At the execution of the annexed Commission issued out of Allegany County Court, as a Court of Equity, and to me directed, and empowering me to examine evidences in the Cause depending in said Court between James Robinett, as Complainant and Keziah Wilson and George Wilson as defendants, I Philip Roman Commissioner therein named being in my office on the second day of September in the year 1847 pursuant to previous notice thereof given to the said parties and having taken the oath annexed to said Commission did proceed then and there in the presence of the Complainant, and Mr Kaig Solicitor for the defendant to take the following depositions Towit:

John Mc Elfish a witness of lawful age, produced on the part of the Complainant, and being duly sworn and examined to interrogatories filed by the Complainant with the Commissioner and herewith returned deposes and saith.

To the First Interrogatory deponent answers, he does and has known them for twenty years.

To the second Interrogatory, deponent answers I was at old Keziah Wilson's when some Conversation arose about the property mentioned in exhibit B she said she did not care what become of the property, so she got enough to live on. Her son George observed, Mother I reserve Beck for own use to attend on you and me. This Conversation commenced by George and his mother talking about whether he George should sell the property to Elza Mc Elfish, or to James Robinett, his mother said she would rather James Robinett should have the property, than Elza, as it would be near in the family if James Robinett had it.

Deponent heard a Conversation between Kezia Wilson and William Robinett about George's selling his property, when William Robinett said Kezia dont dispose of any of the property, keep them while ever I have got a dollar keep them, when Kezia said in reply, why William they are not mine, they belong to George, and he may do what he pleases with them except Beck. Deponent does not know whether both of these conversations occured on the same day or not. William Robinett was present at both conversations, the property of which they were talking deponent understood to be all George's property, they did not specify any particular property but the property of which they spoke was the property of which Amos Wilson died possessed.

To the third Interrogatory. Deponent answers that they did trespass upon his property and he complained to Kezia Wilson when she replied they are not mine, they belong to James Robinett, go and complain to him, this Conversation was in the presence of Brooks Middleton.

To the fourth Interrogatory Deponent answers that he knows nothing

Cross Interrogatories filed on the part of Kezia Wilson.

To the first Cross Interrogatory. Deponent answers that is more than he can be positive of. deponent states that he never expected to be called on about the Conversations, and cant now recollect either the year or the month.

To the second Cross Interrogatory. Deponent answers he was acquainted with them, they were horses, negroes and lands.

To the third Cross Interrogatory Deponent answers that he cant say that she had, she was living on it but George had the management and control of. never heard Kezia Wilson speak of it as her own

To the fourth Cross Interrogatory, Deponent answers, that George R Wilson was sober at the time of these Conversations, and he was capable of making a Contract or attending to his business.

To the fifth Cross Interrogatory. Deponent answers, that there are none.

To the sixth Cross Interrogatory. Deponent answers, that Kezia Wilson told him that they were George R Wilson's horses before Robinett got them. Robinett owned them at the time of the trespass he called on Kezia to buy one of the horses, and she told him they belonged to James Robinett, go to him and if he sold them, she was satisfied.

To the seventh Cross Interrogatory Deponent answers that Brooks Middleton was present, but he does not know at what time it occured, thinks it was some time in the month of September, but dont recollect the year.

To the eighth Cross Interrogatory Deponent answers, that he cannot tell the time George R Wilson sold his property. These conversations occured after the sale of the property to James Robinett thinks it was six months or a year after the said sale.

To the Complainants additional Interrogatories the deponent answers and saith. —

To the Complainants first additional Interrogatory. Deponent answers that they were part of the personal estate of Amos Wilson deceased the father of George Wilson. The negroes were always called Amos Wilson's negroes and were part of the personal estate of Amos Wilson father of Geo R Wilson.

By the Consent of the Counsel for the Complainant and defendant it was agreed that the Commission should be adjourned over until Wednesday the 13th of September, on which day the following Witnesses were examined to interrogatories filed with the Commission and herewith returned in the presence of Thomas Perry solicitor for Complainant and William Mc Kaig Solicitor for the Defendant.
