POETRY.

THE MISER'S DEATH.

By G. W. Cutter.

An old man sat by a fireless hearth,
Tho' the night was dark and chill,
And mournfully over the frozen earth,
The wind sobbed lone and shrill,
His locks were white, and his eye were grey
And dim, but not with tears,
And his skeleton form was wasted away
With penury more than years.

A rush-light was casting its fitful glare,
O'er the damp and dingy walls,
Where the lizard had made his slimy lair,
And the venomous spider crawls.
But the meanest thing in this loathsome room
Was that miser, all worn and bare;
Where he sat like a ghost in an empty tomb,
On his broken and only chair.

He had bolted the window and bar'd the door,
And every nook he had scan'd,
And felt their fastenings o'er and o'er,
With his cold and skinny hand;
And yet he sat gazing intently around,
And trembled with silent fear,
And started and shuddered at every sound,
That fell on his coward ear.

Ha! ha! laughed the miser—I'm safe at last,
From this night so cold and drear;
From the drenching rain and the driving blast,
With my gold and my treasures here.
I am cold and wet with the icy rain,
And my health is bad, 'tis true,
Yet if I should light that fire again,
It would cost me a cent or two.

But I'll take a sip of this precious wine,
It will banish my cold and fears;
It was given long since by a friend of mine,
I have kept it for many years.
So he drew a flask from a mouldy nook,
And drank of its ruby tide,
And his eye grew bright with each draught he took,
And his bosom swelled with pride.

"Let me see—let me see," said the miser then,
"'Tis some sixty years or more,
Since the happy hour when I began
To heap up my glittering store;
And well have I sped in my anxious toil,
As my crowded chests will show,
I have more than would ransom a kingdom's spoil,
Or an emperor could bestow."

"From the orient realms I have rubies bright,
And gold from the fam'd Peru;
I've diamonds would shame the stars of night,
And pearls like the morning dew.
And more I'll have, ere the morrow's sun,
His rays from the west shall fling;
That widow, to free her prisoned son,
Shall bring me her bridal ring."

He turn'd to an old worm-eaten chest,
And cautiously raised the lid,
And then it shone like the clouds of the west,
With the sun in their splendor hid;
And gem after gem of its precious store,
He raised with exulting smile,
And counted recounted them o'er and o'er,
In many a glitering pile.

Why comes that flush to his pallid brow,
While his eyes like his diamonds shine?
Why writhes he thus in such torture now?
What was there in the wine?
His lonely seat he strove to regain—
To crawl to his nest he tried;
But finding those efforts were all in vain,
He clasped his gold and died.

"THE JUNIPER TREE."

On the Sabbath of the Meth. Prot. Conference at Easton, Md., Rev. Josiah Varden, well known to our citizens as an able defender of the faith once delivered to the Saints, preached an interesting discourse from these words: (1 Kings, xix, 4.)—"But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness and sat down under a juniper tree."

The next day when the Conference Steward rose to make his report, he announced in conclusion, that he had received a present for Rev. J. Varden. It was the following poem, composed in reference to the sermon; we republish it from the "Methodist Protestant:"

Respectfully dedicated to Rev. ——, by the Author.

"THE JUNIPER TREE."

The "juniper tree" with its foliage green,
Is truly a shelter delightful I ween;
And the desolate pilgrim, all burdened with care,
Is pleased to repose in the quietude there;
With the wilderness round, and a cruse at his head,
He amply is furnished with water and bread—
And finds as it ever, yes, ever must be,
That God is his friend 'neath the "juniper tree."
May you find this safe shelter in city and plain,
Until the bless'd "Horeb" of glory you gain,
And there join the holy, the happy, and free,
Who oft were found under the "juniper tree."

'SUGAR COATED" PILLS.' BEWARE! CAUTION!!

The increasing popularity of Dr. G. BENJ SMITH'S IMPROVED INDIAN VEGETABLE SUGAR COATED PILLS, has induced a number of persons to make something they call PILLS, and coat them with sugar, in order to sell them for the genuine, while they do not possess a particle of the goodness, nor even assimilate in appearance to the original, Dr. Smith's Pills. In short they are intended FRAUD upon the community. A minister who at first had an interest in an imitation Sugar Coated Pill, manufactured at Albany, N. Y., has given them up, as he says on account of the miserable dishonest parties concerned in manufacturing them. The same party are now industriously circulating reports calculated to injure Dr. Smith and to affect the reputation of his valuable pills; but rather than notice them in public. Dr Smith is about to institute legal proceedings against them for their slanders, as he has in another case against a similar party, in which he recovered a large amount of damages. These miserable imitators have to resort to the most abominable means to palm off their counterfeit pills as the public know that Dr. Smith's are the original and genuine. Several instances have come to public notice in which life has been endangered by the unfortunate use of the counterfeits. It is Dr. Smith's Pills that are doing so much good in the country—as the following plainly show.

MORE MINISTERS.

Use and Recommend Dr. Smith's Pills than all others

This is to certify that I have used the Sugar Coated Pills Manufactured by G. Benjamin Smith of New York, for some time, and believe them to be a good medicine; also, from inquiry in that city I am persuaded that he is the original inventor, and therefore is entitled to the benefit of the invention

S. WILLIAMS.
Pastor 1st Baptist Church.

From the Blue Hens's Chicken, (Del.)

We call the attention of our readers to the certificate of Rev. S. Williams, Pastor of 1st Baptist Church, Pittsburgh, in relation to Dr. Smith's Pills. We can ourselves bear testimony to the excellence of these Pills, one of us having used them and experienced great relief from them.

The above is the best paper in the State of Delaware.

The "improved indian vegetable Pills," (Sugar Coated,) are certainly doing much good in the whole country, and are highly esteemed, if one half is true that people write and say about them. They are so easy in their operation that all like them. The editor of the Northern State Journal, (one of the largest and best papers in the State of N. Y.,) writes as follows.

Watertown, May 31, 1846.

Dr. G Benj Smith—

Dear Sir: I was laid up with a bad cold some time since my return from N. Y. and during my illness I made trial of your pills and I must say I found them excellent. They are the best medicine for the purposes they are intended, that I have yet seen. I seldom take pills, but I found yours entirely free from the objections to which other pills are liable. I hope they will continue to be a source of profit to you, as I doubt not they will be a means of relief to the afflicted on a large scale. Yours truly,

J. GREEN.

Tonawanda, Pa., Sept. 18, 1846.

Dr. G. Benj. Smith—

Dear Sir: Your agent left with me a lot of your Sugar coated Pills, and I have but a few boxes left. Every box I have sold has given entire satisfaction. I have taken them myself and I consider them the best pills I have ever used, and I am not afraid to recommend them to the public. I wish a further supply at once.

Yours respectfully,
JACOB KIBLER, P. M.

Huntington, Ind., June 21, 1846.

Dr. Smith —

Dear Sir. I am most out of your "Indian Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills," and find them selling so fast that I think you had better send me two gross immediately. They give such general satisfaction that people come at least twenty miles for them, and as it is generally known I am agent for them, I would be very sorry to get out.

Yours respectfully,
SAML. MORE & Co.

BEWARE!!!

If G. BENJ. SMITH, be not written with a pen on the bottom of the box, all "Sugar Coated" Pills are counterfeit!
