POETRY.

A SOLEMN CONCEIT.

BY WILLIAM MOTHERWELL.

Stately stars are growing,
Lonely winds are blowing,
And mighty rivers flowing
Oh, for ever oh.
As stately forms were growing,
As lonely spirits blowing,
And as mighty fancies flowing
Oh, for ever oh,—
But there has been leave-taking,
Sorrow and heart-breaking,
And a mouldy pale Echo 's making,
For the gone, for ever gone!

Lovely stars are gleaming,
Bearded lights are streaming,
And glorious suns are beaming
Oh, for ever oh.
As lovely eyes were gleaming,
As wondrous lights were streaming,
And as glorious minds were beaming
Oh, for ever oh,—
But there has been soul-sundering,
Wailing, and sad wondering,
For graves grow fat with plundering
The gone, for ever gone!

We see great eagles soaring,
We hear deep oceans roaring,
And sparkling fountains pouring
Oh, for ever oh.
As lofty winds were soaring,
As sonorous voices roaring,
And as sparkling wits were pouring
Oh, for ever oh,—
But, pinions have been shedding,
And voiceless darkness spreading,
Since a measure Death's been treading
O'er the gone, for ever gone!

Every thing is sundering,
Every one is wondering,
And the huge globe goes thundering
Oh, for ever oh.
But, 'mid this weary sundering,
Heart-breaking, and sad wondering,
And this huge globe's rude thundering
Oh, for ever oh,
I would that I were dreaming
Where little flowers are gleaming,
And the long green grass is streaming
O'er the gone, for ever gone!

EVENING HYMN.

FATHER SUPREME! Thou High and Holy One,
To Thee we bow,
Now, when the labor of the day is done,
Devoutly, now.

From age to age, unchanging, still the same,
All good Thou art;
Hallowed and holy be Thy reverend name,
In every heart.

When the glad morn upon the hills was spread,
Thy smile was there:
Now, as the darkness gathers over-head,
We feel Thy care.

Night spreads her shade upon another day,
Forever past;
So, o'er our faults, Thy love, we humbly pray,
A veil may cast.

Silence and sleep, o'er hearts by earth distress'd,
Now sweetly steal;
So every fear, that struggles in the breast,
Shall Faith conceal.

Thou thro' the dark wilt watch above our sleep,
With eye of love;
And Thou wilt wake us, when the sunbeams peep,
The hills above.

O, may each heart its gratitude express,
As life expands;
And find the triumph of its happiness,
In Thy commands.

GENIUS OF A HIGHWAYMAN.

A French robber, named Dore, once had the audacity, alone and unassisted, save by his own ingenuity, to stop a diligence full of passengers. He constructed several excellent men of straw, of the size of life, and quite as natural—at least in the dark. These he invested in the needful toggery—neither fresh or fashionable we presume, but serving the purpose.—Finally, he fastened sticks, intended to represent muskets, to the shoulders of the figures, which he posted in a row against trees bordering on the high road. Up came the diligence. "Halt!" shouted Dore, in the voice of a Stentor: "Halt! or my men fire!" The frightened driver pulled up short; the conductor and passengers, seeing a row of figures with levelled fire-arms, thought they had fallen into the hands of a whole army of banditti, and begged for mercy. Dore came forward in the character of a generous protector—sternly ordered his men to abstain from violence and remain where they were, and collected from the trembling and intimidated passengers their purses, watches and jewels. "I forbid you to fire," he shouted to his quaker gang, whilst pocketing the rich tribute; "they make no resistance; I will have no useless blood shed." The conductor, delighted to save a large sum of money secreted in a chest, quietly submitted; the passengers were too happy to get off with whole skins, and the women thanked their spoiler, and called him a humane man, and almost kissed him out of gratitude for his sparing their lives.—The plunder collected, the driver got permission to continue his journey, which he did at full speed, lest the banditti should change their minds and forget their forbearance. Dore made his escape unmolested, leaving his straw regiment on picket by the road side, a scare-crow, till daybreak, to the passing traveller.

'SUGAR COATED' PILLS.' BEWARE CAUTION!!

The increasing popularity of Dr G. BENJ SMITH'S IMPROVED INDIAN VEGETABLE SUGAR COATED PILLS, has induced a number of persons to make something they call PILLS, and coat them with sugar, in order to sell them for the genuine, while they do not possess a particle of the goodness, nor even resemble in appearance to the original, Dr Smith's Pills. In short they are intended FRAUD upon the community. A minister who at first had an interest in an imitation Sugar Coated Pill, manufactured at Albany, N. Y., has given them up as he says on account of the miserable dishonest parties concerned in manufacturing them. The same party are now industriously circulating reports calculated to injure Dr. Smith and to affect the reputation of his valuable pills; but rather than notice them in public. Dr Smith is about to institute legal proceedings against them for their slanders, as he has in another case against a similar party, in which he recovered a large amount of damages. These miserable imitators have to resort to the most abominable means to palm off their counterfeit pills as the public know that Dr. Smith's are the original and genuine. Several instances have come to public notice in which life has been endangered by the unfortunate use of the counterfeits. It is Dr Smith's Pills that are doing so much good in the country—as the following plainly show.

MORE MINISTERS.

Use and Recommend Dr Smith's Pills than all others

This is to certify that I have used the Sugar Coated Pills Manufactured by G. Benjamin Smith' of New York, for some time, and believe them to be a good medicine; also, from inquiry in that city I am persuaded that he is the original inventor, and therefore is entitled to the benefit of the invention.

S. WILLIAMS.
Pastor 1st Baptist Church.

From the Blue Hens's Chicken. (Del.)

We call the attention of our readers to the certificate of Rev. S. Williams, Pastor of 1st Baptist Church, Pittsburgh, in relation to Dr. Smith's Pills. We can ourselves bear testimony to the excellence of these Pills, one of us having used them and experienced great relief from them.

The above is the best paper in the State of Delaware.

The "improved indian vegetable Pills," (Sugar Coated,) are certainly doing much good in the whole country, and are highly esteemed, if one half is true that people write and say about them. They are so easy in their operation that all like them.' The editor of the Northern State Journal, (one of the largest and best papers in the State of N. Y.,) writes as follows.

Watertown, May 31, 1846.

Dr. G Benj Smith—

Dear Sir: I was laid up with a bad cold some time since my return from N. Y. and during my illness I made trial of your pills and I must say I found them excellent. They are the best medicine for the purposes they are intended, that I have yet seen. I seldom take pills, but I found yours entirely free from the objections to which other pills are liable. I hope they will continue to be a source of profit to you, as I doubt not they will be a means of relief to the afflicted on a large scale. Yours truly,

J. GREEN.

Tonawanda, Pa., Sept. 18, 1846.

Dr G. Benj Smith—

Dear Sir: Your agent left with me a lot of your Sugar coated Pills, and I have but a few boxes left. Every box I have sold has given entire satisfaction. I have taken them myself and I consider them the best pills I have ever used, and I am not afraid to recommend them to the public. I wish a further supply at once.

Yours respectfully,
JACOB KIBLER, P. M.

Huntington, Ind., June 21, 1846.

Dr. Smith—

Dear Sir. I am most out of your "Indian Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills," and find them selling so fast that I think you had better send me two gross immediately. They give such general satisfaction that people come at least twenty miles for them, and as it is generally known I am agent for them, I would be very sorry to get out.

Yours respectfully,
SAML. MORE & Co.

BEWARE!!!

If G. BENJ. SMITH, be not written with a pen on the bottom of the box, all "Sugar Coated" Pills are counterfeit!
