DEAD.—We regret to learn that George Johnston, Esq., late editor of the Annapolis Herald; died at his residence in that city on Saturday morning last—he had been lingering for some time with pulmonary disease. The deceased was well known in Baltimore, and was universally esteemed by those who knew him for the generosity of his character; his loss will be sincerely mourned by his numerous friends.

DEATH OF A BALTIMORE VOLUNTEER —A volunteer attached to Capt. Howard's company, died off the mouth of the Brazos on the 22d ult. His name is not given.

Lieut. Emory, who distinguished himself in the battles in California, of which we have recently had accounts, is a native of Queen Anne's county, Md. Lieut. Tilghman, who was distinguished in the same battles, is a native of Talbot county.

Presentment of a Cup.—The first Baltimore Light Infantry Company, under Capt. France, on Monday presented to Prof. Codet, a beautiful silver goblet, with a suitable inscription thereon, and bearing emblematic representations of music, dancing and arms; the workmanship of Messrs. E. A. Warner & Son.

A FAMILY POISONED.—The Lexington (Miss.) Advertiser, of the 22d ult. says: On Friday last, the family of Mr. James Cullen, Sen., residing at the pond (Bathesda) 4 miles from Yazoo city, were poisoned by eating pies, which were seasoned with peach leaves. Mr. Cullen died instantly from the effects, and all who partook of the pies were taken sick. The pressic acid contained in the leaves, and concentrated by baking, is the supposed cause of the calamity.

GEN. TAYLOR AND THE PRESIDENCY — The New York Mirror says:

We understand that there is a letter in town from Gen. Taylor, written in reference to his nomination for the Presidency in which he expresses a preference for Henry Clay over every other candidate yet named, and for Crittenden and McLean next. But notwithstanding that these are his preferences over all others, he still candidly avows that he is not indifferent to the will of the people, and rather intimates that he will feel himself bound to accept the Presidency if the people should persist in thrusting it upon him. So let us hear no more about his declining the nomination.

VICTIMS OF FAMINE.—Two millions of human beings, according to the Dublin Nation, are destined to perish by this year's famine in Ireland! a population sufficient for a powerful State—and two-thirds of our own at the time of our Revolutionary struggle. The mind shudders at the bare contemplation of the fact: what then must be the feelings of the spectators of the horrible calamity?

The Sultan and the Distressed Irish.—A letter from Constantinople mentions an act of liberality on the part of the Sultan which does him great credit. Upon hearing of the sufferings of the Irish, the Sultan caused to be handed to the Hon. Mr. Wellesley £1000, to be disposed of by him in the best way towards their alleviation. —Globe.

LETTER FROM MR. CLAY.—The following letter from the Sage of Ashland to a citizen of Athens, Ga., we find in the Southern Whig:

ASHLAND, 13th April, 1847.

DEAR SIR:—I thank you for your friendly letter of the 5th inst. It comes to me when I am suffering under one of the heaviest afflictions that has ever befallen me, deep as I have drunk out of the cup of domestic sorrow. Could the most tender and touching expressions of sympathy and condolence, which reach me from every quarter, and in every form, assuage my grief, it would be much alleviated.—But, alas! there are some wounds too deep and too painful to be healed by any other remedy, than the one which flows from Him, by whose incomprehensible dispensations they have been inflicted.

It is some consolation to me to know that my beloved son, if death were to come, preferred meeting it on the field of battle in the service of his country. With friendly recollections of our meeting at Augusta and Charleston, I am truly, your friend and obedient servant,

H. CLAY.

THE NEWS AND THE MARKET.—The New York Express of Thursday afternoon says—

The news from Europe has made quite a sensation in Wall street. It is better than was expected. Operators anticipated a moderate advance on Cotton, but not as great as it appears has taken place. There was no material rise in Breadstuffs expected, but it appears that Flour and Grain have both gone up. The demand also from the Continent has increased.—The rate of interest has also improved; but as England is greatly in debt to this country, it will have no immediate effect on the money market here.

The influence of the news has been most favorable. The holders of Cotton are not only sustained in the recent advance, but have put up prices 1-2 a cent.

The stock of Breadstuffs here is exhausted, and it is impossible to make any great purchases. The price, however, for Flour, for the small parcels here, has advanced to 7,37 1-2, and Corn to 100 cts.

The same paper says—

The news by the steamer was in extensive circulation among the flour men, an hour or two before it was in possession of the press, generally. The effect has been an active demand for Flour, and several parcels have been purchased, of Genesee at $7,37 and at $6 25 on contract deliverable in June. This is an advance of 25 cents on the latter, since yesterday. There is so small a stock of Flour here that no large purchase can be made.

POSTCRIPT.

ADDITIONAL NEWS.

The papers of yesterday announce the advance of the Mexicans towards Peubla —popular sentiment against Santa Anna—and the murder of several of our prisoners at the city of Mexico, of the party in which Cassius M. Clay and others were embraced. There is rumor also of renewed mediation offered by Great Britain between Mexico and the United States.

FROM SAN LUIS POTOSI.—The New Orleans Picayune says that El Moniter Republicano, published at the city of Mexico, has a letter from San Luis Potosi dated the 7th ult. The letter says it was the intention of Gen. Taylor to move for Zacatecas and San Luis on the 7th of May and that he had been reinforced from Matamoras and Camargo by 4,000 men. Gen. Urrea must be at this time on this side of the mountains, as his last letters were dated from Linares.

Gen. Taylor has advanced 3,000 men to the hacienda of Incarnation, and the remainder, of his forces is stationed at Agua Neuva. We have at San Luis 3,000 infantry and some cavalry.

Again, under date of April 10, it is stated that the Congress of the State of San Luis Potosi had conferred extraordinary powers upon the Governor to provide for the defence of the State.

DEATH OF DR. GEORGE MCCLELLAN. —The Philadelphia Inquirer states that a painful sensation was produced throughout that city on Sunday, in consequence of the sudden decease at an early hour in the morning of Dr. Geo McClellan, one of their most distinguished physicians. He died suddenly, of billious cholic. His age was 51. The loss of such a man is a public loss. Dr. McClellan, as a physician and surgeon, was regarded by thousands, not only of the citizens of Philadelphia, but the citizens of other parts of the Union, as occupying the very first rank in his profession.
