MR. EDITOR:

At a meeting of the Commissioners for Talbot county held on the 18th inst, the following preamble and resolution was passed unanimously.

"Whereas an article over the signature of "CHAPPEL," has appeared in the Easton Star of this date, containing the following sentence. "If we are correctly informed, it was arranged by the Prosecutor and Sheriff to send an express to Governor Pratt, the morning after the murder was committed, an application was made to the board of county Commissioners to defray the necessary expense ($10) which they declined to do simply because they did not BELIEVE it was a wilful murder."—And whereas so much of the sentence as refers to this board is totally and entirely untrue and false—therefore Resolved, that the clerk be instructed to inform the public through the papers published in Easton, that the subject of the murder of Firbanks by Millis has never been brought in any shape or manner before the Commissioners for Talbot county. By order

T. C. NICOLS, Cl'k.

To the Stockholders of the Mutual Fire Insurance Co., of Talbot County.

GENTLEMEN:—The detailed statement of the accounts of the Company which has recently been published by the Directors in compliance with the provisions of the charter has already made you acquainted with the present condition of its affairs.

It may not be inappropriate, however, at this, your first annual meeting, to call your attention more particularly to the circumstances which have attended our operations during the first year of the existence of the company and to present to your notice a few considerations in reference to the present condition and future prospects of the institution. The first policy was issued on the 14th of July, 1846, about nine months before the time at which the statement above mentioned was rendered.

Previous to the establishment of this company, but a small number of our citizens had been in the habit of insuring their property. The introduction of any new branch of business must of course be gradual, and when in addition to this it is remembered that the unsettled condition of the county interfered materially with the regular business of the community, it could not reasonably have been expected that our progress during the first six months would have been greater than it was. During the last three months the average business of the company has increased one hundred per cent. on the average of the preceding six months, and there is every reason to expect that it will continue to advance beyond the present rate.

The number of applications for insurance is gradually increasing and the list of stockholders already includes the names of many of our most influential and enterprising citizens; their patronage affords the best evidence of the good standing of the company and will necessarily have the effect of adding to its business by inducing others to imitate their prudent example.

On the other hand, the expenses of the company will be materially diminished during the coming year, as many heavy items which were incident to the commencement of its operations will not have to be incurred again.

This diminution in the expenses will leave a much larger amount from the revenue on the present policies during the coming year, together with the whole amount which may be received for new policies to be issued during that period.

The amount of property now insured, is	$89,306,33
The amount of capital to meet losses, is	9,622,95
The interest arising from this fund during the next 12 months (after deducting all the expenses of the company for that period) and the cash proceeds of new policies, estimating the average amount of business to be equal to that of the last 3 months, will make the nett revenues of the company for the next year, about	1500,00
The resources of the company will continue to increase with the natural increase of the business, and on the supposition that the average number of insurances should be no greater than they have been during the past quarter, the nett income of the company would amount during the 3d year to	$2500,00
During the 4th year to	3500,00
During the 5th year to	4500.00

Thus it will be seen that the total nett revenues of the company for the first five years will amount to the sum of $12,000 exclusive of interest, if the business should continue at its present rate, and the whole number of policies should amount to 375 or an average of only 75 insurances per annum.

That it will exceed this number cannot be doubted from the number of applications which the company is receiving from citizens of this county and the adjoining counties of Queen Anns and Caroline, in both of which agencies have been established and insurances effected.

The view herein presented of the prospects of the company is fully borne out by the present condition of the business, as explained in this report, and is believed to be sufficient to demonstrate satisfactorily the ultimate and entire success of the institution.

All which is respectfully submitted.

TENCH TILGHMAN, President.

OBITUARY.

Permit me to offer through your columns, a humble tribute to the memory of Mrs. AREANNA RHODES, who has recently gone from our midst, to join the company of the blest, leaving the community in which she spent a long life, to mourn their irreparable loss.

Mrs. Rhodes was a member of one of the oldest families in Maryland. Long shall the people of Bayside, the place in which she was born and spent her long and useful life, remember her offices of kindness, her hospitality, and her bright examples of living excellence.

When one like her passes from among us, we feel that one of the pillars of society has been taken from our abode. Mrs. Rhodes was at the age of 77 when she died, and few, very few are the names that shall be remembered with deeper feelings of gratitude, and cherished with higher regard than hers. Would that the young daughters of our land would copy her example of life, in all that constitutes true excellence. How blessed to die after spending a long life in usefulness and deeds of love! So passed away this messenger of goodness from our midst.
