property whatever, which shall at any time be exposed to sale by public auction in the city of Baltimore, with the exception mentioned in the second section of this, shall be subject each and every time, they or any of them shall be struck off, to duties at the following rates, namely: all real estate and vessels, all wines and ardent spirits, foreign or domestic, all goods, wares merchandise and effects imported from any place beyond the Cape of Good Hope, coffee, tea sugar, and molasses, foreign or domestic; all stocks of banks or other incorporated institution, state or city loans goods and effects of deceased persons or insolvent debtors, or property under, an order or decree of any court, at the rate offifty cents on every one hundred dollars; all other goods, wares, merchandise and effects, which are the production of any foreign country, all domestic manufactures and all goods, wares, merchandise and effects, and property of what kind soever, not enumerated above, nor included in the exceptions in the second section of this act, at the rate of seventy five cents on every one hundred dollars; and the duties shall be calculated on the sums for which the property of goods so exposed to sale shall be respectively struck off, and shall be in all cases paid by the person making the sale.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That all goods and other property, belonging to this State or the United States, or which shall be seized by any public officer for or on account of any forfeiture or penalty, or taken in execution, and all goods distrained for rent, utensils of husbandry, and all articles of the growth and produce of this State, shall in no wise be subject to, but are hereby exempted and declared free from the duties aforesaid, and may be sold by any person in any part of the State, out of the imits of the city of Baltimore.

Section 3. And be it enacted, That goods or property of what kind soever, sold by auction, shall in all cases be struck off to the highest bidder, and when the auctioneer or owner, or any person employed by them or either of them, shall be such bidder, the said goods or property shall be subject to the same duties as if struck off to any other person; but this section shall not be construed to render valid any sale that would otherwise be deemed fraudulent and void.

Section 4. And be it enanacted, That the same duties specified in the first section of this act, shall be chargeable on all goods, wares merchandise, or other property sold by any auctioneer at private sale on the day of his public auction.

Section 5. And be it enacted, That every auctioneer duly appointed and authorised by virtue of the law to which this is a supplement, in and for the city of Baltimore, shall hereafter, within twenty days after the first days of January, April, July and October of the year for which he shall have been appointed, render to one of the judges of the city Court a true and particular account in writing, of the moneys or sums for which any goods wares, merchandise or other property of what kind soever, shall have been sold at every sale made under the said original law, and its supplements, from the time of his entering into the recognisance required by the said act and its supplements, at the time the last account was rendered by him in conformity to the said act and its supplements of the amount of each day's sale, and the days when the same were respectively sold distinguishing the sale made by himself personally, or in his presence, and those made by his partner or partners, or clerks, in consequence of his absence, setting forth also the amount of all goods, wares, merchandize and other property as aforesaid, sent or entrusted to him, his partner or partners, for sale, and by him or them sold at auction, and the days on which the same were sold and particularising the amouut of the several duties chargeable on the said sales at auction, and shall thereupon take before the said Judge the following oath or affirmation, as the case may require: I, ———, do solemnly and sincerely swear (or affirm) that the account now exhibited by me, and to which I have snbscribed my name, contains a just and true account of all the goods, wares, merchandize and property of every kind sold or struck off by me at public sale, or sold at private sale and the days of my public auction or sold or struck off as aforesaid by my copartner or copartners, or by others in my name or under my direction, or for my benefit within the time mentioned in the within account, and of the days upon which the same were respectively sold, that I havs examined the entries of all the sales mentioned in the said account the books kept by me and for that purpose; and fully believe this account to be in all respects correct, and further that I have, during the time therein mentioned conformed in all things to the true intent and meaning of the act entitled an act to regulate sales by public auction and its supplements, according to the best of my knowledge information and belief:—and all and every the partner or partners of any such auctioneer, shall also make and subscribe an oath, to be endorsed on the said account, that he or they respectively believe the said account, to be correct and true in every particular; and every such auctioneer shall, within thirty days after rendering such account and taking such oath or affirmation, pay the amount of duty upon such account of sales to the Treasurer; and if any such auctioneer shall neglect to render the account as above prescribed, or to pay the amount of duty as aforesaid, he shall be liable to the penalties and disabilities provided for such neglect by the ninth section of the act to which this a supplement.

Section 6. And be it enacted, That every such auctioneer as aforesaid, who within the period limited for his accounting, shall have made no sales of goods or property of any kind, liable to auction duties, shall make and subscribe an affidavit of those facts before one of the judges of the city Court aforesaid, and shall transmit a copy of said affidavit, certified by said Judge, to the Treasurer within the same time that an account is required to be rendered by the preceeding section of this act, and the penalties and disabilities for neglecting to make such affidavit shall be the same as for the neglect to make the returns provided for in the preceeding section of this act.

Section 7. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the Governor to nominate to the Senate for auctioneer any person who shall not have settled in full at the Treasury office, for all amounts due from said person, on account of auction duties, under the act regulating sales by public auction, and its supplements, and this section shall be in force from and after the passage of this act.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That in case any person who may be commissioned to act as auctioneer under the said act and its supplements, shall neglect to take out a license within twenty days after his commission shall have been forwarded to him by the Governor, such commission shall be deemed null and void, and it shall be the duty of the Governor to appoint some other person to supply the vacancy in the number of auctioneers, occasioned by such neglect.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That every auctioneer who shall sell any goods or property other than such as he is authorised to sell by the terms of his license, shall forfeit for every such articles so sold the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered by any person sueing for the same before any justice of the peace of the city of Baltimore, or by indictment in Baltimore, city court.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That the right to sell wearing apparel, given by the sixth section of the act, to which this is a supplement, shall not be so construed as to authorise the sale of boots, shoes, or hats, by the case or package.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That the bond required from every auctioneer by the fourth section of the act to which this is a supplement, and the tenth section of the act of December session eighteen hundred and twenty eight, chapter one hundred and forty eight, shall be annually renewed.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That this act shall go into effect from and after the first day of April next, and the eighth section of the act of December session eighteen hundred and twenty seven, chapter one hundred and eleven, and the fifth section of the act of December session eighteen hundred and twenty eight, chapter one hundred and forty eight; be and the same are hereby repealed.

The well-known celebrity in Europe and this Country, of Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, has induced the subscriber to commence the re publication of this fashionable London Monthly.

It is a matter of surprise that the Re-publication of this Work was not commenced some years since. On looking over some of the late numbers, we find them filled with Stories and Poetry, and Narratives, the most of which fall but little behind those published in the Edinburgh Work, and many surpass even the emanations from the Giant intellects of the contributors to the great Northern Magazine. The best writers of the day contribute to its pages.

It has now been published seventeen years in London, and has a circulation exceeding 70,000 copies through England, Scotland, Ireland, and the continent of Europe. It is translated into several the continental languages—it being the only instance of an English Magazine receiving that compliment.

The publication will commence in October next, and will be continued monthly.

The publication price of the above wark in London, is six dollars.

FRANCIS C. WOODWORTH, EDITOR

Vol. 11. for 1847.

THIS popular monthly for young people commences the second year of its new series in January, 1847. It may now be regarded as permanently established; and both the editor and publisher, encouraged by their past success, will endeavor not only to deserve the flattering encomiums so generally bestowed upon their labors, but to make the Cabinet a greater favorite among its readers than ever. The 2d volume will be enriched with a variety of Beautiful Embellishments from Original Designs.

The steel vignette, engraved from a design by one of the first artists in the country; is of itself a gem, rarely surpassed in the most costly magazines. When completed the yearly volume embraces.

ONE HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS.

several pieces of the choicest music, and nearly four hundred octavo pages.

The contents of this magazine are for the most part original. It is the aim of the editor to afford amusement and instruction of the best kind and in the most pleasing manner—to oppose the strongest barriers against vice—to multiply incentives to virtue—and while every thing sectarian is carefully discarded, to impress upon the young mind and heart the supreme importance of the truths of revelation, and the necessity of spiritual religion.

'SUGAR COATED" PILLS.'

BEWARE! CAUTION!!

The increasing popularity of Dr G. BENJ SMITH'S IMPROVED INDIAN VEGETABLE SUGAR COATED PILLS, has induced a number of persons to make something they call PILLS, and coat them with sugar, in order to sell them for the genuine, while they do not possess a particle of the goodness, nor even assimilate in appearance to the original, Dr. Smith's Pills. In short they are intended FRAUD upon the community. A minister who at first had an interest in an imitation Sugar Coated Pill, manufactured at Albany, N. Y., has given them up, as he says on account of the miserable dishonest parties concerned in manufacturing them. The same party are now industriously circulating reports calculated to injure Dr. Smith and to affect the reputation of his valuable pills; but rather than notice them in public. Dr Smith is about to institute legal proceedings against them for their slanders, as he has in another case against a similar party, in which he recovered a large amount of damages. These miserable imitators have to resort to the most abominable means to palm off their counterfeit pills as the public know that Dr. Smith's are the original and genuine. Several instances have come to public notice in which life has been endangered by the unfortunate use of the counterfeits. It is Dr Smith's Pills that are doing so much good in the country—as the following plainly show.

MORE MINISTERS.

Use and Recommend Dr Smith's Pills than all others

This is to certify that I have used the Sugar Coated Pills Manufactured by G. Benjamin Smith' of New York, for some time, and believe them to be a good medicine; also, from inquiry in that city, I am persuaded that he is the original inventor, and therefore is entitled to the benefit of the invention

S. WILLIAMS·
Pastor 1st Baptist Church.

From the Blue Hens's Chicken, (Del.)

We call the attention of our readers to the certificate of Rev. S. Williams, Pastor of 1st Baptist Church, Pittsburgh, in relation to Dr. Smith's Pills. We can ourselves bear testimony to the excellence of these Pills, one of us having used them and experienced great relief from them.

The above is the best paper in the State of Delaware.

The "improved indian vegetable Pills," (Sugar Coated,) are certainly doing much good in the whole country, and are highly esteemed, if one half is true that people write and say about them. They are so easy in their operation that all like them. The editor of the Northern State Journal, (one of the largest and best papers in the State of N. Y.,) writes as follows.

Watertown, May 31, 1846.

Dr. G Benj Smith—

Dear Sir I was laid up with a bad cold some time since my return from N. Y. and during my illness I made trial of your pills and I must say I found them excellent. They are the best medicine for the purposes they are intended, that I have yet seen. I seldom take pills, but I found yours entirely free from the objections to which other pills are liable. I hope they will continue to be a source of profit to you, as I doubt not they will be a means of relief to the afflicted on a large scale. Yours truly,

J. GREEN.

Tonawanda, Pa., Sept. 18, 1846.

Dr. G. Benj Smith—

Dear Sir: Your agent left with me a lot of your Sugar coated Pills, and I have but a few boxes left. Every box I have sold has given entire satisfaction. I have taken them myself and I consider them the best pills I have ever used, and I am not afraid to recommend them to the public. I wish a further supply at once.

Yours respectfully,
JACOB KIBLER, P. M.

Huntington, Ind., June 21, 1846.

Dr. Smith —

Dear Sir. I am most out of your "Indian Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills," and find them selling so fast that I think you had better send me two gross immediately. They give such general satisfaction that people come at least twenty miles for them, and as it is generally known I am agent for them, I would be very sorry to get out.

Yours respectfully,
SAML. MORE & Co

BEWARE!!!

If G. BENJ SMITH, be not written with a pen on the bottom of the box, all "Sugar Coated" Pills are counterfeit!

"The Whig Standard,"

IS the title of a WEEKLY PAPER, issued every Saturday, in the City of Baltimore, at $1,00 per annum.

The Standard is thoroughly Whig and will zealously advocate all necessary reforms in the General, State and City government. It will expose the hypocrisy of those who advocate Conventional Reform in the name of Democracy, which is used as a cloak to hide from the yeomanry of Maryland, the most wild and revolutionary designs, all the Reform desired being nothing more nor less than the offices and emoluments of the State Government.

The Standard is designed to be a permanent Journal, and not a party ephemeral gotten up, to feed the excitement of an approaching election and then die off. It will be free and fearless, controlled by neither "clique nor cabal" but open to the opinion of every good Whig in Old Maryland.
