POETRY.

O! HAD WE ONLY MET.

O! had we only met,
When life and hope were new,
When love unmingled with regret,
Lay on our hearts like dew,
I had not heard a sigh
When wrapt in that sweet trance,
I raised mine own and met thine eye,
Returning glance for glance.

O! do not prize me less
For yielding to the power,
The soft delicious dreaminess,
That filled that twilight hour;
I thought its spell were thine
Around my spirit wove,
And half forgot it was not mine
To give thee love for love.

Love! did I call it love?
It will not bear the name!
A softer thought our bosom move,
A tenderer, sweeter flame!
I feel it in the tone
That thrilled thy low reply,
As thy warm lips, beside my own,
Responded sigh to sigh.

I love thee not, but O!
If we had met in youth,
When first we dreamed of passions glow,
Its fervor and its truth,
Perhaps it had been mine,
With whispers soft and low,
To place my little hand in thine,
And murmur vow for vow.

Dear one! for dear thou art,
Thou knows't it is not mine,
To lift the veil from this deep heart
Nor yet to gaze in thine,
But O! were I to speak
Of all I hope and fear,
Even thou would scarcely deem it weak.
To give me tear for tear.

AMELIA.

UNCLE EPHRAIM.

BY DR. C. C. COX.

Uncle Ephraim, I thought when I saw thee to-day,
Tott'ring, crippled, and faint to thy home,
How soon that old form would be hurried away,
And laid in its clay covered tomb;
It has out-lived the spring and the summer of life,
And has long felt the winter's bleak snow,
And now unprepared for the storm and the strife,
It is fitting, old man, thou shouldst go.

Uncle Ephraim, I've known thee these many long years,
And ne'er have I known thee to blame—
When a child I have never been sacred into tears,
Or grown pale at the sound of thy name;
For thou ever wast gentle and civil to all,
And now that thy temples are gray,
Both the rich and the poor at thy cottage door call,
To wish thee the joys of the day.

Uncle Ephraim, few know what a man thou hast been,
Poor, and humble, and old as thou art,—
In the wars of our land, when were laurels to win,
They say thou has born a good part,
And tho' no proud shaft o'er thine ashes may loom,
Where the deeds of thy glory may shine,
None e'er stood in marble or bronze for a tomb,
O'er a loftier spirit than thine.

Uncle Ephraim, I've seen thee as evening came on
Sitting silently down at thy door,
And I've thought in the twilight thy spir it had gone
To join with the spirits of yore,
For thine eyes were hard bent on the pop lar tree
Where youth swept its halycon round,
And I saw when they wandered away to the lea
That a tear now and then reached the ground!

Uncle Ephraim, thy hand hath closed many an eye,
A laid many a form 'neath the sod—
And death with stern grasp shall soon hurry thee by,
And leave thee alone with thy God—
But the old poplar tree which thou gazest on here,
From the green slope in front of thy door—
Shall blossom and flourish for many a year,
When thou and when I are no more.

Uncle Ephraim, thou'llt soon be forgotten by some,
For 'tis just like the world to forget—
But methinks when the spring time and summer shall come,
Old relic, I'll think of thee yet;
I shall see thee in fancy, on turnpike and hill,
In the garb which thou wearest to day—
In the same cottage door I shall look for thee still,
And forget thou hast wandered away!

"John can you tell me the difference between attraction of gravitation and attraction of cohesion?" "Yes, sir; attraction of gravitation pulls a drunken man to the ground, and attraction of cohesion prevents his getting up again."

"SUGAR COATED" PILLS.
BEWARE! CAUTION!!

The increasing popularity of Dr G. BENJ SMITH'S IMPROVED INDIAN VEGETABLE SUGAR COATED PILLS, has induced a number of persons to make something they call PILLS, and coat them with sugar, in order to sell them for the genuine, while they do not possess a particle of the goodness, nor even assimilate in appearance to the original, Dr. Smith's Pills. In short they are intended FRAUD upon the community. A minister who at first had an interest in an imitation Sugar Coated Pill, manufactured at Albany, N. Y., has given them up, as he says on account of the miserable dishonest parties concerned in manufacturing them. The same party are now industriously circulating reports calculated to injure Dr. Smith and to affect the reputation of his valuable pills; but rather than notice them in public. Dr Smith is about to institute legal proceedings against them for their slanders, as he has in another case against a similar party. in which he recovered a large amount of damages. These miserable imitators have to resort to the most abominable means to palm off their counterfeit pills as the public know that Dr. Smith's are the original and genuine. Several instances have come to public notice in which life has been endangered by the unfortunate use of the counterfeits. It is Dr Smith's Pills that are doing so much good in the country—as the following plainly show.

MORE MINISTERS.

Use and Recommend Dr Smith's Pills than all others.

This is to certify that I have used the Sugar Coated Pills Manufactured by G. Benjamin Smith of New York, for some time, and believe them to be a good medicine; also, from inquiry in that city, I am persuaded that he is the original inventor, and therefore is entitled to the benefit of the invention

S. WILLIAMS.
Pastor 1st Baptist Church.

From the Blue Hens's Chicken. (Del.)

We call the attention of our readers to the certificate of Rev. S. Williams, Pastor of 1st Baptist Church, Pittsburgh, in relation to Dr. Smith's Pills. We can ourselves bear testimony to the excellence of these Pills, one of us having used them and experienced great relief from them.

The above is the best paper in the State of Delaware.

The "improved indian vegetable Pills," (Sugar Coated,) are certainly doing much good in the whole country, and are highly esteemed, if one half is true that people write and say about them. They are so easy in their operation that all like them. The editor of the Northern State Journal, (one of the largest and best papers in the State of N. Y.,) writes as follows.

Watertown, May 31, 1846.

Dr. G. Benj Smith—

Dear Sir I was laid up with a bad co'd some time since my return from N. Y. and during my illness I made trial of your pills and I must say I found them excellent. They are the best medicine for the purposes they are intended, that I have yet seen I seldom take pills, but I found yours entirely free from the objections to which other pills are liable. I hope they will continue to be a source of profit to you, as I doubt not they will be a means of relief to the afflicted on a large scale. Yours truly,

J. GREEN.

Tonawanda, Pa., Sept. 18, 1846.

Dr. G. Benj Smith—

Dear Sir, Your agent left with me a lot of your Sugar coated Pills, and I have but a few boxes left. Every box I have sold has given entire satisfaction. I have taken them myself and I consider them the best pills I have ever used, and I am not afraid to recommend them to the public. I wish a further supply at once.

Yours respectfully,
JACOB KIBLER, P. M.

Huntington, Ind., June 21, 1846.

Dr. Smith –

Dear Sir, I am most out of your "Indian Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills," and find them selling so fast that I think you had better send me two gross immediately. They give such general satisfaction that people come at least twenty miles for them, and as it is generally known I am agent for them, I would be very sorry to get out.

Yours respectfully,
SAML. MORE & Co

BEWARE!!!

If G. BENJ SMITH, be not written with a pen on the bottom of the box, all "Sugar Coated" Pills are counterfeit!

Principal Office 179 Greenwich St, large brick block, N. Y. Price 25 cents a box.
