CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL.—We are happy to have it in our power to state that the speedy completion of this great work is now beyond a doubt. Hon. John Davis, Ex-governor of Massachusetts, and now U. S. Senator from that State, together with his colleagues, Hon. Daniel Webster Nathan Hale, Esq., of Boston, and other distinguished individuals are now in Washington, for the purpose of consummating arrangements whereby the completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal is to be forthwith commenced in a manner that will forbid the possibility of another suspension. We understand these gentlemen constitute a commission on the part of the capitalists, who stand ready to advance the money required to accomplish the work.—Wash. Union.

RHODE ISLAND ELECTION.
WHIG VICTORY.

[BOSTON ATLAS OFFICE.
Thursday, April 8, 10 A. M.

The Providence Journal of this morning contains returns from all the counties in the State except Bristol and Newport, and sums up the result thus:

ELISHA HARRIS, the Whig and Law and Order candidate, is elected Governor by the people, and both branches of the General Assembly are Law and Order by handsome majorities, unless Newport and Bristol have done very badly.

ROBERT B. CRANSTON, Whig, has been elected to Congress in the Eastern District. There has been no choice in the Western: the vote in that district standing as follows:

For Updike, Whig and Law and Order,	1,694
" Thurston, Loco Foco,	1,608
" Arnold, Whig,	406
" Hall Abolition,	186
" Scattering,	14

[A plurality elects a Member of Congress on the second trial. We trust the Whigs will see to it that they are not then beaten, in consequence of division.]—Eds. N. Y. Express.

WHIG TRIUMPH IN CONNECTICUT.

THE LATE SNOW STORM IN VERMONT.

MIDDLEBURY, (VT.) March 28.

We have just been visited by the most severe snow storm ever known in Vermont. The snow commenced on Friday evening, and continued to fall rapidly more than twenty-six hours, the wind blowing at the same time a perfect hurricane. No mails have been received since Friday the 25th inst, and the roads are perfectly impassable, the snow being drifted in many places to a depth of from six to ten feet.—The mail carriers attempted yesterday to go on South, but, with six horses attached to a light sleigh, proceeded half a mile, and returned. Our ladies were glad to go to church on a sled drawn by oxen. The effect of the wind and snow on Saturday was such as I never had imagined possible. In going from my residence to my store, a walk of five minutes, I was employed more than half an hour; often blinded, suffocated nearly, and obliged to throw myself upon the ground to obtain breath.

LETTER FROM GEN. TAYLOR TO HENRY CLAY.—The Louisville Observer has been permitted to publish the following letter from Gen. Taylor, addressed to Hon. H. Clay, so creditable to the heart of the general, as well as to the officers he mentions, who fell in the battle of Buena Vista:

Head-Quarters Army of Occupation,
Agua Nueva, Mexico,
March 1, 1847.

My Dear Sir—You will no doubt have received before this can reach you, the deeply distressing intelligence of the death of your son in the battle of Buena Vista. It is with no wish of intruding upon the sanctuary of parental sorrow, and with no hope of administering any consolation to your wounded heart, that I have taken the liberty of addressing you these few lines; but I have felt it a duty which I owe to the memory of the distinguished dead, to pay a willing tribute to his many excellent qualities, and while my feelings are still fresh, to express the desolation which his untimely loss and that of other kindred spirits has occasioned.

I had but a casual acquaintance with your son, until he became for a time a member of my military family, and I can truly say, that no one ever won more rapidly upon my regard, or established a more lasting claim to my respect and esteem.—Manly and honorable in every impulse, with no feeling but for the honor of the service and of the country, he gave every assurance that in the hour of need I could lean with confidence upon his support.—Nor was I disappointed. Under the guidance of himself and the lamented McKee, gallantly did the sons of Kentucky, in the thickest of the strife, uphold the honor of the State and of the country.

A grateful people will do justice to the memory of those who fell on that eventful day. But I may be permitted to express the bereavement which I feel in the loss of valued friends. To your son I felt bound by the strongest ties of private regard, and when I miss his familiar face and those of McKee and Hardin, I can say with truth, that I feel no exultation in our success.

With the expression of my deepest and most heartfelt sympathies for your irreparable loss, I remain, my dear sir, most faithfully and sincerely, your friend,

Z. TAYLOR.

Hon. Henry Clay, New Orleans, La.

EMIGRANTS AT NEW YORK.—The immense number of emigrants from Europe, now pouring into New York, and the unhealthy condition of the great majority of them, is creating no little alarm in tha ci ty. The correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says:

The appalling amount of putrid infection which is now being daily poured into our city from the steerage of almost every vessel arriving at our port, has alarmed those who have the health of the city under their supervision, and it is probable the subject will this evening be brought by them to the attention of the Common Council.—Some sanative must speedily be adopted, or pestilence will soon run riot amongst us.

The appalling number of eighty had to be taken from the Hottinguer on Saturday straight to the Hospital, all loathsomely diseased and nauseatingly filthy. She started with 300 steerage passengers, thirty of whom were consigned to the ocean on the passage, and the larger portion of those who survived are now quartered on the public charity. On the same day, the Queen of the West brought 440, and yesterday two British barques, direct from Irish ports, added 470 to the number—making a total of 1220, minus the deaths, in two days!

THE ORIGINAL ONLY TRUE, AND GENUINE PILL.

Findly Township, Alleg'y Co July 2d 1838
Messrs Shivn & Sellers.—I feel it a duty I owe to the public and the standing of your celebrated Pills, to testify to the good effects produced by them in my own case. In the fall of 1837 I was attacked severely with the Chronic Liver Complaint, which prostrated all my physical power. I applied to Dr.——, of Clinton, for medical advice, and although he essayed every thing in his power to mitigate my disease, yet I must honestly say, that I received no permanent relief under his treatment. At this time I considered my case hopeless, when seeing your Liver Pills advertised, I, after a good deal of hesitation, (being urged to try them by my neighbors) purchased two boxes, and before I had used one whole box, the pain in my side and shoulders, produced by a diseased Liver, was speedily removed. I continued using the Pills at intervals, upon every return of my symptoms with invariable success It is in my opinion that the Liver Pills will not fail to cure, when the directions are strictly followed. You are at liberty to make any use of the above that you may think proper. I remain your grateful friend. SAMUEL P. MORRISON.

N. B. The Liver Pills are much relied upon in bilious attacks in my immediate neighborhood.

PRICES CURRENT.

BALTIMORE, April 12, 1847.

FLOUR.—There were small sales this morning of Howard st. brands at $6,50, rather more sellers than buyers; city millers are asking $5,62 1-2. The same price is demanded for Susquehanna. Corn Meal held at $4 75. The supply of Flour is very small. The decline in freights and the indications of a still further decline, tends to keep prices higher than they would probably otherwise be.

Light receipts of Grain; two cargoes of prime Pennsylvania red Wheat, amounting to about 2,000 bushels, were sold this morning at 150 cts. Good to prime Maryland red will bring 140 a 145 cts; white Corn 85a86 cts; yellow do. 90 a 92 cts., with sales of some 16,000 bushels: Oats 45 cts; Rye 78a80 cts.

"The Whig Standard,"

IS the title of a WEEKLY PAPER, issued every Saturday, in the City of Baltimore, at $1.00 per annum.

The Standard is thoroughly Whig and will zealously advocate all necessary reforms in the General, State and City government. It will expose the hypocrisy of those who advocate Conventional Reform in the name of Democracy, which is used as a cloak to hide from the yeomanry of Maryland, the most wild and revolutionary designs, all the Reform desired being nothing more nor less than the offices and emoluments of the State Government.

The Standard is designed to be a permanent Journal, and not a party ephemeral gotten up to feed the excitement of an approaching election and then die off. It will be free and fearless, controlled by neither "clique nor cabal" but open to the opinion of every good Whig in Old Maryland.

☞Subscriptions will be received for six months, where ten or more copies are sent to one address; in all cases payable in advance. Address, post paid,
