revenue of the State, which is the most important branch of the duties of a Governor in the present condition of our affairs. Several other gentlemen have been proposed who possess in a high degree the qualifications necessary for the incumbent of this most dignified office in the State, and who, if selected by the Convention, will receive a hearty support. I take great pleasure in bearing testimony to their merit; but at the same time I desire to exercise the rights of a Whig in expressing through our party paper the preference which I entertain (in common with many of my fellow Whigs) for the nomination of the gentleman whose name appears at the head of this article. TALBOT.

For the Easton Gazette.

MR. EDITOR,—As you are well known to be a zealous friend to popular education, it is presumed you will admit into your columns the following proposition to the Trustees and Teachers of the Primary Schools of the County,—viz: To obtain and continue the use of a uniformity of the most approved books for their schools.

The children of the County could thus be pursuing the same course of instruction, all the schools in constant competition, while committees could visit and report the relative progress of each.

Very respectfully, ACADEMUS.

Bayside, 14th April, 1847.

SINGULAR OCCURRENCE.—Under the obituary head in to-days paper will be found the death of Mr. Jacob Reese. There are circumstances connected with his decease which, whether you term them the effects of a disordered imagination, or view them as actual presentiments, present some very singular points for the mind to dwell upon. We will state the facts as they were related to us, our readers can draw their own inferences On the day of his death, Mr. Reese was engaged in seeding oats, and towards evening he was startled by a voice, apparently at his elbow, saying "you may sow, but you shall not reap!"—He looked around, and seeing no one, continuing his work of seeding, attributing it, as he afterwards stated, to his imagination. At every step, however, the warning was repeated, and at last unable longer to bear it, he stopped work and proceeded home to his wife. He was persuaded by her that it was only his imagination, and finding that he had no fever, and did not complain of unusual indisposition, she induced him to return to the field. There, however, the same solemn, warning voice attended him at every step, "you may sow but you shall not reap!"—and in a state of extreme agitation, he again ceased work and went home. He there took an early supper, was shortly after attacked with swelling in the throat, and before sunrise next morning was a corpse!—Centreville Times.

NOMINATION OF GEN. TAYLOR.—The leading Whig papers in New York, Pennsylvania, Missouri and Delaware have hoisted the flag of old "ROUGH AND READY" at the head of their columns, viz:

Philadelphia U. S. Gazette, at Philadelphia.

Courier and Enquirer, at New York.

New Era, at St. Louis, Mo.

Delaware Journal, at Wilmington—and John M. Clayton for Vice President.

The "National Whig" is the name of a penny paper published at Washington, having at its mast head the name of Gen. Taylor for President.

The following Whig papers have also hoisted the Taylor flag.

The North America—Inquirer, Philadelphia.

The N. Y. Mirror, (heretofore neutral,) N. York.

Intelligencer, Harrisburg, Pa.

Union and Tribune, Lancaster, Pa.

Phenix, Camden, N. J.

REV. MR. COX.—The Rev. S. K. Cox, late of Washington city, arrived at Charleston on Thursday, where he is to officiate as pastor of the Methodist Protestant church in that city. Mr. Cox is highly esteemed in Baltimore, where he has many warm friends.—Balt. Clipper.

ALBANY CHARTER ELECTION.

Evening Journal Office,

ALBANY, Monday evening, April 14, 1847.

William Parmelee, Whig Mayor is elected a Majority over all others of about 2.472. Whig Aldermen are elected in the 3d, 4th 5th, 6th, 7th, 9th; and 10th wards. Loco Foco do. in the 1st, 2d and 8th—7 Whigs to 3 Loco. Of course the Government is Whig in every part.

FIRING CANNON.—A number of deaths and shocking mutulations, from firing salutes recently, are recordded in the papers. This arises from the unskillfulness of the individuals who undertake the task. It ought never to be entrusted to any but those accustomed to firing cannon, and who have learned to do it rightly.

Goldsborough of this town, in the 15th year of her age Though this amiable young lady has been most unexpectedly taken from the society of her ralatives and friends, after an illness of but twenty-four hours, yet they experience sweet consolation in the belief that she died in the enjoyment of that sublime faith which throws a halo of heavenly light around the grave.

"As the sweet rose's tins decay,
As the rich rainbow's colors fly,
As flits the lovely dream away,
Alas! so youth and beauty die!"
