POETRY.

Written for the Philadelphia Sat. Cour.

HAZEL DELL.

From the early bells of morning,
Till the evening chimes resound,
In the busy world of labor,
For my daily bread I'm bound,
With no hopes of more posessions
Than six scanty feet of ground!

But my soul hath found an empire,
Hid between two sister hills,
Where she dreams or roams at pleasure,
Finding whatsoe'er she wills;
There sweet Hope her fairest promise
With a lavish hand fulfils.

And the path that windeth thither
There's no mortal foot may tread,
For its leads through charmed vallies,
With enchanted blossoms spread,
Under groves of flowering poplars,
Through the violets' purple bed.

And it winds beside a river,
Half in sight and hidden half;
There a group of thoughts, like maidens,
Dance with joyous song and laugh;
Or a gray and solemn pilgrim,
Goes supported by his staff.

Overveiled with vines and water,
Dropt from many a hidden well,
Are the rocks which make the gateway;—
And the water's silver bell,
Keeps the warder, Silence, wakeful
At the gate of Hazel Dell!

Nor may any pass the warder
Till the watchword they repeat,
They must go arrayed like angels,
In their purity complete;
And the stave supported pilgrim,
Lay the sandels from his feet!

And within the purple valley,
Where perpetual summer teems,
Whisper silver tongued brooklets;
Melting into larger streams,
Winding round through sun and shadow,
Like a gentle maiden's dreams.

Then let labor hold me vassal,
Since my soul can scorn his reign!
Even fetters for the body
Were but bands of sand, and vain,
While the spirit thus can wander,
Singing through its own domain!

In the long still hours of darkness,
Stretched from weary chime to chime!
Thus beside my own Castalia
I can gather flowers of rhyme,
And with all their fresh dew freighted,
Fling them on the stream of Time!

A MINER.

WHEN I BENEATH THE COLD RED EARTH AM SLEEPING.

BY WM. MOTHERWELL.

When I beneath the cold red earth am sleeping,
Life's fever o'er,
Will there for me be any bright eye weeping,
That I'm no more?
Will there be any heart still memory keeping
Of heretofore?

When the great winds through leafless forests rushing,
Sad music make;
When the swollen streams, o'er crag and gully gushing,
Like full hearts break,
Will there then one whose heart despair is crushing,
Mourn for my sake?

When the bright sun upon that spot is shining
With purest ray,
And the small flowers their buds and blossoms twining,
Burst through that clay;
Will there be one still on that spot repining
Lost hopes all day?

When the night shadows, with the ample sweeping
Of her dark pall,
The world and all its manifold creatures sleeping,
The great and small,
Will there be one, even at that dread hour, weeping
For me—for all?

When no star twinkles with its eye of glory,
On that low mound,
And wintry storms have with their ruins hoary
Its loneness crowned;
Will there be then one versed in misery's story
Pacing it round?

It may be so—but this is selfish sorrow
To ask such meed—
A weakness and a wickedness to borrow
From hearts that bleed,
The wailings of to day, for what to-morrow
Shall never need.

Lay me then gently in my narrow dwelling,
Thou gentle heart;
And though thy bosom should with grief be swelling,
Let no tear start;
It were in vain—for Time hath long been knelling,
Sad one, depart!

'SUGAR COATED" PILLS.'
BEWARE! CAUTION!!

The increasing popularity of Dr G. PENJ SMITH'S IMPROVED INDIAN VEGETABLE SUGAR COATED PILLS, has induced a number of persons to make something they call PILLS, and coat them with sugar, in order to sell them for the genuine, while they do not possess a particle of the goodness, nor even assimilate in appearance to the original, Dr. Smith's Pills. In short they are intended FRAUD upon the community. A minister who at first had an interest in an imitation Sugar Coated Pill, manufactured at Albany, N. Y., has given them up, as he says on account of the miserable dishonest parties concerned in manufacturing them. The same party are now industriously circulating reports calculated to injure Dr. Smith and to affect the reputation of his valuable pills; but rather than notice them in public. Dr Smith is about to institute legal proceedings against them for their slanders, as he has in another case against a similar party, in which he recovered a large amount of damages. These miserable imitators have to resort to the most abominable means to palm off their counterfeit pills as the public know that Dr. Smith's are the original and genuine. Several instances have come to public notice in which life has been endangered by the unfortunate use of the counterfeits. It is Dr Smith's Pills that are doing so much good in the country—as the following plainly show.

MORE MINISTERS.

Use and Recommend Dr. Smith's Pills than all others.

This is to certify that I have used the Sugar Coated Pills Manufactured by G. Penjamin Smith of New York, for some time, and believe them to be a good medicine; also, from inquiry in that city I am persuaded that he is the original inventor, and therefore is entitled to the benefit of the invention

S. WILLIAMS
Pastor 1st' Baptist Church.

From the Blue Hens's Chicken. (Del.)

We call the attention of our readers to the certificate of Rev. S. Williams, Pastor of 1st Baptist Church, Pittsburgh, in relation to Dr. Smith's Pills. We can ourselves bear testimony to the excellence of these Pills, one of us having used them and experienced great relief from them.

The above is the best paper in the State of Delaware.

The "improved indian vegetable Pills," (Sugar Coated,) are certainly doing much good in the whole country, and are highly esteemed, if one half is true that people write and say about them. They are so easy in their operation that all like them. The editor of the Northern State Journal, (one of the largest and best papers in the State of N. Y.,) writes as follows.

Watertown, May 31, 1846.

Dr. G Benj Smith—

Dear Sir: I was laid up with a bad cold some time since my return from N. Y. and during my illness I made trial of your pills and I must say I found them excellent. They are the best medicine for the purposes they are intended, that I have yet seen I seldom take pills, but I found yours entirely free from the objections to which other pills are liable. I hope they will continue to be a source of profit to you, as I doubt not they will be a means of relief to the afflicted on a large scale. Yours truly,

J. GREEN.

Tonawanda, Pa., Sept. 18, 1846.

Dr. G. Benj. Smith—

Dear Sir: Your agent left with me a lot of your Sugar coated Pills, and I have but a few boxes left. Every box I have sold has given entire satisfaction. I have taken them myself and I consider them the best pills I have ever used, and I am not afraid to recommend them to the public. I wish a further supply at once.

Yours respectfully,
JACOB KIBLER, P. M.

Huntington, Ind., June 21, 1846.

Dr. Smith—

Dear Sir, I am most out of your "Indian Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills," and find them selling so fast that I think you had better send me two gross immediately. They give such general satisfaction that people come at least twenty miles for them, and as it is generally known I am agent for them, I would be very sorry to get out.

Yours respectfully,
SAML. MORE & Co.

BEWARE!!

If G. BENJ SMITH, be not written with a pen on the bottom of the box, all "Sugar Coated" Pills are counterfeit!
